Mrs. Walter Moss Is Extended Social Courtesies

Mrs. Walter Moss, of Baton Rouge, La., and a former resident of this city, who was here for a week visiting with Miss Sue Morning Clements, was extended several social courtesies during her stay. On Saturday afternoon Miss Clements had an informal tea for Mrs. Moss at her home on Sixth Street. The guests, who consisted of close friends of the honoree, came at four o'clock and during the hour tea with accessories was served. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Moss and to Mrs. Hampton McNeill, of Fort Bragg.

Mrs. Fred Hubbard, Jr., entertained the members of the 8th Column bridge club on Monday evening at the Hubbard home in Wilkesboro and had Mrs. Moss as a guest. She was a former member of the club. Bridge was played at two tables with the top score prize going to Mrs. Moss, who also was remembered with a gift. Mrs. William Prevette won low score award. Refreshments followed play.

Mrs. Alice Stafford Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the Young Matrons Contract club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Alice Stafford at the Williams Boarding house Monday evening. In the game of bridge, which was played at three tables, Mrs. Baxter Chadwick scored high and Mrs. S. T. Taylor low, each receiving attractive awards. Refreshments were served at the close of play.
