Miss Zelle Harris Is Bridge Club Hostess
The members of the Sans Souci club were delightfully entertained by Miss Zelle Harris at her home in Roaring River Thursday evening, also a number of additional guests. Two tables were made up for bridge and one for rumble in an attractive setting of cut flowers of various hues.
Mrs. Tom Dula won the prize for the highest number of points and Mrs. C. J. Swofford for low score. Mrs. Bill Turner, of Winston-Salem, sister of Miss Harris and a guest in the home, won the prize in rumble.
A salad course followed by sweets was served at the conclusion of play. Other visitors of the club were Misses Inez McNeil, Nilla Sebastian, Ruth Shatley, Chloe Michael, and Irene Phillips, members of the Roaring River school faculty.

Woman's Club Has Picnic Monday Afternoon
To begin the fall season of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club the club members met at the clubhouse on Trogdon street Monday evening for a short business session during which time plans were made for the district T. B. Seal meeting to be held at the clubhouse on Thursday, October 2. The club will also serve lunch at the meeting. Mrs. Chal McNeil, club president, was in charge of the business session, and at the close a picnic supper was served to a large number of people including the husbands of club members, and the North Wilkesboro school faculty.

Methodist Women to Attend Meeting At Statsville
With Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, the president, presiding the September meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church, was held at the church Tuesday afternoon. Three important meetings for the next few weeks were announced by Mrs. Gardner, the first one being the Study Leaders meeting to be held at the Broad Street church in Statesville, Tuesday, September 23, beginning at nine o'clock in the morning and continuing until one o'clock. Miss Ruth Wheaton, of New York city, and a field secretary of the society, is to be one of the speakers at this meeting. Any members of the society interested in going will please call Mrs. Gardner. The Elkin zone meeting will be held at Sparta on Wednesday, October the first, and the Week of Prayer is to be observed the last week in October.

Oakwoods W. M. U. Holds Monthly Meeting
The September meeting of the Oakwoods W. M. U. was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. R. L. Jones with Mrs. Fred Blevins as hostess. During the business session the study course for this week was announced, and the personal service work to be done. Mrs. Rex Stroud gave the opening prayer and Bible study using as her theme the 65th Psalm. The program on Cooperation was given by Mrs. Carl Canter, Mrs. A. T. Jones, and Mrs. Fred Blevins, who also rendered a special musical number. Mrs. R. L. Jones, who offered the closing prayer, was welcomed back to the meeting after being absent for some time due to illness. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Fashion Show to Be Given At Woman's Clubhouse
Plans are going forward for the Fashion Show that the Civic and Social club, a department of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club, is sponsoring at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogdon street, Thursday evening, September 25, beginning at 8 o'clock. A most interesting evening is being planned for all those who attend, with Mrs. R. G. Finley acting as master of ceremonies and her dance pupils to give some song and dance numbers. Children's clothes will be modeled by these pupils and the club members will show wearing apparel to be furnished by Spainhour's and Belk's stores and the Jean Shoppe. The public is invited to attend and will make a silver offering at the door.

Pleasant Home Y. W. A. In Monthly Meeting
The Frances Turner Y. W. A. met at the church in their regular monthly meeting Sunday night, September 14, with eleven present. Miss Clara Bumgarner had charge of the program in which all members took part. Much interest is shown and those not present missed a splendid program.

'Flying Blind', Air Film, At Liberty

There's plenty of high-flying romance in "Flying Blind," Paramount's thrilling aviation drama which opens on Monday at the Liberty. Here we see lovely Jean Parker and co-star Richard Arlen, the film sky-riding love birds.

Presbyterian Auxiliary In Monthly Meeting

The September meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary was held in the Religious Education building of the church Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. W. J. Bason, presiding, who also opened the meeting by leading the devotional period. Plans were discussed for entertaining the group conference which is to meet here at the church September 30, on Thursday.
Mrs. W. C. Grier, program chairman, introduced Miss Incore from the Glade Valley school, who spoke on the loyalty of the church to the Glade Valley high school, which is supported by the Winston-Salem and Orange Presbyterians. The meeting was well attended.

Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Cassel Bible Class Hostesses

Mrs. J. C. Stokes and Mrs. A. S. Cassel combined hospitality to the members of the Young Ladies Bible class of the Wilkesboro Methodist church in their monthly meeting held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Stokes. To open the meeting Mrs. Stokes led the devotional period after which Miss Frank Somers, the vice-president, presided for the usual business session, during which time plans were made to do some work in the personage study. Twelve members were present and were served refreshments during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Long Hosts at Lawn Party

Mr. William T. Long, superintendent of the Wilkesboro school, and Mrs. Long were hosts at a delightful lawn party at their home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening for the parents and teachers of the school. At the beginning of the evening the teachers were informally introduced to the parents of the school, after which a short musical program was rendered as follows: Mrs. George Parlier played several piano numbers, Mrs. Maude Williams gave a vocal solo, and Mrs. McCannless, the band director, played some violin numbers. During the evening punch and cookies were served to the guests which numbered around 300.

Andrew Mayberry Passes; Funeral 12th

William Andrew Mayberry passed away at the Wilkes hospital Thursday morning, September 11, following an illness of about six months.
Mr. Mayberry was 68 years and 19 days of age. He was born in Wilkes county and was living in southeastern Wilkes when he died.
He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elyena Sples Mayberry, who was the daughter of Jimmie Sales.
Also surviving is one stepdaughter, Mrs. Harvey Byru, and one brother, Edward Mayberry of Cycle; one brother-in-law, Cornelius Sales, North Wilkesboro; two sisters, Mrs. Cynthia Johnson, Olin, Rt. 1, Mrs. Nancy Ann Prevette of Statesville, and one sister-in-law, Mrs. Nora Bell of Greensboro.
His was an impressive funeral, with Rev. L. T. Younger in charge. The floral tribute was beautiful and the flowers were carried by the Misses Hessie Prevette, Dorothy Johnson, Estelle Johnson, Nannie Lee Jarvis and Maye Jarvis, most of whom were nieces of the deceased.
The pall bearers were Guy Prevette, Robert Prevette, General Johnson, Clark Mayberry, Lonnie Harris and Quince Jarvis.
He professed a hope in Christ ten years ago and lived a christian life.—Reported.

Small Tot Killed By His Brother

Selma, Sept. 15.—Raeford Lee Atkinson, six, was accidentally shot and killed at 6 o'clock this afternoon by his brother, William Elton Atkinson, nine, at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Atkinson, in Kenly. The boys were playing "Wild West" when the elder brother found his grandfather's shotgun and pointed it at his brother, the gun fired, the entire load entering the little fellow's chest.
Hearing a noise around his home a few nights ago, Mr. Atkinson loaded his gun and placed it behind a bureau in the home.
Funeral will be held from the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Atkinson, Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock. Burial will take place in the Atkinson cemetery three miles from Kenly.

ROBBER

"Let's kiss and make up," the gallant young man suggested.
"Okay with me," his sweetie replied, with the result that she got the kiss and he the make-up.
