Mrs. Rufus Church Entertains Her Club

The members of the Young Matron's Contract club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Rufus Church at her home on E Street Thursday evening. The top score prize in the game, which was played at two tables, went to Mrs. S. T. Taylor and Mrs. Dexter Chadwick received the low score award. Mrs. James R. McCartney was remembered with a going away gift. A sweet course was served at the conclusion of play.

Wednesday Sewing Club Met With Mrs. Finley

With Mrs. Gordon Finley as hostess the members of the Wednesday Sewing club and a few additional guests were charmingly entertained at her home on E Street Wednesday afternoon. An informal hour was spent together in sewing and conversation after which tempting refreshments were served by the hostess, being assisted by her daughter, Miss Katherine Finley, Mesdames R. S. Gibbs and W. J. Bason, and Miss Lucy Finley.

Mrs. J. H. Armbrust Is Honored At Luncheon

As a courtesy to Mrs. Joe H. Armbrust, of Reidsville, and a former resident of this city, Mrs. J. R. Hix entertained at a lovely luncheon at her home on D Street Friday. A two course luncheon was served at one o'clock, the hostess being assisted by her daughter, Mrs. William Marlow. Mrs. Armbrust, who is spending sometime on the Brushy Mountain with Mrs. Clarence Call, was remembered with a gift by Mrs. Hix. Following luncheon rock was played at three tables with Mrs. Edd F. Gardner receiving the award for the top score. The home was attractively decorated with a variety of garden flowers.

Miss Elizabeth Cashion Is Feted At Bridge Party

To honor Miss Elizabeth Cashion, a bride-elect of the month, Mrs. R. S. Gibbs, Jr., entertained at a party at her home on E Street Thursday afternoon. Announcement was made sometime ago of the approaching marriage of Miss Cashion and James Robinson, of Lenoir, which is to take place in July. Bridge was played at three tables and took at one, being followed by supper at six o'clock. Receiving awards in the bridge game were Miss Florence Guigou for high score and Mrs. Paul Cashion low score, while in rock Miss Jeannie Ogilvie and Mrs. W. M. Cooper scored high. The honoree received a lovely gift from the hostess. A profusion of roses made festive decorations for the home.

Miss Helen Phillips Entertains For Guest

Miss Helen Phillips entertained at bridge at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Phillips, in Finley Park Thursday evening honoring her cousin, Miss Betty Jean Jones, of Winston-Salem, who was her houseguest. Four tables were arranged for play in an attractive setting of cut flowers, and following the game an ice course was served. Top score prize for the girls was won by Miss Grace Frank Kilby while among the boys Paul Haigwood was the winner. Mr. Haigwood also won the bingo award. Honor gift for Miss Jones was a sports handkerchief.

Miss Flora Phillips-Marries Wayne Foster of This City

Of interest to a wide circle of friends was the wedding Sunday afternoon, July 8, at 4:00 o'clock by Miss Flora Elizabeth Phillips and Mr. Wayne James Foster at the Cameron Presbyterian church in Sanford.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. C. M. Voyles. Vows were spoken under a white arch covered with asparagus fern against a background of longleaf pine, baskets of white gladioli, and seven branched candelabra. On the piano and in the windows burned white candles in antique candelabra.

Mrs. Herbert McInnis, pianist, Miss Beulah Mae Byrd, of Broadway, and Mrs. Reid Pleasants of Carthage, soloists, presented a program of wedding music. Traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride's stepmother wore a gown of rose chifon and a corsage of pink roses and blue delphinium. Substituting for the groom's mother, Mrs. Norman Lee Barr of Norfolk, Virginia, sister of the groom, wore a blue dress with a matching corsage. Mrs. Eugene Lambeth, of Raleigh, as matron of honor, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of pink chifon fashioned on the same lines as the bride's. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Gilbert G. Foster, of North Wilkesboro, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were A. G. Foster, Jr., of Congo, and Raymond Foster of North Wilkesboro, brothers of the bridegroom. John A. Phillips, Jr., and Pete Phillips, brothers of the bride.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white chifon, the bodice being fashioned with Bishop sleeves caught in a band of Chantilly lace at the wrist. Bands of Chantilly insertion formed the waistline and a square yoke of the same lace was closed in the back with small self-covered buttons that extended to the waistline, from which the full skirt extended into a long train. A long veil of illusion was caught in a halo of orange blossoms. Her only ornaments were a strand of pearls and a gold bracelet, gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and bonvardia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. John Atlas Phillips and the late Mrs. Sallie Ferguson Phillips of Cameron. She is a graduate of Flora McDonald College and since graduation has had George Reid Home Economics work in the Deep River high school near Sanford.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Arthur Garfield Foster and the late Mr. Foster of North Wilkesboro. He is a graduate of Mars Hill Junior College and Wake Forest College. After graduation he taught for two years at Deep River high school near Sanford and for the past year he has been budget manager of the Goodrich Silvertown Stores with headquarters in North Wilkesboro.

The wedding was followed by a reception given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Phillips with Miss Mary Ferguson, aunt of the bride, as joint hostess.

Mrs. Jewell Hemphill greeted guests at the door. The receiving line was composed of the bride and groom, the wedding party, and near relatives. Miss Lillian Cole registered guests. Miss Mary Lacy McIver of Sanford and Miss Thurla Cole presided over the dining room where punch, party cakes, and mints were served. Mrs. John A. Phillips, Sr., received in the gift room.

As a last pre-nuptial courtesy Mr. and Mrs. John A. Phillips, Jr. entertained at an informal cake cutting following the rehearsal Saturday night. The dining room was unusually lovely in its decoration of early summer flowers and soft candlelight. The table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Following the reception the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip to points of interest in Florida. For travel the bride wore a beige suit with matching accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses and blue delphinium. Upon their return they will make their home in North Wilkesboro.

Among out of town guests were Mrs. Norman Lee Barr, Norfolk, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Foster and Master Wade Foster, Mr. E. C. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shoemaker of North Wilkesboro. Misses Hazel and Dorothy Deane Foster, Winston-Salem and Mr. A. G. Foster, Jr., of Congo, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bridges, Mr. W. C. Harward, Mrs. E. E. Lambeth, and Miss Ruth Lambeth of Sanford, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barnes of Moncure, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lambeth, of Raleigh.

Mrs. James Lowe Is Hostess To Her Club

Mrs. James Lowe delightfully entertained the members of the Wilkesboro bridge club and a few additional guests at a dessert bridge at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. Three tables were arranged for play in a festive setting of cut flowers. Mrs. Albert Garwood scored high and Miss Irene Culler won out in bingo, each receiving attractive awards from the hostess.

Mrs. Eugene Sloop, the former Miss Helen Call, and Mrs. Albert Garwood, who before her marriage was Miss Anna Laura Hulcher, both were given remembrances. Mrs. Claude Robertson, of Knightdale, and Miss Marjorie Koeter of Charlotte, houseguests of the hostess were also given gifts.

Sisk-McIver

Fayetteville, July 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sisk, of Fayetteville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Erwin, and Wallace Gordon McIver, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lynn McIver, of Sanford. The wedding will take place in August.

Military gains are reported as constituting Hitler's strongest hold on South American respect.

Mesdames Jones and Schaefer Give Two Delightful Parties

Two delightful parties of the week were the ones given by Mrs. W. E. Jones and Mrs. J. D. Schaefer at the Jones home on D Street Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. Four tables were made up for rock each afternoon in a colorful setting of mixed garden flowers. Winners of the high and low scores for Wednesday were Mrs. C. G. Poindexter and Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, and on Thursday Mrs. F. C. Forester and Mrs. C. M. Crutchfield. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. James R. McCartney, who is leaving at a later date for residence in Salisbury, was remembered with a gift, while on Thursday Mrs. Crutchfield and Mrs. Jack Quinn each received gifts. Mrs. Quinn, of Cleveland, Tennessee, and a former resident of this city, is here for a visit with relatives, and Mrs. Crutchfield is going to Winston-Salem for future residence. A dessert course was served on each occasion.

Mrs. William Barber Is Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. William Barber was hostess to the members of her bridge club at her home in Wilkesboro Friday afternoon. The award for the highest score in the game which was played at two tables went to Mrs. Claude Doughton. Refreshments followed play.

Wm. H. Miller Is Claimed By Death

Funeral service was held Thursday at Stony Fork church for William Harrison Miller, age 76, well known resident of that community who died Wednesday. Surviving are the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Minnie Watson, Thomas, Arvil, Albert and Herman Miller, of Deep Gap; Grant Miller, of Laxton; and Mrs. Carrie Krisert, of Cleveland, Ohio.
