quoted alphabetical scripture verses.

During the social hour the group was invited into the dining room for refreshments, at which time the birthdays of four of the members whose birthdays occur in this month were celebrated. A white birthday cake decorated in four pink candles centered the table, and to each honoree, Mrs. Steelman, Mrs. Carl Bullis, Mrs. J. R. Turner, and Mrs. Hettie Morgan, the hostess presented a gift. Mrs. Wellborn was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Harry Pearson, and Mrs. Turner, in the serving. On each plate was a miniature vase filled with sweet peas as souvenirs for the guests.

The next meeting is scheduled to meet with Mrs. Bullis.

Nancy Brown Entertains The St. Cecilia Junior Club

Thursday afternoon the members of the St. Cecilia Juvenile Music Club held their final meeting for the club year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Foster, with their granddaughter, Nancy Brown, as hostess. There was a large attendance of the members. Rebecca Hayes, club president, was in charge of the program. The club counselor, Mrs. E. E. Preetveit, gave the history of "Old Folks at Home" which was sung by all the club. She also talked on "The Magic of Music" and read Browning's poem, "The Musical Birds."

Lenore Livingston sang "Mighty Lak a Rose" by Nevin. Piano solos were played by Ann Sturdivant, Tommy Long, Rachel Anderson, Nancy Brown, Ruth Long, Lillie Dean Bryan, Celia Elliott, Jean Lowe, Virginia Anderson, and Betsy Barber.

After the program Mrs. Brown served refreshments on the porch. Then the children enjoyed games on the lawn.

Noted Educator In Raleigh Is Buried

Dr. Wallace Carl Riddick, 77, for half a century a member of State College faculty in Raleigh and a former president of the institution, passed away on Tuesday in a Baltimore hospital. He was buried in Raleigh Thursday with services being held in the First Baptist church.

Dr. Riddick, often called "the father of professional engineering in North Carolina," had been on the faculty as professor of hydraulics since he retired in 1937 as dean of the engineering school which he organized in 1923. He served as State College president from 1916 to 1923 after having been vice president for eight years. He was the oldest member of the college faculty in service.

There is a farm placement representative in every office of the U. S. Employment Service. His job is to see to it that growers are adequately supplied with farm labor.

The U. S. Employment service has been expanded and streamlined to meet wartime labor-recruiting needs of industry, agriculture and business.

Dr. M. B. Stokes Tells Why Japan Is Enemy Number 1 In The War

Dr. M. B. Stokes, missionary to the Isle of Pines and now spending his vacation with his son, Dr. J. C. Stokes, in Wilkesboro, addressed the North Wilkesboro Kiwanis club Friday.

Dr. Stokes, who was presented by A. H. Casey, spoke on the timely subject of "Who Is America's Enemy Number One?" He described Japan as being the answer to the subject question. The speaker said that we have been underestimating Japan all along and that despite our efforts in the war to date that Japan is still powerful.

He outlined four reasons why Japan as a nation is powerful.

1. Japan has compulsory education for everyone for six years, after which they have a system of competitive education. By the process of competitive examinations all military officers and leaders are selected and only the best get into the imperial university.

2. Patriotism—or love of country—The Japs love everything about their country and love their rulers to the point of worshipping them.

3. Ability—Their ingenuity, cunning and ability are demonstrated in many ways. Their ability to fight, to plan and to combine show that they are by no means novices.

4. Leadership—Their leaders are their most able people. Their

Pvt. Bruce Phillips Tell Friend of His Objections To Life In India

Pvt. Bruce Phillips, who has been doing a lot of traveling with a part of Uncle Sam's army, writes a pal that India is a swell place if you like it but he doesn't. Main reason he ascribes his dislike to is the cows, billy goats, etc., which share the streets with people.

His letter, dated May 23 and bearing an army postmark of May 27, to Fred Bauguess, of North Wilkesboro, follows:

"Dear Fred: I guess you thought I forgot you. Well, boy, I've been doing some traveling since I last saw you. This India is a swell place if you like it. Frankly, I don't. It's not so bad, though, if it were not for the cows, billy goats, etc., in the streets. Gosh, I wish you were here with me. We have a lot of fun. But I miss old North Wilkesboro and the good times we used to have. What are you doing now? You haven't got married yet, I guess, or have you? What's Paul doing? Have you seen Max Kilby lately? or Bob Morgan? Well, Fred, I close this time. Tell everyone 'hello'. Don't forget to answer this at once—your pal—Bruce."

The letter was received Friday. Pvt. Phillips is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Phillips. Fred Bauguess is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bauguess, of this city.

Baptists Ask Liquor Sale Ban at Camps

San Antonio, Texas. — The Southern Baptist Convention yesterday called upon the President of the United States and the secretaries of war and navy to "eliminate the sale of alcoholic beverages to the armed forces" characterizing liquor as a "sinister force lowering the morale and morality of the nation."

The convention formally stated its position in the war effort by adopting the report of the social service commission, prepared by former Governor Pat Neff of Texas, calling upon its people "as a great religious organization not to sit idly by and expect God to win this war or rebuild our civilization at its triumphant end."

The Baptists, however, balked at accepting a portion of the report which said: "All our religious, educational, commercial and political gatherings should have now but one program and that program should be, win the war and establish peace." The grounds of the refusal were that the resolution failed to state that the churches should also carry on their spiritual functions.

"Truth will not die, but truth does not have the power within itself to rise," the commission reported. "Truth is so potent must have leaders who are willing to fight."

But try and forget her!
