

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

2,000 Frogs Shipped To Great Britain

Washington.—Two thousand rana pipiens—common grass frogs—today joined the unusual items already shipped to Great Britain for war relief purposes by the American Red Cross.

Packed in moss, and placed in boxes wrapped in flannel, the pipiens crossed the Atlantic via bomber and were destined for study at the University of London's Medical school.

Boomer News Items In Brief

Rev. S. I. Watts filled his regular appointments at Dover and Lilestown Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Rayford Rogers, of Taylorsville, was a business visitor here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stanley and family, of Ciroket, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dolphus Russell last Sunday.

Miss Evie Russell, of Kannapolis spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Russell.

Mrs. Mabel S'emple and Mrs. A. G. Jonas and son, Mrs. J. D. Phillips, Mrs. Frank Moore and son, David, all of Lenoir, visited in the home of Mrs. Julia Phillips Sunday.

Mr. A. F. Greer and son, Atwell, are busy with their shop work. They are building a large truck body for Mr. Walter Anderson, of Wilkesboro.

Dr. John Harley Watts, formerly of Boomer, now of Washington, D. C., and Miss Carrie Bell Peacock, of Washington, D. C., were united in marriage November 26 in the 9th L. D. Christian church, of Washington, D. C. The vows were spoken in the presence of the bride's pastor, Rev. Carroll C. Roberts, of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Watts is the accomplished daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Howard Peacock, of Odessa, Missouri. Mr. Watts is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Watts, of Boomer. Both have been employed in Washington, D. C. for the past few years. After a brief honeymoon, during which they visited relatives at Boomer, they are making their home in Washington, D. C. Their many friends in this community wish them much happiness.

The pastor, Rev. E. V. Bunnagener, preached here last Sunday and, as usual, delivered a fine and inspiring sermon.

Rev. and Mrs. S. I. Watts visited Mr. Watts' sister, Mrs. R. F. Fulton, of Rural Hall, and Mrs. Lou Mahaffey, of Winston Salem, Sunday.

Mr. Hayden Walker, of Taylorsville, visited relatives in this community last week.

Mr. Will Karp is having his new house finished. Mr. Clarence Ferguson, of Beaver Creek, is doing the work.

Italians Gave Up To 2 Of Our British Prisoners, Nazis Say

With the Advance Striking Forces, Libya.—The most embarrassed man in the desert is the German prisoner who tells this story:

"I had a group of 20 British prisoners to take to the rear near Tobruk. It was about dusk. They kept spreading apart. I'd round them up, but they'd start spreading again.

"Finally two made a break, running as hard as they could. I fired a blast with my Tommy gun over their heads, yelling to them to halt.

"Up leaped the whole crew of an Italian gun ahead and surrendered to the running Tommies. The Tommies took the Italians' guns and captured me."

Kiss From Jane Chios His Tooth

Jane Wymann kissed Edward G. Robinson so violently in her first scene with him in "Larceny, Inc.," that she sent him hurrying to his dentist to have a chipped tooth fixed.

It wasn't supposed to be the hottest kiss or the longest kiss on screen record (Jane holds the long kiss record, something over three minutes, with Regis Toomey), but it was supposed to be enthusiastic. It was enthusiastic, all right, and painfully so.

"And I'm supposed to be a tough guy," Robinson grimaced. "The modern young woman is too much for me."

Jane Wymann suffered no injury from the embrace.

P. A. Morgan of the Cherryfield section and C. C. Yongue of North Brevard will conduct two swine feeding demonstrations this year, reported A. Glazener, farm agent of Transylvania county.
