

Louis Ulrich Is Taken By Death

Louis Ulrich, former citizen of North Wilkesboro and who for the past several years had been making his home in Kutherford, N. J., and Fort Lauderdale, Florida, died Monday at his home in Kutherford, N. J.

Funeral service was held Wednesday at New Prospect church in Yadkin county.

For many years Mr. Ulrich was superintendent of the Oak Furniture company plant here and was active in church and civic affairs during the years of his residence in North Wilkesboro. He was 78 years of age and had been in failing health for the past few years.

Dry Rallies Will Be Held Sunday

Roberts Manager Hub's Bee Line

J. E. Roberts, factory trained man from Knoxville, Tennessee, has been placed in charge of Hub's Bee Line motor vehicle repair establishment in this city.

Mr. Roberts succeeds E. L. Shulenberger, who has been promoted in the firm to the position of manager of the Burlington branch. Mr. Roberts is well qualified to render excellent service in wheel alignment, frame straightening and other phases of work done by the firm here.

Hub's Bee Line has enjoyed a growing patronage since its establishment here a few months ago.

Miss Anne Davis, of Wilkesboro, and Miss Sadie Brookshire, of Moravian Falls, returned last week from a trip to Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md.
