Miss Elizabeth Scott Becomes Bride Of A. K. Pearson

(Greensboro News, Sept. 20)
First Presbyterian church at Mebane was scene last evening of a wedding of impressive beauty when Miss Elizabeth Scott and Albert Konrad Pearson, both of Greensboro, were united in the presence of a large guest assemblage, many of them from Greensboro. Rev. W. M. Baker, pastor of the church, was assisted by Rev. W. Kenneth Goodson, Greensboro, pastor of Muir's Methodist chapel.

After the ceremony the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neal Scott, gave a formal reception at their home in Mebane. The bridal couple left for a week's honeymoon after which they will be at home at 1108 Madison avenue.

Attending the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, were Mrs. E. C. Harrington, Chapel Hill, sister of the bride, matron of honor; Miss Elizabeth Smith, New Bern and North Wilkesboro, maid of honor; Miss Louise Pearson, Washington and North Wilkesboro, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Walter Zachary, Yadkinville, Mrs. Arthur Neal Scott, Jr., Rocky Mount, and Miss Cecelle Corbett, Mebane.

The bride's wedding robe of heavy ivory satin, Chantilly lace and illusion suited well her stately type. The satin skirt of the handsome gown spread into a magnificent train which widened in an arc from the full folds which gathered at the torso line to the bodice of exquisite Chantilly lace. The sleeves were long and dipping to the sweetheart neckline she wore on a chain the pearl and diamond lavalier her

Social Calendar

The Ladies' Wesleyan Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. M. Crawford with Mrs. W. H. Duhling as associate hostess.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Wilkesboro Baptist church will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the church. Circle No. 5 will have charge of the program.

The Rendezvous Mountain Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Miss Ruby Blackburn.

There will be a meeting of the Wilkesboro Woman's club in the Community House in Wilkesboro Friday evening at eight o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

The father had given his bride. The misty veil, a double tier about the face and shoulders flowed train length from a bonnet coronet lined with tiny ruffles of illusion. She carried a bride's bouquet of gardenias with orchid center.

The gowns of the six attendants were made alike with lace bodice and taffeta skirt with three-quarter-length sleeves and heart-shaped neckline. The matron was in tuchsla, the maid of honor in mauve, the bridesmaids in romance blue. All had bows to match in their hair and carried arm bouques in rich shades.

The bridegroom's attendants were E. Prentys Word, Greensboro, best man, William Bennett Wood, Greensboro, L. Dow Pender, Jr., Raleigh, E. G. Harrington and Walter Zachary.

Music was furnished in a green and white setting by Miss Dorothy Pickard, Mebane, organist, and Rev. Emmet K. McLarty, Jr., Greensboro, baritone. Rev. Mr. McLarty sang "All for You" and "Because" after the organ prelude and ended the ceremony with a musical benediction, "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional processional and recessional were used.

Reception At Home

At the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. A. K. Pearson, North Wilkesboro, received with Mr. and Mrs. Scott, the bridal couple and bride's attendants. Mrs. Scott wore black lace and crepe with red roses. Mrs. Pearson wore black chiffon with gardenias.

The lace-covered punch table was centered by the miniature bride and bridegroom from the wedding cake of the night before. The bridal couple stood under a silver arch looped by white ribbon to white candles. At each end was a punch bowl presided over by Mrs. W. W. Cornett. Mrs. J. S. Vinson and Mrs. Ralph Vinson, all of Mebane, serving were Mrs. Leicester Warran, of New York city; Mrs. Dan Boone, Draper; Mrs. Jesse Pugh, Jr., Ashboro; Mrs. Price Dixon and Mrs. John Anglin, Graham; Mrs. Brogdon Spence, Misses Dorothy Pickard, Rosalind Cornett and Frances Kale, Mebane, Rev. and Mrs. McLarty had charge of the guest register. Others assisting through the house were Rev. and Mrs. Goodson, and the following from Mebane: Rev. and Mrs. Baker, Mesdames Stephen White, Robert Wilkinson, C. L. Malone, P. L. Cooper and Vernon Corbett.

For travel the bride changed to a black gabardine suit, blue blouse, black accessories and her wedding orchid.

Mrs. Pearson, youngest daughter of the Scotts, lived in Mebane until coming to Greensboro to Woman's college where she was graduated in 1939 with a bachelor of science degree in home furnishings. She then studied at New York School of Interior Decoration, New York city, and returned to Greensboro two years ago to the drapery department of Morrison-Neese. She is president of the local chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, national business women's sorority.

Mr. Pearson, son of Mrs. Pearson and the late A. K. Pearson, of North Wilkesboro, was graduated from State college, Raleigh in 1935 with a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering and is now employed by Smith-Courtner company here.

Jerry Lenderman Is Given Party

Little Jerry Lenderman was honored on his sixth birthday September 19th, four o'clock, at his home on Hinshaw street. There were seventeen little friends gathered for the occasion.

He received many presents. After playing games the guests gathered in the dining room, where his mother served refreshments.

Mrs. Lemon S. Watkins has returned from a few days visit with Mr. Watkins, who is employed at Johnson City, Tenn.

Miss Lura Finley Coffey Honored At Parties

A number of interesting social events are being given to honor a popular bride-elect of the city, Miss Lura Finley Coffey, whose engagement, and approaching marriage to James Elliott Deans, of North Wilkesboro, and Angleton, Texas has been recently announced by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr.

The wedding is to take place in New Orleans, La.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., grandparents of the bride, entertained at a family dinner at the Black Bear Inn the first of the week honoring Miss Coffey, who is to be married on the golden wedding anniversary of the hosts. The honoree was given an attractive set of china in the gold band wedding ring pattern.

On Friday Mrs. P. M. Williams, and her daughter and sister-in-law, Mrs. F. C. Hubbard, Jr., and Mrs. R. G. Finley, entertained at a lovely luncheon at the Williams home on E Street. A two-course luncheon was served at one o'clock with covers laid for sixteen, guests consisting of a few close friends of the bride and several relatives. The place cards were in bridal design and late fall blossoms were used in profusion about the rooms. The honoree's gift from the hostesses was beautiful lingerie. Mrs. J. M. Derr, Jr., of Fort McClellan, was here visiting in the home of her parents, Major and Mrs. F. C. Hubbard, was an out-of-town guest for the luncheon.

Misses Lucy and Grace Finley, and Mrs. Gordon Finley, entertained at a charming breakfast Saturday morning at Riverview, honoring Miss Lura Finley Coffey, popular bride-elect. Late summer flowers were effectively used throughout the home. A two-course breakfast was served at nine o'clock, with covers laid for fourteen. The attractive place cards pictured the console of an organ, with the music on the rack the traditional wedding march, "Here Comes the Bride." Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., grandmother of the bride-elect, gave an original and witty toast, and all of the guests offered suggestions for the easiest way to do housework. To close the week Mrs. W. F. Ingram, of Taylorsville, gave a delightful luncheon here at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. (Continued on page five)

Keep It Flying Keep On Buying War Saving Bonds and Stamps

Too many of us have long taken our flag too much for granted! These are times in which its true significance and all the freedom, spirit, faith and hope for mankind it symbolizes must stand clear in our minds, as reaffirmation of all that we are fighting for; and of the worthwhileness of our fighting to the last fibre of our being.

Keep it flying! Brave red, gallant blue, unsullied white! Keep it flying—the flag of America's frontiersmen; the flag of 165 years of pioneers in the name of liberty; the flag of America—for freedom—forever.

Keep it flying! There's only one way! And that is by keeping on buying the War Savings Bonds and Stamps which can supply the funds which can supply our fighting men with every piece of equipment and every item of apparel they need—fast—in order to win this war!
