

Brief Local News Items About People You Know

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Caudill, of Boomer, were visitors to the city yesterday.

Miss Mary Ann Tomlinson, of Winston-Salem, is here visiting with Miss Lucille Casey.

Attorney Eugene Trivette was in Statesville Wednesday looking after business matters.

Mr. Sam Ogilvie spent last week at Warm Springs Foundation, Warm Springs, Ga.

Mr. J. P. Combs, who had an operation several days ago at a Statesville hospital, has returned to his home here.

Mr. Granville Greene, prominent resident of Newcastle township, was a business visitor to the city yesterday.

Privates Sam E. Pruitt and Eugene Long, of Fort Jackson, S. C., were North Wilkesboro visitors today.

Messrs. R. C. and Earl Meadows, of Pores Knob, were business visitors to Lenoir and Blowing Rock Wednesday.

Mr. Hubert Canter, manager of Tomlinson's Department Store, is on a buying trip to St. Louis, Mo., this week.

Mr. J. M. Dix, of Nashville, Ga., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tal Barnes. Mr. Dix is the father of Mrs. Barnes.

Miss Anne Lee Toler has returned to her home at Mt. Airy after a visit here with Misses Nancy Long and Annie Eller.

Mr. Charles Day, Jr., of Durham, spent the week-end in the city with his father, Mr. C.G. Day, and family.

Miss Jessica Davis is spending this week in St. Augustine, Florida, with her sister, Mrs. H. K. Johnson.

Mrs. Maude Craven, of Wagoner, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her niece, Dr. Carolyn Taylor.

Dr. W. A. Taylor and Dr. Carolyn Taylor attended the Taylor family reunion Sunday at Dr. G. W. Taylor's home in Mooresville.

Mr. W. E. Horton and little daughter, Elizabeth, of the Ferguson community, were in the city yesterday for a few hours.

Mr. I. M. Myers, proprietor of the Call Hotel, returned Tuesday from Laurel Springs, Alleghany county, where he has been spending several days with Mrs. Florence Myers and sons, Messrs. John and Robert Myers.

Mrs. J. B. Church, of Roaring River, was among the many Wilkes county folk paying a visit to North Wilkesboro this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dimmette and Miss Mildred Pardue, of Ronda, were visitors to the city yesterday.

Mrs. Arthur Lowe and little daughter, Rebecca, have returned to their home in Wilkesboro after a visit in Statesville with Mrs. James Creedmore.

Mrs. Estelle Nichols has resumed her duties at Belk's as a member of the sales personnel after an absence of several weeks due to illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones left Tuesday for a two-weeks vacation trip to Clemmons, Mocksville, Rocky Mount and Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Cecil Wiles and daughters, Doris and Carolyn, are spending this week in Lenoir with Mrs. Wiles' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Blalock.

Misses Zelle and Joy Harris, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harris, of Roaring River, were North Wilkesboro visitors yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Snyder, of Winston-Salem, were in North Wilkesboro the latter part of the week. They are former residents of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rousseau and daughter, Dianne, have returned to Washington, D. C., after spending several days with relatives here.

Messrs. Jimmie Moore, Buster Rush and Henry Waugh are spending this week camping and fishing on New River in Ashe county.

Misses Helen and Betty Taylor and Miss Irene Hollifield, of Marion, spent the week-end here with the Misses Taylor's father, Mr. E. F. Taylor.

Mrs. Frank L. Smith of Charlotte, arrived Tuesday and is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. H. Johnson and Mrs. Paul Hutchens, and brother, Mr. W.H.H. Waugh.

Mr. L. P. Pevette, who resides in the Cricket community, was carried to Johns-Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore yesterday for treatment. Mr. Phillips has been ill for several days. He was accompanied to Baltimore by Mrs. Phillips and his son, Mr. Clyde Phillips.

Workmen have been engaged in repairing the old Fredell Pevette residence near the county courthouse in Wilkesboro the past few days.

Mr. J. G. Meadows, of Martinsville, Va., is spending a few days at Pores Knob this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Meadows.

Mrs. Robert Myers, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting in Wilkesboro with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Minton. Mr. Myers holds a position in a shipyard at Baltimore.

Mrs. Wiley Brooks and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Branford Brooks, have returned home from Charleston, S. C., where they visited Sgt. Branford Brooks for several days.

Mr. J. C. Thompson, 90 years of age, and daughter, Mrs. E. C. Greene, well known residents of the Purlar section of the county, were among those here yesterday for several hours.

Mr. James Osborne is able to be out again following a few days' illness at his home in Wilkesboro. Mr. Osborne is connected with the Presley E. Brown lumber plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Buchanan, of this city, are enjoying a few days' camping trip to Farmer's Dam on New River in Ashe county. They left Tuesday morning on their vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howell, of Winston-Salem, were among those attending the funeral services conducted Tuesday afternoon at Moravian Falls for Mrs. Gertrude Hubbard Pearson.

Miss Mary Charles Alexander, who is attending summer school at W. C. U. N. C. at Greensboro, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Alexander, of Wilkesboro, for several hours Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Nelson and Miss Mary Nelson, of Florence, S. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nelson, of this city. Mrs. Nelson is Mr. Nelson's mother and Miss Nelson is his sister.

Mrs. G. S. Winters and son, Gene, returned to their home at Laurinburg, N. C., last week after spending a few weeks here with Mrs. Winters' mother, Mrs. D. G. Wiles.

Mrs. Herschel Saxon, who is making her home with her mother in Lenoir while her husband, Lt. Herschel Saxon, is in service, is spending several days here with Lt. Saxon's mother, Mrs. R. J. Hinchshaw. Lt. Saxon is with U. S. forces in Ireland. Mrs. Hinchshaw received a cablegram from him this week. He said he was getting along all right.

Many persons in this city, under a temporary order of the Wilkes Hospital board, are getting along fine now, we are glad to note.

Mr. George Jones, of Pores Knob, who was badly wounded Sunday in an altercation with his uncle, Mr. Larkin Jones, is improving at the Wilkes hospital. He received a knife stab wound in the left side of his chest and his left lung collapsed following the injury.

Mr. Frederic Brethol, who has a position in Charlotte with the Duke Power Co., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Brethol, at Pores Knob, from Friday to Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Henderson returned to Baltimore today after spending several days near the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Phillips. Mrs. Henderson was called here last week on account of the illness of her father.

Mrs. W. S. Surratt, who resides near Washington, D. C., is visiting with relatives at Moravian Falls and in Wilkesboro. Mrs. Surratt is a sister to Mr. W. R. Hubbard, well known Moravian Falls resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd F. Gardner and two children, Mary Lee and William, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Hutchens and daughter, Margaret Anne, were at Waynesville Country Club for several days during the week-end.

Mrs. Grace McGee, of Hudson, is visiting in Wilkesboro with her mother, Mrs. Ella McLain, and sister, Mrs. Cora Lee Royle. Mr. and Mrs. McGee are expecting to move within the next few weeks to Myrtle Beach.

Mr. Clate Elledge, of Taylorsville, was a business visitor to the city Tuesday. Mr. Elledge is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Elledge, of this city, and the manager of the Rhodes-Day-Elledge Furniture Company, at Taylorsville.

Dr. J. H. Johnson, proprietor of the Rexall Store, attended a Rexall buying meeting in Charlotte Monday. He was accompanied to Charlotte by Mrs. Johnson and daughter, Miss Billie Waugh Johnson, and son, Jay, Jr.

Mr. C. H. Jones and two sons, Gwyn and Fred, of Purlar route one, were visitors in this city today. Mr. Jones is recuperating from a major operation performed July 10 at the Wilkes Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Speas, of Winston-Salem, who spent last week at Shattley Springs in Ashe county, were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Buchanan. Mr. Speas is a brother of Mrs. Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Church, of this city, attended the Camp Meeting held under the auspices of the Advent Christian church near Blowing Rock Sunday. The Camp Meeting, which has been in progress ten days, closed Sunday with the evening service.

An eight and one-half pound daughter was born Sunday night, August 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Luther Mitchell, of Williamsburg, Va. Mrs. Mitchell will be remembered here as Miss Texie Combs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Combs, of North Wilkesboro route three.

Mr. DeWitt C. Miller, of Hays, is now working in Bermuda. Mr. Miller was on a ship which was torpedoed and sunk by a Nazi submarine while on its way to the island. He was slightly injured at the time but was rescued and was able to begin work when he reached his destination.

Mrs. Walter Moss and small daughter, Jullanna, of Baton Rouge, La., returned to Mt. Airy yesterday after a week's visit here with Miss Sue Moring Clements. They were accompanied here last week by Mrs. Moss' mother, Mrs. J. F. Foy, who returned to Mt. Airy a few days ago.

Mrs. R. R. Church and son, Forrest, will return home Friday from a ten days visit with relatives in Richmond, Va. While there they attended the wedding of Mrs. Church's brother, Mr. Keerch Herndon, which was solemnized Friday, July 31st, at the home of Mr. Herndon's sister, Mrs. Alva Stuckey, Windsor Farms, Richmond.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Owenbey and Miss Lillie Egbert, of Reidsville, passed through the Wilkesboro yesterday enroute to their summer home at Lake Junaluska. Dr. Owenbey, former pastor at Myers Park Methodist church in Charlotte, is now pastor of First Methodist church in Reidsville. He is also a former pastor of the Wilkesboro Methodist church.

Mrs. Ray Nicholson and son, Ray Arliss, of Newport, are spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Baugtes, Mrs. Nicholson's parents. Mr. Nicholson accompanied them here Saturday and returned Sunday. He has a job at the Marine air base at Cherry Point. Mrs. Nicholson and son will return to Newport Saturday.

Mrs. D. M. Wiles and son and daughter, Mr. Dwight Wiles and Miss Edna Wiles, also Mr. Leon Lerner, of this city, and Mr. Bill Hayes, of Wilkesboro, left Wednesday to spend a week with Mr. D. M. Wiles, who has a position in Fort Worth, Texas.

FUNERAL TODAY—
Mrs. Eula Warren Alexander Dies
 Died of Heart Attack Tuesday in Asheville; Was Married Here Saturday

Mrs. Eula Warren Alexander, age 27, a bride of three days, died Tuesday evening, 5:45, in St. Joseph's hospital in Asheville only a short time after she was stricken with a heart attack.

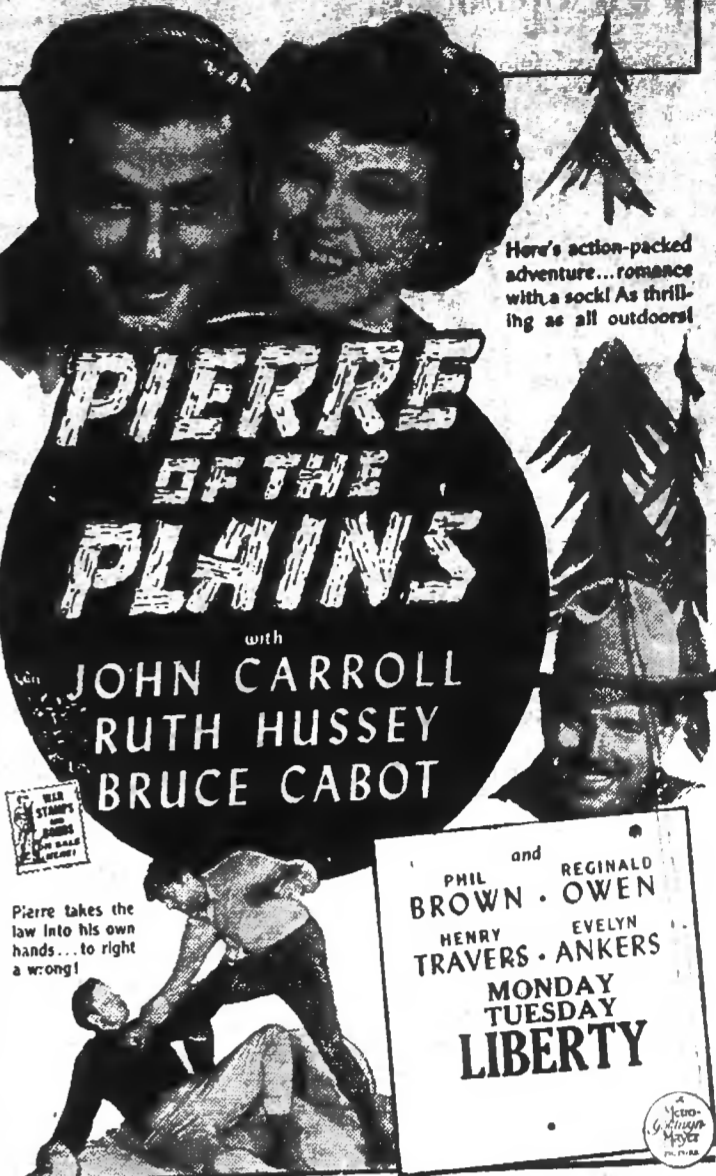

Mrs. Alexander, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Warren, of North Wilkesboro route one, was married to Edgar Alexander, of Hays, in a formal ceremony Saturday evening at Fairplains Baptist church near North Wilkesboro. They made a short wedding trip to points of interest in western North Carolina and had gone to Asheville, where Mr. Alexander has a position.

Funeral service for Mrs. Alexander was held today, two o'clock, at Fairplains church, with Rev. S. L. Blevins in charge, assisted by Rev. A. E. Watts.

In addition to her husband and father and mother, Mrs. Alexander is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Bessie Elledge, Hays; Mrs. Sophia Blevins, Laurel Springs; Miss Arizona Warren, Onville, Arthur, Granville and Claude Warren, of North Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Alexander had held a position for the past several years at Wilkes Hosiery Mills company here and was well known in the community.

HE'S A DEVIL WITH THE LADIES ... A WILDCAT IN A FIGHT!

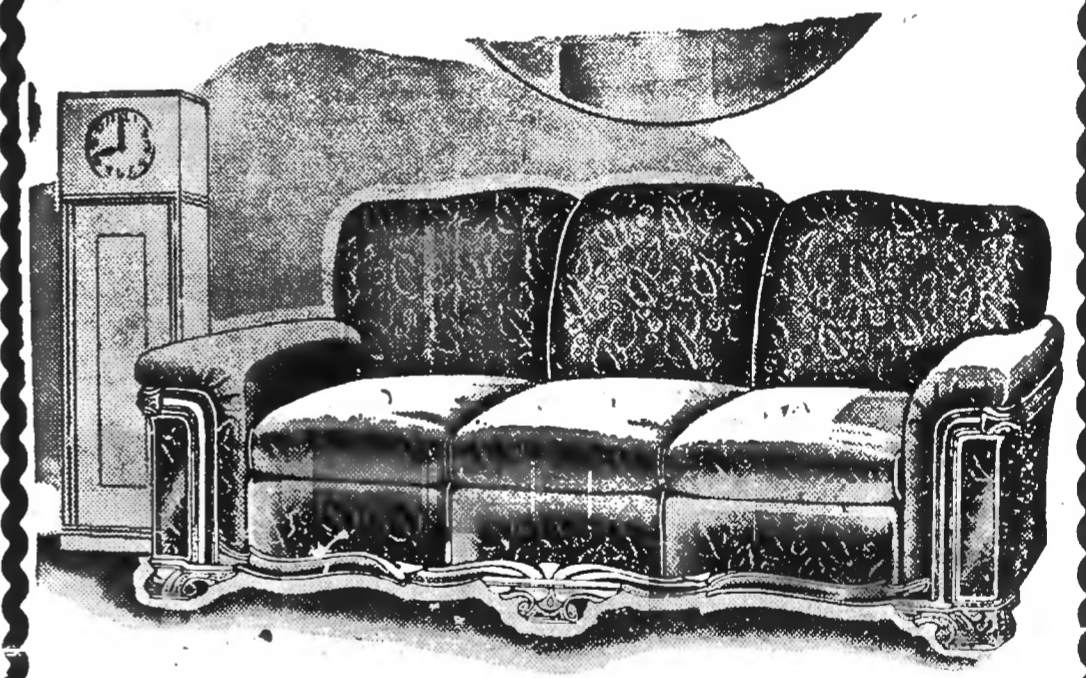

PIERRE OF THE PLAINS
 with
JOHN CARROLL RUTH HUSSEY BRUCE CABOT

Here's action-packed adventure... romance with a sock! As thrilling as all outdoors!

PHIL and REGINALD BROWN - OWEN
 HENRY TRAVERS - ANKERS
 MONDAY TUESDAY LIBERTY

NOW'S THE TIME TO BUY — DURING OUR ... SPECIAL SALE OF STUDIO COUCHES

We have just received a truck load of NEWLY DESIGNED Studio Couches, in the newest and latest colors, both in Tapestry and Velour. We bought these couches at an attractive price before the last market advance so we are passing the SAVING on to our customers.

3 Different Colors in Tapestry — Blue, Wine and Green $42.50

Velour Stripes and Velour Decorated Couches $52.50

These prices are figured out on our Easy Payment Plan, but if you prefer to pay cash we will be pleased to allow you a liberal discount.

No Article of Furniture is More Useful in the Home than a Studio Couch — and Now They Are So Beautiful and Modern.

A Word To The WISE..... It looks like no more upholstered furniture with springs will be manufactured due to war conditions. We suggest that you buy now while our stocks are complete.

R RHODES-DAY Furniture Co.
 "Complete Furnishers of the Home"
 NINTH STREET NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

STILL FURTHER

REDUCTIONS

ON MANY ITEMS OF

SUMMER GOODS

To Clear Out All Our Remaining Stocks Of Summer Merchandise!

Prices were cut deep on all summer merchandise and many items of our regular staple lines for our big July Unloading Sale, and hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise was moved out the first few days. We still have numerous items of summer merchandise on which still further reductions have been made to clear out the stock immediately and make room for arriving Fall goods.

Better come in quick for the things you'll need for this Summer and —next—while prices are at rock bottom! It's a loss to us—a gain for you—because we need the room and the cash, and cutting prices is the quick way to get both. Final warning for bargain-seekers, so get here quick and get the pick of the values!

Buy Summer Goods Now!

Regular Price Tags Will Go Back On Staple Merchandise Of All Kinds After This Sale

BARE'S

FAIR STORE TENTH ST.