Legion Auxiliary Holds Monthly Meeting

The June meeting of the Legion Auxiliary was held Monday evening at Miss Toby Turner's home on the Brushy Mountain with Mrs. J. C. Smoot, Mrs. Charlie Pearson, and Mrs. M. G. Edwards as associate hostesses. In the absence of the president Mrs. Andrew Kibby presided for routine business during which time delegates were chosen to attend the state meeting in Durham. Those named to go were Mrs. Kibby, Miss Turner, Miss Norma Stevenson and Mrs. J. A. Rousseau. A large number of the members were present and during the social hour the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Robert Morehouse, Miss Lizzie Hisle, and Miss Edith Brown, in serving tempting refreshments.

Miss Mamie McNeil Entertains At Lovely Party

Miss Mamie McNeil was hostess at a lovely party at her home on D Street Monday evening entertaining at eight tables of bridge and rook. Roses and larkspur made a colorful background for the guests, who were served a dessert course before play. The count of scores gave Miss Elsie Nichols the award for the highest number of points and Miss Lura Coffey the consolation prize, while in rook the winner was Mrs. Claude McNeil, of Elkin. Mrs. Russell Gray, a bride of the spring, was remembered with a gift.

Approximately 70 per cent of the Nation's flue-cured tobacco is produced by North Carolina, reports the State Department of Agriculture.

Call Sloop Marriage Vows Are Announced

A wedding announcement of much interest reads as follows: "Mrs. Ensl Slater Call announces the marriage of her daughter, Helen, to Mr. Thomas Eugene Sloop on Saturday, the seventeenth of May, nineteen hundred and forty-one, Nashville, Tennessee."

The couple spoke their vows in the First Baptist church at Nashville, Tenn., with Dr. W. F. Powell as the officiating minister. For her nuptials the bride was becomingly attired in an aqueduct with which she used white accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mrs. Sloop, the daughter of Mrs. B. S. Call, of Wilkesboro, and the late Mr. Call, attended Woman's College at Greensboro and is court reporter for Wilkes and Avery counties.

Mr. Sloop, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sloop, of Moravian Falls, formerly held a position with the Wilkes Hosiery Mills, but is now studying Aircraft Construction at Anderson Airplane School at Nashville, Tenn.

Ladies Bible Class Met Tuesday Evening

Miss Eloise Starr and Mrs. A. R. Gray combined hospitality to the members of the Young Ladies Bible class of the Wilkesboro Methodist church at the home of Miss Starr Tuesday evening. Mrs. B. C. Blalock, the president, was in charge of the usual business session and also led the devotional period. Mrs. Lee Hemphill gave the program, making a most interesting talk on several famous hymns and their authors. Fourteen members were present and were served refreshments during the social hour.

N. Wilkesboro M.E. Church To Have Vacation School

A two weeks vacation Bible school will begin at the North Wilkesboro Methodist church Monday morning under the direction of Miss Beatrice Pearson, who will work in the primary department. Mrs. Otis Keeling is to be in charge of the junior boys and girls. Miss Pearson will have the assistance of several other workers throughout the different departments. The sessions each day are to be from 9 o'clock until 11:30.

Granville County's second milk route has been started through the southwestern part of the county, says W. B. Jones, assistant farm agent of the N. C. State College Extension Service.

Social Calendar

The Junior Woman's Club will meet at the club house in Wilkesboro on Monday night, June 10th, at 7:45. There will be a glass of lemonade and all members are urged to be present.

Warner Miller, Jr. Feted At Large Party

One of the largest social affairs of the week was the desert card party given by Mrs. A. M. Church, Jr., and Miss Arise Gilliam Saturday evening at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon Street, honoring Mrs. Warner Miller, Jr., who prior to her marriage was Miss Edith Crater, of this city. Sharing honors with Mrs. Miller were two other brides of the spring, Mrs. Russell Gray, the former Miss Annie Vannoy, of North Wilkesboro, and Mrs. Russell Pearson, formerly Miss Peggy Church, of Wilkesboro.

The spacious room of the clubhouse was decorated in a festive setting of green and white in which Queen Anne's lace predominated, while the tallies and lace furthered the bridal motif. Each of the bride's places were marked with lovely corsages.

In the game seven tables were made up for bridge and three for rook with the top score prize in bridge going to Miss Bea Godfrey and the low score award to Miss Rebecca Moseley. The winners in rook for the high and low scores were Mrs. Warner Miller, Sr., and Mrs. Oliver Absher. Honor gift for Mrs. Miller was crystal in her wedding pattern, and the two other brides were given attractive gifts.

Out of town guests at the party were Miss Katherine Wolf, of Mt. Airy, and Miss Jessie Gilliam, of Winston-Salem, both of whom were houseguests of Miss Gilliam.

Miss Lena Culler Is Bridge Club Hostess

With Miss Lena Culler as hostess the members of the Wilabri Bridge club were delightfully entertained at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. A salad course followed the game which was played at three tables. Mrs. Edison Norman won the award for the highest score and Miss Eleanor Smoak the bingo prize. Mrs. Eugene Sloop, who prior to her marriage was Miss Helen Call, was remembered with crystal in her chosen pattern.

The Misses Scroggs Entertain For Their Club

A delightful club party of the week was the one given by Misses Lucille and Breta Poe Scroggs at their home at Moravian Falls Friday evening. Three tables were made up for bridge which included a few additional guests, and was preceded by a dessert course.

Miss Thelma Laws was the winner of the top score prize. Mrs. S. R. Laws, second high, and Mrs. J. G. Bentley the floating prize.

Caudill-Bouchelle Marriage Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Caudill, of Wilkesboro, announce the marriage of their daughter, Gladys Eleanor, to Mr. William Souny Bouchelle on April 10, 1941, at Mountain City, Tennessee.

Mrs. Bouchelle is a talented and attractive young lady of Wilkesboro. The groom, also of Wilkesboro, is associated with his father in the contract plaster business. They will make their home in Wilkesboro.

COWS

Anson county farmers are beginning to realize the value of a few cows on each farm now that the future of cotton is uncertain, says Clarence Earley, assistant farm agent.

HAIL

A severe hail storm recently caused many Wilson county farmers to have to replant their cotton and tobacco, reports J. A. Marsh, assistant farm agent of the N. C. State College Extension Service.

North Carolina ranked eighth in the Nation in acreage of commercial truck crops for market in 1940, reports the State Department of Agriculture.

Gilliams Stage Family Reunion

By MRS. W. H. JONES

The annual reunion of the Gilliam clan was a delightful feature of the day last Sunday, June 8th, held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Gilliam and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Gilliam, five miles southwest of Elkin.

It was a happy day for the course of friends and members of the family, many of whom gathered early before noon, and others joined after the morning service at the church here.

At 12:15 p. m. the chairman, J. A. Gilliam, announced for all to assemble and in memory of the late John G. Gilliam, a favorite hymn was sung and appropriate and impressive remarks were made by W. A. Stroud, of Wilkesboro, all bowed in humble submission in silent prayer, then it was broken by Rev. R. J. Purdue, the pastor of Bethel church, where the deceased was a member for many years and worshipped there with his parents, the late Frank and Sarah Ann Reece Gilliam.

Atty. John R. Jones, of North Wilkesboro, kept the attention of the gathering with an excellent speech for thirty minutes. The picnic lunch was then spread on a long table arranged under the spreading branches of the maples.

J. Paul Gilliam, of Statesville, greeted the happy crowd with a few remarks and Rev. Stephen Marrsett, the pastor of the first Baptist church in Elkin, spoke of the good day and the many blessings afforded us. C. W. Gilliam asked the Lord's blessings unto all and returned thanks for the bountiful repast.

A delightful time was spent following the tempting dinner. The Yaddin Valley and Every Ready quartets sang several numbers. The next reunion announced by the committee will be held at Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Armstrong's home here, the second Sunday in June, 1942.

Among the oldest guest present were: Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr., Ronda, D. R. Gilliam, Sr., Sparta, M. Wall, Elkin, C. A. Dimmette, Ronda, and Mrs. W. H. Phipps, Sparta. Mrs. Payton Gilliam, mother of J. A. Gilliam, was ill and could not attend.

Little James Charles Gilliam, the three-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Gilliam, of Sparta, and Master Little Jerry Moore, the seven-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Moore, of North Wilkesboro, were the youngest relatives to attend.

Registered outside the nearby places were from: Statesville, Sparta, Salem, Va., Mt. Airy, Winston-Salem, Va., Winston-Salem, Va., and High Point.

Officers are: Chairman, J. A. Gilliam, and Secretary, Mrs. W. H. Jones, Ronda, N. C.
