50 Valuable Homesites

On U. S. Highway 421—State Highway 16, Only 5 Minutes Drive West of Business Section of NORTH WILKESBORO.

An ideal place for a home away from the smoke and noise of the city and dampness of the river, where you can breathe the pure air and rest when the days work is over.

This important land sale offers a wonderful opportunity to home seekers and investors desiring American homesites in a healthy payroll neighborhood, just outside one of the most prosperous and substantial cities of the south. Good roads, good neighbors, electricity and telephone available, no city taxes, just a good place to live to enjoy and prolong life. When you attend this sale SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15th, 2:00 P. M., you show that you are public spirited and interested in your country. There is no joy like that of coming to a home of your own. It gives you a sense of pride and accomplishment, something real, something lasting, a tribute to your generosity and foresight. Prepare a place for your loved ones with rent money that will give them a feeling of security and independence. Don't speculate, don't hesitate, play safe, invest some of your savings in this valuable property at the price you are willing to pay.

This Tuscarora Indian, shown with his lawyer, Wilfred Hoffman, is one of the members of the six Indian tribes who appeared before federal court judges in New York to argue that the U. S. has no right to draft members of the Iroquois confederacy. To do so, declared their counsel, would be in violation of the treaty signed in 1784.

Red Objector Elkin Defeats N. Wilkesboro

Elkin high school triumphed through three touchdowns and an extra point to defeat a fighting North Wilkesboro high eleven in the annual meeting of the old rivals at Elkin Friday afternoon by the score of 20 to 0.
Sparks broke away for 14 yards and a touchdown for Elkin in the first period. Station scored on a 15-yard run and again on a six-yard slam for the other two touchdowns. Station hit the line for the extra point.
Sparks raced back 65 yards with an intercepted pass in the third period, but the play was called back. Elkin also hurried back a North Wilkesboro threat in the period with a goal stand that held the Wilkes team for four downs on the one-yard line.
North Wilkesboro team played much better than the score indicated and gave Elkin plenty of competition throughout the game. Hunt featured North Wilkesboro's attack.
North Wilkesboro will play Wilkesboro on the fairgrounds here Friday, November 14, three o'clock.

Leonidas Robinson Died At His Home

Wilkesboro, Nov. 7.—Leonidas Dunlap Robinson, 74, former member of Congress and president of the Bank of Wilkesboro, died at his home today after an illness of two months.
Robinson, a lawyer, formerly was mayor of Wilkesboro, a legislator, senator, and held the congressional seat, 1917-21. He was senior member of a law firm with Solicitor Rowland S. Pruett and U. S. District Attorney T. L. Caudle. He was born in Anson county.
A large holder of farm lands, Robinson was one of the organizers of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Co-operative association. He was a member of the Methodist church.
His first wife, formerly Miss Nettie Dunlap, died in 1931.
Survivors include his widow, the former Mrs. Emma Hunter Craven of Warrenton, two sons, E. Carl Robinson and L. D. Robinson, Jr., both of Houston, Texas, and three grandchildren, Miss Muriel Robinson, a student at St. Mary's, Raleigh, Carl Robinson, Jr., and L. D. Robinson, 3rd.
