IT'S ALL IN FUN and FUN FOR ALL!

Don't Miss It . . . Thursday, Sept. 17th

Laughs, thrills and spills galore are in store for North Wilkesboro people when Donkey Baseball comes to town on next Thursday evening, seven o'clock, at the fairgrounds. On specially trained donkeys, members of the North Wilkesboro fire department, sponsors of the event, will play any team which may be picked from all the good players present. The game will be one of the funniest shows ever put on here and should attract a record crowd.

Still the Funniest
