Farmers Respond Well to Appeal for Food for Victory; to Exceed Goals

state to complete the canvass and make its report. Triple A committees visited the farms.

As an example of the increase, Wilkes farmers pledged to keep and milk 1,482 more cows than are now on the farmers' farms. The increase in milk from 2,768,000 to 3,490,000 gallons next year will find a ready market because Coble Milk plant will be in operation in Wilkesboro by April 1, 1942.

1942 production will soar to almost two million dozen in Wilkes next year, representing an increase of more than one-half million dozen over production this year.

An increase of 800 acres of soybeans for market was asked and the pledged increase is 1,780 acres.

According to the pledges, hog production will rise 1,025 to a total of 7,656 next year.

This survey was made before the axis made war on America. If it was made now the pledged increases of needed foods to be produced by Wilkes farmers would be far greater, agricultural authorities said today. They expect that production of the needed foods will be far greater than pledged.

will be under the direction of Mrs. Andrew Kilby, and the High School Glee Club will be directed by Miss Louise Younce. The two groups of singers have their own chorus numbers, but on some selections combine as a single choir.

Among the selections to be given by the First Baptist choir are: "First Christmas Morn" (Newton); an arrangement of "O Little Town of Bethlehem" (Neidlinger); "O Holy Night" (Adams); and a woman's chorus, "In Flambeau, Jeannette, Isabelle" (Old French Noel). Soloists for the group will be Mrs. George Johnson, Miss Lucile Casey, and Mr. Jus'us Brewer, Jr.

Selections to be given by the high school group under the direction of Miss Younce are: "When the Winter Sun Had Set" (French English Carol); "The Rose Tree" (Praetorius); "Carol Of The Shepherds" (Bohemian

JOHN TEVEPAUGH TAKEN BY DEATH

boro's most favorably known citizens. He was born and reared in Brushy Mountain township, a son of Charles M. Tevepaugh and the late Mrs. Thenia K. Hendren Tevepaugh.

On November 16, 1910, he was married to Miss Grace Foster, of Oakwoods, and lived in that community until 12 years ago, when he came to North Wilkesboro. He constructed an apartment house at that time and six years ago built his modern home on Kensington drive.

For 19 years he was connected with Wilkes Plumbing company. Five years ago he accepted the position with the town which he held until his death.

He was a member of Bethany Baptist church until he came to North Wilkesboro, where he joined the First Baptist church.

Survivors in the immediate family are his widow, Mrs. Grace Foster Tevepaugh; his father, C. M. Tevepaugh and Mrs. Tevepaugh, stepmother. Also surviving is one half-brother, Charles Wingate Tevepaugh.

The body was taken to the First Baptist church Wednesday, two o'clock, where it lay in state until the funeral hour at three o'clock. The pastor, Dr. John W. Kincheloe, Jr., was in charge of the service, assisted by Rev. Walt M. Cooper, Presbyterian pastor, and Rev. T. Sloan Guy, Jr., Wilkesboro Baptist pastor. Burial was in Mountain Park cemetery near Wilkesboro.

The active pallbearers were members of the city board of commissioners, J. R. Hix, R. G. Finley, A. F. Kilby, Ralph Duncan and Hloyle Hutchens; also W. P. Kelly, city clerk, Chris Williams and Dr. C. S. Sink. Honorary pallbearers were friends of the family and there were beautiful floral tributes in bounteous quantities.

War News

Washington. — The army announced last night it had ringed the nation with men and steel sufficient to "meet any threat" — of invasion — and added that a search was on for fifth columnists who lit beacons to guide enemy armies to Seattle.

The fifth columnist search was on in the region of Port Angeles Washington. In that vicinity last night state police found and extinguished a series of fires in the form of arrows pointed toward Seattle.

Brush fires were burning on the Olympic Peninsula Tuesday set by persons clearing land. State Patrolmen W. L. Lane and Howard Hurd in the vicinity, noticed no significance to the blazes until they burned low.

Then the fires, on opposite sides of the highway, appeared to resemble arrows, one pointing in the general direction of the Bremerton Navy Yard, the other toward Seattle. The patrolmen extinguished them.

State authorities reported the fires to army officers and the Federal Bureau of Investigation and then withdrew from the case. "Steps to augment the defense of both the east and west coasts commenced Sunday night.
