

Brief Local News Items About People You Know

W. Gaither Hall, of Statesville, visited relatives and friends in the city several hours Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Yates, of Purlear, was in this city Saturday looking after business matters.

Mr. Pete Carter, of Varnville, S. C., is spending a few days with Mr. Andrew Johnson.

Miss Barbara Wyatt, of North Wilkesboro, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Faye Shepherd, at Vannoy.

Attorney Parks Hampton and Mr. R. L. Lovelace, of Elkin, were visitors to the Wilkesboro today.

Attorney W. B. Austin, of Jefferson, was a professional business visitor to the city today.

Messrs. Hill Carlton, Jr., and Lynn Kerbaugh, of this city, are spending several days at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Miss Stella Perkins, of Baltimore, Md., is spending a few days in Wilkesboro with her brother, Mr. Bon S. Perkins.

Mr. Bon S. Perkins, who has been working at Cherry Point, is spending a few days at home in Wilkesboro.

Mrs. W. M. McCulley, of Salisbury, is here visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Eller.

Mrs. Lane Atkinson and daughter, Shirley, of Salisbury, are guests of Mrs. Atkinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Genio Cardwell.

Mr. Houston Steelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Steelman, of this city, has accepted a position with J. C. Penney Company.

Miss Victory Janos has returned to her home in Chicago after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Seroggs at Moravian Falls.

Bill, son of Attorney and Mrs. W. B. Austin, of Jefferson, was the guest of Bobby Hubbard, of Wilkesboro, today.

Mr. W. M. Holbrook, Mr. U. G. Holbrook and daughter, Almada, of Absbers, were visitors in North Wilkesboro Saturday.

Mr. Fred C. Hubbard, Jr., who is attending the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, spent the week-end at his home here.

Miss Lucille Adams spent the week-end in Winston-Salem with her uncle, Mr. M. L. Adams, and Mrs. Adams.

Mr. A. S. Miller of the North Wilkesboro route one community, was a business visitor in North Wilkesboro Saturday.

Miss Opal Triplett, of Cricket, is spending several days in the city with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Triplett.

Miss Nancy Pogram, of Winston-Salem, is the guest of Miss Leola Triplett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Triplett.

Mrs. Robert S. Gibbs, Sr., of Mars Hill, is visiting in the city with her son, Mr. Robert S. Gibbs, Jr., and family.

Misses Roma Jean and Barbara Saunders, of Statesville, are spending a week here with their aunt, Mrs. J. W. Mitchell.

Pvt. Earl Slimp, of Mountain City, Tenn., and who is stationed at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., was a visitor in this city Saturday.

Rev. Marion Dick, of Birmingham, Alabama, is conducting a two-weeks' revival at the Bethel Presbyterian church at Vannoy.

Mr. Conrad Reeves, of North Wilkesboro, has been confined to his bed for the past week, but is now improving.

Mrs. Mae McGinnis and Miss Mary Sue Church were in Winston-Salem and Greensboro Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. West, of Lenoir, spent the week-end in this city visiting Mrs. West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Joines.

Miss Mildred Cooke returned to Hickory today after spending a week here with her brother, Mr. L. D. Cooke.

Mrs. U. L. Fisher and son, Jimmie, of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mrs. Fisher's mother, Mrs. J. W. Shook.

Mr. and Mrs. Rom Church, well known residents of the Millers Creek community, were visitors to the city today.

Mrs. M. L. Alexander, who resides near Roaring River, is visiting with her son, Mr. W. M. Alexander, and family near Wilkesboro.

Sandy, the little fox terrier which has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wiles in this city for the past eleven years, was killed Friday when struck by an automobile on Ninth Street near The Call Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gabriel have returned to the city after enjoying a few days' vacation at Horton's cabin and trailer camp on Wilkes-Creek near Boone.

Mr. O. K. Pope and family have returned to their home here following a vacation trip to Marion, Va. and Horton's camp ground near Boone.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Annos and Mrs. E. L. Hight, of Hickory, were North Wilkesboro visitors Saturday. Mrs. Annos and Mrs. Hight are sisters.

Miss Edna Minton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Minton, of North Wilkesboro, visited her brother, Corporal Raymond J. Minton, at Fort Moultrie, Charleston, S. C., this past week.

Mr. Earl Meadows, who holds a position as machinist with Yackin Valley Ilmenite company near Blowing Rock, spent the week-end with his family at Pores Knob.

Messrs. Pete and Ned Eller, accompanied by their grandmother, Mrs. Ethel James, will leave Wednesday to visit with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eller, at Baltimore.

Miss Christine Brown, who holds a position at Insurance Service and Credit Corporation, has been spending her vacation at her home in South Carolina and in New York City.

Mr. C. W. Culler has just completed the job of making a large cedar chest for Mrs. T. O. Minton, of Champion postoffice. The chest is six feet long, 39 inches wide and 30 inches deep.

B. B. Banner, Jr., of Galax, Va., is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hubbard, and cousin, little Miss Mary Yeakle Phipps, in Wilkesboro this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Genio Cardwell returned yesterday from Abingdon, Va., where they visited in the home of Mr. Cardwell's cousin, Mrs. Mary Balance. Mr. Cardwell is a native of Abingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert T. Bare and daughter, Carole, returned Friday from Natural Bridge, Va., where they visited with Mrs. Bare's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Brady.

Messrs. Gilbert G. Foster, Raymond Foster, and Arnold Foster, who are working on a war project at Evansville, Indiana, are here for a week's visit with their respective families.

Mr. F. L. Wilcox, of Deep Gap, was a business visitor to the city today. Mr. Wilcox is engaged in the nursery business and is a representative of the Howard-Hickory Nursery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Church and daughter, Mrs. Russell Pearson, of Wilkesboro, left Saturday to spend a week with relatives and friends in Beckley, Coal City, Mullins and Winding Gulf, W. Va.

Mr. Claude McGee, former resident of this city, was here for the week-end and visited relatives and friends in the Purlear community. Mr. McGee is engaged in coal mining now at Gary, W. Va.

Mrs. Carl Bullis and daughter, Miss Roena Bullis, returned last week from a visit at Durham with Mr. Bullis, and near Sanford with Mr. Bullis' mother, Mrs. Roby Bullis, and other relatives.

Mrs. C. M. Crutchfield and daughter, Miss Harriet Crutchfield, of Winston-Salem, were guests here last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Forester.

Mrs. Cecil Wiles and daughters, little Misses Doris and Carolyn, returned to the city last week after a week's visit in Hickory and Lenoir with relatives and friends.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Hayes, who are residing in Chapel Hill, at the Duke Hospital in Durham on Sunday, August 9th, a daughter, Rebecca Faith. Mr. Hayes is a son of Judge and Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes, of Wilkesboro.

Mr. Floyd C. Forester, who has been undergoing treatment at Davis Hospital in Statesville for two weeks, has returned to his home here. Mr. Forester's condition is greatly improved, his many friends will be glad to learn.

Mrs. Myrtle Lewellyn, of Monroe, spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Wilkesboro after attending funeral services Saturday in Wyco, W. Va., for Mr. Frank Deal, a former resident of Wilkesboro.

Mr. L. C. Willard, of the Adley community, left Friday to visit in Greensboro with his brother, Mr. W. B. Willard. Before returning home Mr. Willard will visit in Winston-Salem, Yadkinville, Boonville and Elkin.

Mr. T. S. Kenerly, who is working on an air base at Chincoteague, Island, Va., spent the week-end at his home here. Mrs. Kenerly, who came home with him, is remaining for a more extended visit.

Mrs. Kay Kennedy, of Wilkesboro, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Parke and Mr. Frank Parke, of Charlotte, attended funeral services for Mr. Frank Deal, former resident of Wilkesboro, at Wyco, W. Va., Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McCord left last week for Greensboro where Mr. McCord will be assistant manager of Ross' 9 and 10c Store. Before going to Greensboro, Mr. McCord was with the Rose's Store here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Jones and two children, Della and Jeanette, of Badin, are visiting at the home of Mr. Jones' mother, Mrs. Mollie E. Jones, in the Purlear community, and also with Mr. Jones' brother, Mr. Howard Jones, who resides several miles west of the city on Highway 421.

Mr. A. E. Chambers, of this city, has in his collection of pictures a photo of 10 caskets containing 11 bodies, members of the Gerbig and Gerber families who were victims of a flood in Albany, Oregon. In one casket were two bodies, a mother and small daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hemphill returned today to their home in Franklin after a few days' visit in Wilkesboro with relatives and friends. They were accompanied to Franklin by Mrs. R. B. Pharr and daughter, Elizabeth, and Mary Dula, daughter of Mr. J. W. Dula.

Messrs. Paul Haigwood and Billie Wade Estes, who are attending the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, visited homefolks in the city the past week-end. Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Haigwood, while Billie Wade is the son of Mr. B. F. Estes.

Mr. E. L. Shulenberger, manager of Hub's Bee Line in this city, and Mr. W. H. Madison, of Hub's Place in Elkin, were in Knoxville, Tenn., the last of the week looking over the latest type machinery and equipment used in straightening frames, wheels and axles.

Continued improvement is reported in the condition of Wayne Anderson, age 11, who is a patient at the Wilkes hospital. He was severely injured a few weeks ago when he was struck by a car driven by Mr. Eugene Sebastian on highway 268 in this city. Wayne is a son of Sgt. and Mrs. Herman Anderson.

Mrs. John Crawford left Saturday to make her home with her husband at Chase, Md. Mr. Crawford is employed at Glenn L. Martin aircraft plant in Baltimore. Mrs. Crawford was accompanied by Mrs. DeEtte Crawford and Miss Margaret Phillips, of Obids, who will spend a week with them at Chase, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smithey, of Wilkesboro, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Harris and little daughter, Barbara, who reside near Moravian Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. George Childers, of Winston-Salem, were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. John Smithey and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Childers who reside in Lenoir.

The former Iredell Pevette homeplace situated in Wilkesboro just back of the courthouse and near the famous, Tory oak, has just been given new coats of paint which add much to the appearance of the structure. The residence, which has been remodeled and repaired also, is occupied by Mrs. Fred Glass and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Vannoy and son, Kenneth, arrived last Friday from Laredo, Texas, to spend several days with Mr. Vannoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Vannoy, of Millers Creek, and Mrs. Vannoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, of North Wilkesboro. Mr. Vannoy holds a position with the U. S. immigration service on the Mexican border.

Bryans Return From Trip To The West

Attorney and Mrs. T. R. Bryan and four children, T. R. Jr., Lillie Dean, John Q. A., and Rhoda Jean, returned Saturday from a two weeks' automobile trip to the middle west and northwestern section of the country.

First, the Bryans went to Nebraska where Attorney Bryan had legal business to claim his attention, and from there they traveled on to Wyoming and Idaho. One of the most interesting places they visited on their trip was the Yellowstone National Park where they spent two days viewing the Old Faithful Geyser, Yellowstone Lake and Falls and the Yellowstone Canyon.

Marriage in California

News of the marriage of Miss Betty Lou Gilbert and Mr. John Hayes was received here Saturday. The wedding took place in Los Angeles, California.

Mr. Hayes, who is a son of Judge and Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes, is a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Little Girl In Ireland To Get Journal-Patriot

A little girl in Ireland will soon receive a copy of The Journal-Patriot which contained a letter received here recently by one of her best friends, even though she has never had the pleasure of meeting this good friend in far-away America.

The little girl's name is Hazel Craig. She is twelve years of age, and her letter, reproduced in the August 3rd issue of The Journal-Patriot, was received by Mrs. Alice Eddinger, of this city.

Mrs. Eddinger has a son in Ireland—Maurice Eddinger—who is a special friend of Hazel's family, and she was so delighted with the little Ireland girl's letter that she had it printed in The Journal-Patriot, and later mailed Hazel a copy of the paper so that she could see it in print in Mrs. Eddinger's local newspaper.

Girl Scout Troop Which Won Prize Is Given Party

Girl Scout Troop number 6, of Wilkesboro, was given a Coca-Cola party at the swimming pool Saturday for having won the prize given by J. C. Penney company for selling the largest amount of war bonds and stamps in the booth at the store last month. Mrs. G. T. Mitchell, leader of the troop, gave the party for the girls.

Spainhour's Buyers Back From New York

Messrs. L. S. Spainhour and E. S. Spainhour, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spainhour, of this city, have returned from New York City where they purchased new merchandise for the approaching fall season.

Mr. L. S. Spainhour is manager of the local Spainhour store, while Mr. E. S. Spainhour is manager of Sydnor-Spainhour Company in Elkin.

Rev. Howard Ford Preaches Sermons

Former Pastor Wilkesboro Baptist Church Here; May Be Called

Rev. Howard Ford, resident of Cherry Point, and now completing his course of study at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, has served two fine sermons to large congregations at the Wilkesboro Baptist church yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Ford is a former pastor of the church, having preached the week before last. He is now on his ministerial tour. There is a vacancy at the Wilkesboro Baptist church, and many of the congregation, as well as other friends, are hoping that Rev. Mr. Ford will accept the call to become the church's all-time pastor.

Furnishings for School Yard goods in almost endless variety to select from. Ready-made garments, too. At the GOODWILL STORE.

You Are Invited To Hear DAIRY EXPERT

At Our New Store on Forester Avenue Thursday, Evening, Aug. 20 At 8:30 P. M., Wartime.

Mr. J. E. Streetman, of the Dairy Department of Purina Mills, will be at our Milk Producers Meeting to discuss a sound program of management and feeding of dairy cows. Mr. Streetman is a trained and experienced dairy specialist and now covers several states doing service work for farmers. Take advantage of this opportunity to get the benefit of Mr. Streetman's training and experience.

You Are Invited To Come If You Own Only One Cow.

Hayes Hardware Co. North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Save Tires! Save Wear! DON'T LET OLD MAN SHIMMY GET YOU DOWN!

It's Our Business To STRAIGHTEN Frames and Axles--- Align and Balance Wheels So That You Can SAVE YOUR TIRES, STEERING BUSHINGS, WHEEL BEARINGS And Drive Your Car or Truck With Less Vibration.

It makes no difference to us what make of Car or Truck you have... we have modern equipment and expert workmen to put it in A-1 steering condition... frames and axles that are bent, wheels that are not properly aligned and balanced cost you money every day you operate your motor vehicle. If your car or truck, as the case may be, is not steering as it should, better bring it in to us for a free inspection. If work is needed you'll find our charges reasonable.

ABSOLUTE SATISFACTION GUARANTEED!

Hub's Bee Line

E. L. SHULENBERGER, Manager Opposite Postoffice Entrance On "C" Street