Miss Sue Hester Sigmon Is Wed To Mr. Henderson

A wedding beautiful in its simplicity and of much interest throughout this section of the state was that of Miss Sue Hester Sigmon, and Fred Henderson, which was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, August 10, at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Emmet Sigmon, at Newton, Rev. E. R. Lineberger, the bride's pastor, officiated using the impressive ritual of the Lutheran church. Only a limited number of relatives and close friends attended.

The vows were spoken in the living room before an improvised altar of greenery and mixed white flowers, while white candles softly lighted the pretty arrangement.

Wedding musicians were Miss Myrtle Sigmon, sister of the bride, soloist; and Miss Katherine Rhyne as pianist. Prior to the ceremony Miss Rhyne played Schubert's "Serenade" and "Intermezzo," after which Miss Sigmon sang "Because." Miss Rhyne sounded muted notes of "Liebestraum" during ceremony and at close of prayer Miss Sigmon sang again using "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, J. Emmet Sigmon, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. M. M. Smyre, as matron of honor. James Somers, of North Wilkesboro, was best man for the bridegroom.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white satin with a fingertip veil of bridal illusion. The veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a white prayer book, showered with baby's breath. The matron of honor wore pink and carried an arm bouquet of mixed garden flowers.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at an informal reception after which the couple left for their wedding trip. They are now at home in the Forester apartments on C Street. The bride traveled in a pink crepe ensemble with black accessories, and at her shoulder was a corsage of white rosebuds.

Mrs. Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Emmet Sigmon, of Newton, held a position here with the Wilkes Hospital. She took her nurses training at the Crowell Hospital in Lincoln.

Mr. Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henderson, of Wilkesboro, is manager of Henderson's Electric Store in North Wilkesboro.

Among the people from the Wilkesboros attending the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Hubbard, Miss Toby Turner, Miss Patty Somers, Mr. and Mrs. James Somers and two children, Mickey and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henderson, Miss Betty Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henderson, Mrs. Jim Henderson, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Green.

Mrs. Ogilvie and Daughters Entertain At Two Breakfasts

Mrs. E. H. Squire, of Eustis, Florida, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. Foster, and brothers, Messrs. G. F., A. R., H. J., and R. S. Ogilvie, at Oakwoods, was honored by Mrs. A. R. Ogilvie at her home at a breakfast Thursday morning. The guests gathered at 9:30 and were served a tempting meal, after which they spent an informal hour in sewing and conversation.

On Friday morning Misses Clara, Jeanie, and Kate Ogilvie entertained at a breakfast in honor of Mrs. Chalmers McCutchen, of Point Pleasant, West Virginia. Mrs. McCutchen, the former Miss Julia Finley, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Finley, in North Wilkesboro.

Miss Janie McDiarmid Gives Two Parties

Miss Janie McDiarmid was hostess at two delightful parties at her home on D Street during the week. On Wednesday evening she had two tables of bridge honoring Mrs. Grady Church and Mrs. George Johnson, both brides of the summer. Miss Lillian Stafford scored high, receiving an attractive award, and both honor guests were remembered with gifts. A salad course followed play.

The second party was Friday afternoon with two tables being made up for bridge and one for rook.

Table prizes in the game were won by Mrs. Carl Coffey, Mrs. Reginald Chapin, and Mrs. Joe E. Johnson. At the conclusion of the game a salad course followed by sweets was served by the hostess.

Mixed summer flowers made colorful decorations for each occasion.

Miss Eva Lee Guthrie Is Hostess To Amici Club

On Monday evening Miss Eva Lee Guthrie was hostess to the Amici club and one visitor, Miss Elizabeth Vaughn, of Pulaski, Virginia, who was a houseguest of Mrs. N. G. Landis.

Mixed summer bouquets were tastefully arranged about the living room, where two tables were arranged for play. After three progressions Mrs. Albert Garwood was the high score winner, and the bingo prize went to Miss Ruth Hulcher.

Following the game, refreshments were served, with the hostess being assisted by Miss Willie Guthrie.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Forester Are Hosts At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Forester were hosts at a dinner party at their home on D Street Thursday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Warner Miller, Jr., who were married this summer. Mrs. Miller is the former Miss Edith Crater of Ronda and North Wilkesboro. A three course dinner was served at seven o'clock with covers laid for ten, other special guests at the dinner being Mr. and Mrs. Prince Forester, of Washington, D. C., who were here visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Forester remembered the Millers with an attractive gift.

Linda Brame Is Honored At Birthday Party

Linda Brame, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watson Brame, was honored at a children's party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Forester on D Street Wednesday afternoon celebrating her fourth birthday anniversary. Around thirty-five boys and girls came to celebrate the occasion with Linda and were led in a number of outdoor games, after which they were invited into the dining room for ice cream, cake and lemonade. The dining table was centered with
