The board has just received a revision in the rationing regulations for new passenger cars. The following of the revised requirements have PROOF OF NEED.

(a) Unless other circumstances require a contrary conclusion, an applicant shall be deemed to have established his need of an automobile if he shows any of the following, in connection with the specified services:

- (1) He must travel quickly and would be better able to do so by automobile than by any other means of transportation; or
- (2) He must transport passengers or heavy or bulky tools or materials;
- (3) Without an automobile, and using the most convenient public transportation facilities, he would have to walk a total of at least three miles in going to and from work; or
- (4) He would have to spend a total of at least 11-2 hours, including necessary walking and waiting time, in going to and coming from work through the use of public transportation facilities, which time could be reduced by at least 45 minutes the use of an automobile; or
- (5) His duties are exceptionally arduous, or his hours of work are unusually long or require travel late at night; or

- (6) The public transportation facilities on which he depends are overcrowded; or
 - (7) His physical condition would make it a hardship for him to walk or to use public transportation facilities; or
 - (8) He clearly needs an automobile because of other unusual circumstances; or
 - (9) The automobile is needed primarily for the transportation of officers, employees, or agents of the applicant who otherwise meet one of the above standards.
- (b) Unless other circumstances require a contrary conclusion, an applicant shall be deemed to have established that he has the use of an automobile if he shows any of the following:

- (1) The automobile is a 1933 or earlier model; or
- (2) It has been driven more than 45,000 miles; or
- (3) It has been rendered unserviceable by fire, collision or otherwise; or
- (4) It is not sufficiently reliable considering the nature of his services and the circumstances of his case; or
- (5) It is not sufficiently reliable considering the nature of his services and the circumstances of his case; or
- (6) It is not sufficiently reliable considering the nature of his services and the circumstances of his case; or
- (7) It is not sufficiently reliable considering the nature of his services and the circumstances of his case; or
- (8) It is not sufficiently reliable considering the nature of his services and the circumstances of his case; or
- (9) It is not sufficiently reliable considering the nature of his services and the circumstances of his case; or

It is the policy of the War Relocation Authority to provide for the specified services of his responsibilities for maintaining such services have increased to such an extent that he needs an additional automobile to render such services.
