Mrs. Fred Hubbard, Jr., was hostess to the members of the 8th Coloma bridge club and a number of extra guests at her home in Wilkesboro Monday evening. A salad course was served during the game, which was played at three tables. The top score prize within the club went to Mrs. Russell Gray, Jr., and for the visitors Mrs. J. D. Moore, Jr. was the winner. The low score prize was won by Mrs. William Carrington. Visitors of the club were Mesdames Blair Gwyn, W. L. Bandy, Hadley Hayes, J. D. Moore, Jr., and Grady Church.

The T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Kilby on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

Mrs. L. A. Hauser, newly elected president, took charge of the business of the class, during which time plans were made for work in the future. All members of the class took part in the discussion, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Sans Souci Club Met With Mrs. L. D. Cooke

Mrs. L. D. Cooke entertained the members of the Sans Souci club and a few additional guests on a recent evening at her home on Trogon Street. The home was arranged with a profusion of jonquils and other spring flowers. Mrs. G. T. Bare won the high score award and Mrs. J. H. Whiteside the low score prize. At the close of the game the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Guests present other than the club members were Miss Loree O'Daniel, Mrs. G. T. Bare and Mrs. Hoyt Hendren.

Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr. Is Bible Class Hostess

The Woman's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr., Tuesday afternoon for its monthly meeting. Mrs. Isaac Ellert presided for the business session and Mrs. H. B. Dodson was devotional leader. A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the meeting. Ten members were present.

Mrs. S. T. Taylor Is Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the Young Matrons Contract club and two extra guests, Mrs. Cecil Hauss and Mrs. Sam Hensley, were delightfully entertained by Mrs. S. T. Taylor at her home on D Street Monday evening. The high and low score awards in the game which was played at three tables went to Mrs. J. J. Jones and Mrs. Dexter Chidwick. The Easter idea was predominant in the party appointments and the same note was carried out in the refreshments that preceded play.

Cabaniss-Minton Marriage Vows Are Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Cabaniss, of Shelby, announce the marriage of their daughter, Cance, to James Minton, of North Wilkesboro. The vows were spoken before Roy C. Cobb, J. P., at Gaffney, S. C., on Sunday, March 22, 1942. Mr. Minton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Minton of North Wilkesboro.

At present the young couple are at home with the bridegroom's parents on Hinshaw Street. Miss Doris Rippey, of Shelby, and Mr. Claude Kilby, of this city, accompanied the bridal couple to South Carolina for the ceremony.

Miss Dimmette Is Wed To Albert Withers

Gastonia.—In a ceremony marked by beauty and simplicity Miss Robie Cheek Dimmette became the bride of Albert Barry Withers, of Bessemer City, on Friday afternoon, March 27, at 5:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church, of Gastonia, with the pastor, Dr. B. A. Bowers, officiating.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Sam Marshall, sister of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Paul C. Withers, brother of the bridegroom, and Dan H. Kincaid, of Bessemer City.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a southern trip, after which they will be at home in Gastonia.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Arthur Dimmette of Gastonia. She was educated at Duke University, Durham, and the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, where she was active in campus affairs. Since graduating from the University, she has taught in Belmont until this year and is now a member of the Gastonia City school faculty.

Mr. Withers is a son of Mrs. D. M. Withers, of Bessemer City, and the late Mr. Withers. He attended Brevard College, and is now a member of the Robinson Yarn Mill force. He is an accomplished musician and is also an active member of the Lions club.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. John A. Caudill, of North Wilkesboro, route one.

Social Calendar

The Wilkes Valley Guards members of the U. S. C. will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hilda Hunt.

Miss Kathleen White Is Wed to Mr. Johnson

A wedding beautiful in its simplicity and of much interest was that of Miss Kathleen White, of North Wilkesboro and A. S. Johnson, of Lexington, which was solemnized this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the First Methodist church at Salisbury.

Rev. W. B. West, pastor of the church, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. Only a limited number of relatives and close friends were present.

Mrs. Henry E. Hilton, of Lexington, organist, wore a dress of navy and aerial blue, and her flowers were tallman roses. To strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," the couple entered and spoke their vows before an altar of white gladioli and palms. During the ceremony Mrs. Hilton played muted notes of "Ave Maria," and sounded Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional.

The bride was lovely in a dress and hat of powder blue with which she wore a coat in defense blue. At her shoulder was a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Johnson, a graduate of the North Wilkesboro high school attended Women's College in Greensboro, and for the past four years has been a member of the City School faculty in Salisbury. Mrs. Johnson is from Lexington and is owner and proprietor of Johnson Lumber company.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left for a short wedding trip, and after April 6 they will be at home in the Johnson Apartments at Lexington.

Those from North Wilkesboro attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph White, Dr. Thomas Lee White, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hix.

Mesdames Adamson, Johnson Entertain At Bridge

Mrs. Cecil Adamson and Mrs. Emmett C. Johnson were hostesses at a delightful bridge party at the home of Mrs. Adamson in Finley Park Saturday afternoon. Three tables were arranged for play in a pretty spring setting of red japonicas, yellow bells, and white spirea. The prizes, which were defense stamps, were awarded to Mrs. Palmer Horton for high score, Mrs. E. N. Phillips low score, and Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant for bingo. A dessert course was served at the beginning of the game.

Mrs. E. N. Phillips Is Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. E. N. Phillips entertained the members of her bridge club at her home in Finley Park Saturday evening. The top score award in the game, which was played at two tables, went to Miss Lillian Stafford, and Miss Ghita Tuttle held the prize for honors. An ice course was served by the hostess at the conclusion of the play.

U. S. Civil Service Employment Opportunity

The United States Civil Service Commission has just announced that persons experienced as superintendents of construction are being sought for the Federal service. Positions exist in the United States and foreign countries. Salaries range from $3,200 to $6,500 a year.

Applicants will be rated on their experience and training. From 7 to 12 years of appropriate experience in the field of construction are required. Provision is made for the substitution of college courses in engineering, for part of the experience. Duties are to direct large construction projects, coordinating the work of foremen, organizing men and materials, supervising installations, and inspecting materials and workmanship.

Saved By Blood, He Tries To Save Lives

Philadelphia.—Five blood transfusions once saved the life of Theodore Mehi.

So he volunteered as a donor himself—to build up the Red Cross war-time blood bank.

When the agency rejected him, he wrote: "Please tell me how old I will have to be before I am accepted." Theodore is 12.
