

Henderson Promises Tires For All Essential Car Uses

U. S. To Attempt To Provide Tires For Every Auto

Washington.—Price Administrator Leon Henderson announced officially for the first time Saturday night that the government will attempt to provide tires for essential usage of every automobile in the nation.

But his announcement was accompanied by a stern warning that both tires and gasoline will be denied to motorists who violate provisions of a five-point program for nation-wide mileage rationing.

OPA officials advise the nation's 27,900,000 motorists, furthermore, that Henderson's statement does not promise tires for everybody. Rather, "that's only what we hope to do," they explained.

5-Point Program

"1. Rationing of used tires and recaps and new tires in stock to provide as far as possible the minimum essential mileage to each of the nation's passenger cars.

"2. Actual control of each car's mileage through the rationing of gasoline (scheduled to start November 22) to prevent unnecessary driving as far as possible, and to hold the national average down to 5,000 miles per car per year.

"3. Compulsory periodic inspection of all tires to guard against abuse and to prevent wear beyond the point where they can be repaired.

Violators Lose Rights

"4. Denial of gasoline and tire replacements to cars whose drivers persistently violate the national 35-mile-an-hour speed limit for rubber conservation. (Officials said such denials will be applied, through other regulations, to all phases of the program.)

Not Yet

"Now that we are all sacrificing for the war, do you think women will go back to making their own bread?"

"No so long as the man can still raise the dough in the hour of knead."

Campbell's Weed Brings Top Price

Tobacco sold on the Winston-Salem market last week by Mr. C. T. Campbell, well known farmer of the Moravian Falls community, brought high prices.

Three grades sold averaged 49 cents per pound, and the 874 pounds carried to Winston-Salem, which is only a part of the amount raised this year by Mr. Campbell, brought him the fine sum of $405.16.

ed to be the outstanding sports event of the fall season in northwestern North Carolina.

The show, to be under sponsorship of Wilkesboro high school, has already attracted entries of some of the finest horses from five states. In addition to North Carolina horses, there are entries from Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee and South Carolina.

Elaborate preparations have been made for the big event. A splendid show ring has been put in good condition, bleachers have been erected to accommodate what is expected to be a record number of spectators, and stables have been erected.

Some of the best known horse show officials in this part of the country have been engaged for the event.

The horse show proper will begin promptly at one o'clock and will follow the tournament to begin at 12 o'clock noon. Lunch and supper will be served at the field.

Entries indicate that the five-gaited stake class and the fine harness class will be outstanding among the 17 events. Some celebrated Tennessee walking horses are also entered and should attract much attention from horse lovers. Champions from several of the best known horse shows have been entered and all indications point to a highly successful show which should eclipse all previous horse show events in this part of the country.

The government is urging wheat growers who are planning their production for 1943 to divert as much wheat acreage as possible to crops more needed in the war program.

Mozdok Area Hit; Volga Fight Slows

Moscow.—The Germans appeared today to have shifted their main attack to the Mozdok area, deep in the Caucasus, after failure in 48 days of fierce assaults against the city of Stalingrad.

The Soviet midnight communique said the fighting inside the shell-torn city was now confined to artillery activity, and it referred also to fighting northwest of Stalingrad as being of "local significance."

In the Mozdok area, however, there were five heavy attacks at one place, the communique said.

There had been increasing evidence of this shift for some days both in the German and Russian communiques. Yesterday's Soviet communique mentioned large German troop concentrations in the Mozdok area.
