

Students Going To Greensboro Meet

North Wilkesboro high school band will go to Greensboro Friday to take part in the state music contest.

The band won a number one rating at the district contest held recently in Boone and was highly praised by the judges. W. P. Grier, Jr., is the instructor.

In Festival Chorus

Eight students went to Greensboro Tuesday for rehearsals and to take part today in the 500-voice festival chorus. The students are Frances Finley, Ruby Lee, Johnston, Betty Hudson, Jackie Frazier, Paisy Hadley, Lucille Casey, Annie Ruth Blankenship and Lomax Crook.

They were carried to Greensboro by A. H. Casey and D. L. Crook and returned by Mrs. A. F. Kirby, Miss Ellen Robinson and Miss Lucille DuBose.

No 10 o'clock Scholars At Dunn School

Dunn, April 14.—Maybe some kids don't like to go to school but that's not the case at the Dunn grammar school. The boys and girls like it so well that they've been going an hour too early every morning and staying late in the afternoon.

Officials almost have to beg them to stay home, the situation has gotten so bad.

E. G. Bourne, superintendent of city schools, today made an appeal to the parents through the newspapers not to allow their children to go to school before 8 o'clock.

"The teachers are not on duty before that time and it is impossible to look after them properly," the official explained.

Mr. Bourne declared some have been going as early as 6:30 in the morning. But, sure, there's a reason: New playground equipment has just been installed on the school grounds.

Pipkin Wears Same Hat on 43rd Easter

Goldsboro, April 14.—Jesse W. Pipkin, who will celebrate his 86th birthday Monday, April 21, wore his tall beaver hat to church Sunday for the 43rd consecutive Easter. He remarked when told how nice he looked that he would wear it 43 more Easters if he lived that long.

Mr. Pipkin bought the beaver from the late B. W. Cobb, Goldsboro clothing and dry goods merchant. Mr. Cobb persuaded him to let him order for him a Prince Albert suit to go along with the beaver. Suit and hat were used on state occasions, but the suit went into discard years ago. The beaver looks new and shiny.

One of the most regular attendants at St. Paul Methodist church, Mr. Pipkin has been a member there since St. Paul and St. John churches merged around 12 years ago. Before that he was a steward in St. John church for 20 years, and on the board of trustees around 10 years.

Thomas B. Whitley Claimed By Death

Funeral service was held Tuesday at Maple Grove church for Thomas B. Whitley, age 74, who died Sunday at his home in Rock Creek township. Revs. L. S. J. A. and T. E. Blevins conducted the service.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mattie Whitley, and one daughter, Mrs. Essie Clary.

Nutrition Project Leaders To Meet

Two food projects leaders from each of the 12 home demonstration clubs in Wilkes county will meet in the demonstration room at Duke Power company in North Wilkesboro on Wednesday afternoon, two o'clock. Miss Elizabeth Williams, home demonstration agent, said today.

Miss Mary Thomas, nutrition specialist of the extension service, will conduct demonstrations and address the group.

Wellborn Attends Woodman Meeting

C. M. Wellborn, of Cycle, for many years prominently affiliated with Woodman of the World Fraternity, attended the state convention of W. O. W. held in Durham last week.

Mr. Wellborn reported that the convention was highly successful and that all reports indicated continued growth and progress of the fraternity throughout the state.

H. H. Wise, unit demonstration farmer of the Three Mile community in Avery County, has found that the use of lime so increased his crop yields that he will lime his entire farm within the next few years.

Family Reunion and Birthday Dinner

A delightful birthday dinner and family reunion was given at the home of Mrs. Asa E. Greene Sunday by her daughters, Mesdames C. H. Wells and Robert W. Edwards.

The occasion marked the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Greene. Upon returning home from church Mrs. Greene found her relatives and close friends had gathered and surprised her with a bountiful dinner. Mr. T. E. Story gave an interesting talk of the Greene family, of Western Wilkes and Watauga Counties and their connection. Rev. Sloan Guy, pastor of Wilkesboro Baptist church, gave invocation.

A sumptuous dinner was enjoyed by all present and greeting was given to Mrs. Greene, wishing her many more happy birthdays. Those attending from a distance, were Mrs. Cecil Land and son, Joe, from Gastonia; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Greene, Miss Virginia Greene, Mr. Hamp Greene and son, Bobby and Rex Harrold, of Boone; Miss Nina Miller Hopkins, Mr. Baxter Hays, of Columbia, S. C.

All Records Broken For Egg Rolling

Washington, April 14.—All records for egg rolling—that peculiar Washington Easter Monday spree—were shattered tonight as the bits of gaily colored egg shells that 46 gardeners raked up from the trampled White House lawns.

Between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., 13,258 children and adults jammed their way into the White House grounds to roll eggs down sunny slopes, eat picnic lunches, listen to hands and hear a word of greeting from President Roosevelt. The old record, set in 1939, was 53,100.

The rule is that adults may enter only if accompanying a child, but each child seemed to have two or three adults in tow. When President Roosevelt came out on the south portico to say "Hello," he observed:

"I'm not sure the grown-ups don't enjoy it as much as the youngsters." Altogether, the day was a huge success.

Penslar Sale At Brame Drug Co.

Penslar One Cent Sale, the outstanding spring sales event at Brame Drug company, will open Thursday morning and continue through Saturday, April 19.

This sales event affords the public opportunity to buy numerous articles in the Penslar line of drugs and drug sundries at remarkable savings. One cent added to the regular price entitles the buyer to an identical article.

No strings are attached to this Penslar one-cent sale and each customer may buy all he or she desires at the regular price and one cent for the second identical article.

Brame Drug company is one of the oldest and best known drug firms in this part of the state and Penslar is one of the best known lines of drug store merchandise in the nation. These firms join in giving the people of this section of the state the unusual values which will be found in the one-cent sale.

The store is well stocked for this event, which should attract an unusually large number of customers for each of the three days.

Only a few of the hundreds of items included in the one-cent sale are described in the advertisement appearing elsewhere in this newspaper, to which the reader's attention is called. However, the values quoted are typical of many others to be found at the store.

In Memory Of Gene Somers

Death entered a happy home on March 21st, 1941, and took from it the oldest little boy, leaving little Don to play by himself.

Gene was always an extra good boy at school, and no matter what task he was given to do, he always did it with a smile. I can say for all the school that we miss Gene and his smiles. But I feel sure that our loss is heaven's gain.

Once there was a man working away from home. On his way home he was killed in an automobile wreck. The undertakers found this note in his vest pocket. "Please hurry home daddy."

I believe if Gene could write us, or his parents a little note it would be something like this. "Hurry and come on up to Heaven to stay with me."

Written by his teacher—Carl Church.

Calendar School Events Announced

Paul S. Cragan, superintendent of North Wilkesboro schools, today announced the calendar of events for the final six-weeks period of schools beginning Monday and the commencement.

The junior-senior banquet will be held on May 2. On May 6 will be the pre-school clinic and a public music festival will take place on May 9.

The baccalaureate sermon will be on May 25 and commencement finals on May 30.

Summer school will open on June 2.

WITH THE CHURCHES

Family Night At First Baptist This Sunday

In cooperation with the "Go To Church" campaign being sponsored by local civic and fraternal groups, the First Baptist church is recognizing the service this Sunday evening as "Family Night" and urging that families attend church together on this occasion. A special invitation is extended to fathers, mothers, and children to be present for the family night service.

At the morning worship service, the pastor will speak on "The Acid Test of The Christian." For the special evening service, the topic will be "Sign Posts On The Highway of Life." Choirs of the church will present special music at each of the services.

St. Paul's Episcopal

Yesper Service will be held Sunday afternoon, four o'clock, at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Wilkesboro.

Students To Elect President Tuesday

Students of North Wilkesboro high school will get practical training in citizenship on next Tuesday when they elect by secret ballot a president of the student body for the coming year. At a student body meeting this week at which Bob McCoy, president, presided, a nominating committee composed of Charles Snellson, Ed Gabriel and Sherwin Turner was named to nominate candidates.

They nominated Joe Clements and Grant Stewart, members of the rising senior class. Sherwin Turner will serve as chairman of the board of elections and the election will be held as nearly as possible along the lines of a regular election. The candidates are now in the midst of their campaign.

John Quincy Adams Sixth President

In Monday's issue The Journal-Patriot carried a brief biography of United States presidents, as compiled by H. Don Lane, of Moravian Falls. The biography of John Quincy Adams, sixth president, was inadvertently omitted from the list.

There was also a typographical error in the date of the birth of President Theodore Roosevelt, who was born October 27, 1858, instead of 1958.

Interest in the improvement of their poultry flocks continues to grow among Richmond County farmers, says N. L. Hendrix, assistant farm agent of the N. C. State College Extension Service.
