FINAL REGISTRATION— Young Men 18, 19, Called To Register On 30th Day June

Under Existing Law Men 18 and 19 Can Be Used Only For War Work

Washington.—President Roosevelt summoned about 3,000,000 of America's young men yesterday to register on June 30 and complete the survey of manpower available for fighting or making the weapons of combat.

The final batch of registrants under the selective service act will be youths of 18 and 19, plus those who have become 20 years old since the first of the year.

Four previous registrations took care of men 20 through 64 years of age—nearly 40,000,000 of them.

May Do War Work

Those 18 and 19 years old cannot be drafted for military service under existing law, but some of them might be mobilized along with older men for service in war plants. The bureau of research and statistics of the federal security agency estimated that as of April 1 there were 2,483,000 men in that age bracket, while probably 500,000 who have turned 20 also will register on June 30.

Work Draft Ahead

From the pool of nearly 43,000,000 men who will have signed up with local selective service boards by July 1, approximately 23,500,000 war workers would be needed this year and 7,500,000 by the end of 1943.

OFFICIAL NEWS—

Dr. Bumgarner May Be Prisoner Of The Japanese

Men On Bataan and Corregidor Temporarily Listed "Missing In Action"

Dr. John R. Bumgarner, a captain in the medical corps with the army on the Philippines, is officially listed as "missing in action", and is believed to be a prisoner.

This information was contained in a letter from the war department to Rev. J. L. A. Bumgarner, of Millers Creek, father of Dr. Bumgarner.

The letter stated that the department has little information relative to those who were taken prisoner during the fall of Bataan and later Corregidor, but that the Japanese are expected to furnish a list of prisoners, at which time the nearest of kin will be notified.

Until the list of prisoners is received, the men on Bataan and Corregidor will be listed as "missing in action".

The last letter received from Dr. Bumgarner had a censor date of February 5, in which Dr. Bumgarner told his father—"I am proud and glad to be here. He told his father that he would not hear from him often and that "no news was good news".

It is believed that Dr. Bumgarner was on Corregidor at the time of surrender of the fortress. After the fall of Bataan, a news dispatch said that medical officers and nurses had been evacuated to Corregidor.

Dr. W. A. Alexander, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Charlotte, delivered an inspiring message to the 1942 senior class of North Wilkesboro and a large audience at the First Baptist church here.

Taking as his text a quotation from Paul's letter to the Philippians, "To Me, to Live Is Christ," the speaker urged the members of the class to live with a purpose in life and by their lives to glorify God.

Paul S. Gragan, school superintendent, was in charge of the service. Dr. John W. Kincheloe, Jr., First Baptist pastor, assisted in the service.

The choir for the service was composed of members of the high school chorus under direction of Miss Louise Younce, public school music teacher.

IN WILKESBORO— Yale, Beshears Case Begins In Federal Court

Jones Case Will Be Heard Thursday Before Judge From West Virginia

Trial of Judson Yale and Edd Beshears on a charge of perjury began in federal court in Wilkesboro today.

They are charged with false testimony during a commissioner's hearing in Winston-Salem relative to a liquor charge.

With several witnesses on both sides to be examined, it is expected that the case will not be completed until late Tuesday.

On Thursday, Judge John J. Paul, of West Virginia, will go on the bench in Wilkesboro for the trial of Walter Jones, former deputy marshal, on charge of making false statements on reports as a deputy marshal. Judge Johnson J. Hayes, regular middle district jurist, disqualified himself for the trial because Mr. Jones served the court as an officer.

During the latter days of court last week Judge Hayes meted out the following prison sentences to defendants in liquor cases:

Daniel Holloway, year and a day in Atlanta prison; John Elmora, probation revoked, 13 months in Atlanta; William Sale, year and a day in Chillicothe, Ohio, reformatory; Ira Nelson Dowell, year and a day in Lewisburg, Pa., prison; John A. FRIDAY NOON— Scout Program At Kiwanis Meet

Assistant Scout Executive Speaker; Scouts, Cubs and Leaders Guests

A most interesting Boy Scout program was carried out at the North Wilkesboro Kiwanis club meeting Friday noon.

J. B. Carter was program chairman. He first presented as guests a number of cubs, cubbers, scouts and scouters as follows: Mrs. J. B. Carter, Mrs. R. T. McNeil, Mrs. Robert S. Gibbs, den mothers; Eddie Shook, John Gibbs, Lewis Mann Nelson and Julius Rousseau; eight Scouts, Ralph Church, Don Coffey, Ed Caudill, John E. Justice, Jr., Thomas Nelson, Gene Koontz, Ed Long, Jr., Jack Anderson; scouters; Shoun Kerbaugh, Howard Clark, J. L. A. Bumgarner, J. M. Anderson and R. T. McNeil.

The speaker was Assistant Scout Executive Jerry Ashwill, who addressed the club in a very interesting manner. He gave a brief summary of Scouting in this territory—the Old Hickory council—and complimented the North Wilkesboro district on its very fine work in the Scout expansion program. He inspired the Scouts and their leaders with remarks about the service the Scouts are rendering in the war. He pointed out that General MacArthur was a Scout and that he had trained numerous Scouts in the Philippines, who have immortalized the defense of the islands. In conclusion he paid high tribute to the boys and reminded the club that affairs of tomorrow will be in their hands.

President Williams called the attention of the club to the proposal for the Government to erect a flood control dam on the Yadkin. S. V. Tomlinson, chairman of the Public Affairs committee, urged the members of the club to do all possible to get attention of congress to the necessity for the dam.

The entire program, including pledge to the flag, singing of "America", Scout Oath and Prayer was led by Scouts.

Party Takes Strong Stand In Resolutions

All Except Two Of 29 Provisions Represented; Smith-ey, Laws Re-Elected

The Republicans of Wilkes county, meeting in convention in Wilkesboro Saturday afternoon both flayed and commended Democrats of the State.

Frank Woodhouse, the former Democratic representative of Yadkin county, was condemned most vigorously by the convention for the major part; he played in the passage of the county commissioner re-distributing bill in the session of 1939, whereby Wilkes county was divided into districts making it possible for a minority Democratic vote to take charge of the affairs of the county although out-voted as a whole in the county. And Governor J. Melville Broughton was commended for his stand against the rationing of gasoline in North Carolina.

The convention was called to order by N. B. Smithy, chairman of the county executive committee. Mr. Smithy called attorney A. H. Casey to preside as temporary chairman, and membership of the press were named secretaries. On motion of Presley E. Brown the temporary organization was made permanent.

CONVENTION— Wilkes Is Well Represented At Democrats' Mee'

State Convention Held Friday In Raleigh; District Organizations Set Up

Wilkes county Democratic organization was well represented at the state convention of the Democratic party held Friday in Raleigh.

Although attendance was off some due to gasoline rationing and lack of tires, all parts of the state were well represented and a very enthusiastic convention was held.

Those attending from Wilkes included: J. R. Rousseau, J. C. Reins, J. G. Hackett, Judge J. A. Rousseau, Richard Deans, Phillip Brame, Jim Steele, Frank Watson, Homer Brookshire, Carlyle Ingle, P. E. Forester, W. A. McNeil and C. B. Eller.

In the eighth district conference J. R. Rousseau, Wilkes chairman, was named a member of the state executive committee; Leet Poplin, of Ronda, was named on the congressional executive committee; Attorney W. H. McElwee on the judicial executive committee; and Robert Walsh on the senatorial executive committee.

It is interesting to note that J. G. Hackett, of this city, long a Democratic leader, has attended every state Democratic convention since 1888 except two. The only man in the state with a longer record is Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh, ambassador to Mexico and venerable editor of the Raleigh News and Observer.
