Music Lovers Club Holds Monthly Meeting

The members of the Junior Division of the Music Lovers Club met with Mary Francis Klutz for their monthly meeting, with Peggy Sebastian presiding. A patriotic program was given, and to open the program, the group joined in singing "America," followed by a short talk on "Armistice Day" by Miss Ellen Robinson.

Gladys Lovette told about the first Thanksgiving, and the present day Thanksgiving was discussed. Margaret Ann Hutchens read a poem on music from the Etude, and the following played piano solos: Betty Joyce Robinson, Mary Frances Klutz, Doris Wiles, Gladys Sebastian, Peggy Sebastian, Jo Anne Jones, and Florine Gilreath. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Miss Lilyan Miller Is Feted At Series Of Parties

A series of interesting parties are being given for Miss Lilyan Miller, a member of the school faculty for the past four years, and who is soon to wed Mr. Frank Stafford, of this city. On last Wednesday evening Miss Sue Moring Clements had a small bridge party for Miss Miller at her home on Sixth Street, and at the conclusion of play the hostess served a sweet course. The high score prize in the game went to Miss Lura Coffey and the consolation award to Mrs. Carl VanDeman, while the honoree was remembered with a lovely gift. A variety of fall flowers made lovely decorations for the home.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Guy Lillard entertained her bridge club and a few additional guests at her home on C street, and Miss Miller was a guest of honor and received a gift. Three tables were arranged for play in a beautiful setting of chrysanthemums. The club prize went to Miss Lucille Younce. Dinner was served at the beginning of play.

Saturday Miss Evelyn Sharpe was hostess at a lovely luncheon at the Wilkes Hotel in honor of Miss Miller. Covers were laid for eight at a table in which yellow and white predominated in the decorations and place cards. Miss Miller's gift from the hostess was china in her chosen pattern.

Oakwoods W. M. S. Holds Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Oakwoods Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. Glenn Anderson Friday evening. Following the singing of the opening hymn Mrs. Fred Blevins presided for the usual business session during which time plans were made for the study course to be held at the church Wednesday, November 26. The Bible study was given by Mrs. Rex Stroud and the program, which was on Africa, was presented by Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Blevins, and Mrs. Abe Jones. Special hymn "Send the Light" was sung by Mrs. R. F. Anderson and Mrs. Jones. The opening and closing prayers were offered by Mrs. R. L. Jones and Mrs. James Carter.

During the business part of the meeting new officers for the coming year were elected with Mrs. Rex Stroud as the president. A large number of the members were present and two visitors, and during the social hour the hostess served refreshments.

Miss Madge Jennings Entertains Euzelian Class

The monthly meeting of the Euzelian Sunday School class of the Walnut Grove Baptist church at Pores Knob was held Friday evening at the home of Miss Madge Jennings, having around fifteen present. Games were enjoyed during the social hour, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Joe Barber Is Bridge Club Hostess

With Mrs. Joe Barber as hostess the members of her bridge club were delightfully entertained at her home in Wilkesboro Saturday afternoon. A salad and sweet course followed the game which was played at two tables. Top score prize within the club went to Mrs. F. C. Hubbard, Sr., while amongst the visitors Mrs. William T. Long was the winner.

Miss Billie Moore In Program At District Meeting

Miss Billie Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, appeared on the program at the district meeting of the State Junior Federated Music Clubs which was held in Conover Saturday. Billie, a member of the Music Lovers Club of which Miss Ellen Robinson is counsellor, played "Dance of the Rosebud." She was accompanied to Conover by Miss Robinson, Margaret Ann Hutchens, Pauline Billings, and her mother, Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. John Tait Entertains At Bridge

Mrs. John Tait was hostess at a delightful bridge party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vyne, on C Street Saturday evening. Late fall blossoms made a colorful background for the players at two tables. A dessert course was served at the beginning of the game. The winners of the high and low score awards were Miss Janie McDiarmid and Miss Lillian Stafford.

Mrs. W. M. DeBerry Is Bible Class Hostess

The members of the Ladies Bible class of the Wilkesboro Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. W. M. DeBerry on D street in this city Tuesday evening for their monthly social and business meeting. Mrs. Frank Somers, the vice president, was in charge of the business part of the meeting and the devotionals were led by Mrs. J. C. Stokes. About twelve were present and during the social hour the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Hinshaw Baptist Circle Met Monday Evening

The Ladies Missionary Circle of Hinshaw Baptist church met with Mrs. M. E. Baggus and Mrs. Grace Nicholson on Ninth Street Monday evening. Forty members and seven visitors were present. After the business session refreshments were served by the hostesses who were assisted by Mrs. Charles Porter, and Mrs. Charles Lenderman. The circle will meet with Mrs. Claude Miller, Monday evening, November 24.

Fidelis Class Met Tuesday Evening

Mrs. Fred Emerson, Mrs. E. M. Long, Mrs. Rufus Church and Mrs. J. B. Williams combined hospitality to the members of the Fidelis class of the First Baptist church at the Emerson home on D street Tuesday evening. Mrs. A. C. Chamberlain, the president, was in charge of the business part of the meeting during which time plans were made to help a needy family at Thanksgiving. The devotionals were given by Mrs. R. T. McNeil. Around twenty were present and were served refreshments during the social hour.

Blue Bird Sewing Club Met With Mrs. Clay Pardue

The members of the Bluebird Sewing club spent a delightful evening together on Thursday when Mrs. Clay Pardue was hostess to the group at her home on C Street. Following a period of sewing and conversation the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Hil-ton Johnson, who was a visitor of the club, in serving delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Russell Gray, Jr. Entertains Her Club

The members of the Eighth Column bridge club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Russell Gray, Jr., at her home in Wilkesboro Wednesday evening. A dessert course preceded the game which was played at two tables. The count of scores gave Mrs. Gray the award for the highest number of points and Mrs. J. H. Whicker, Jr., the prize for the lowest number of points. Mrs. Ruth Wright Persianoff was a guest of the club.

Two Men Convicted Of Kidnaping Girl

Richmond, Va., Nov. 10.—Tracy Lee Sims and Jack Floyd Adams, Carolina mill workers, were convicted by a jury in the United States District court today on a charge of kidnaping a 17-year-old Boydton, Va., girl. The jury made no recommendations as to punishment and Judge Robert N. Poliard deferred sentencing the two until a later date.

The girl, principal witness for the prosecution, testified she was kidnaped by the defendants and carried across the North Carolina state line. Sims, 24, of Morrisville, N. C., and Adams, 20, of Greer, S. C., were charged in an indictment with kidnaping the girl August 4 and transporting her from near Boydton, in Mecklenburg county, to a point near Roanoke Rapids, N. C., and that they did not release her unharmed. State officers have charged the men with the theft of an automobile and rape.

HAVE YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO TRAVEL?

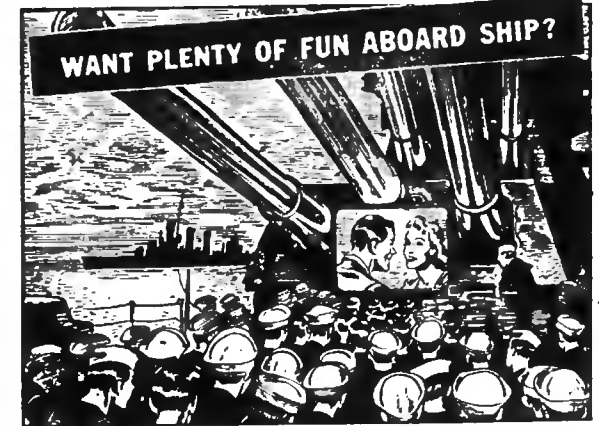

Here's your chance to see interesting places — AND DRAW GOOD PAY TOO!

IMAGINE GETTING PAID to travel to fascinating, far-off places like these! No, it's not a dream... it's the life you may lead in the Navy. Here's your chance to see strange lands and peoples most folks only see in books. Yes, and you draw liberal Navy pay to use while you're ashore.

THINK OF THIS—when you're in the Navy, you're entitled to a generous vacation every year... and with full pay. And what a thrill you'll get when you return home on leave. Your trim Navy uniform is sure to go over big! Watch your parents beam! Everybody looks up to a Navy man!

YOU'LL SEE the very latest movies—free! You'll have a great time playing deck sports, boxing, wrestling. Even the work is full of thrills—like Fleet maneuvers, anti-aircraft practice, launching torpedoes, catapulting planes. And what an appetite it gives you for that grand Navy food!

NO JOB in the world offers so much as a career in the U. S. Navy or the Naval Reserve. It's interesting... healthy... full of thrills. Yet it prepares you to be a real success in life—whether you remain in the Navy or decide to return to civil life.

Uncle Sam's new two-ocean Navy offers you tremendous opportunities for advancement in a wide variety of fascinating jobs. There are 45 skilled trades and vocations. If you're interested, for instance, in radio work, engineering, aerial photography, carpentry, pharmacy, welding, the Navy may spend $1500 in one year training you to become an expert in your chosen field.

If you apply yourself, advancement and increases in pay will follow regularly. Before the end of your first enlistment you can be earning up to $126 a month—with your board, keep, and a complete outfit of clothing given you free! If, at the end of your term of service, you wish to get a job in civil life, your Navy training will be a tremendous asset to you. Employers the country over are eager to employ Navy-trained men.

LOOK WHAT THE U. S. NAVY AND NAVAL RESERVE OFFER YOU
