Rationing Sales Will Begin November 28th With Sugar Stamp Number 27

Coffee rationing begins at midnight on Saturday, November 21, when there will begin a "freeze" of one week, during which time no coffee may be bought or sold by consumers or dealers. The "freeze" will end at midnight, Saturday, November 28.

Consumers will not have to register. They will use stamp No. 27 from their present sugar ration book. This stamp will be good for one pound from November 28, 1942, through January 3, 1943. No one who was under fifteen years of age on May 8, 1942, will be entitled to any coffee ration, unmined by viewing applicant's stamp book No. 1 for sugar registration.

Only institutional users will have to register. They will register on November 23, 24 and 25. 1942. These will include hotels, cafes, drug stores that serve coffee with meals, hospitals, and other institutions that serve meals, which include coffee. Industrial users, under certain circumstances will register but their applications will have to go to Washington.

Institutional users will register on the back of their original Form R-310 which they filled out for suger. They must register at the same local board where they registered for sugar, and Nelson is their Den Chief. can only show the same establishform for this purpose will be sent to boards.

Patsy, boston bulldog at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. (Dick) Cashion in North Wilkesboro, has one of the best dog houses in the country, as the above picture very well shows. The house is sturdily constructed of durably materials, including excellent floor, moulding, siding, lathe-turned porch posts, glass in front door and rear window, built in bed and asphalt shingle roof. The house is wired for electric lights. It is so cozy that Patsy has never complained of her quarters. Patsy is 16 months of age and is a very loyal friend to every member of the family. She is friendly and well trained to do a number of interesting tricks. Patsy is very intelligent. Once she went in the family car to Wilkesboro and there rambled off. She was lost during the afternoon but she learned a lesson. She will not get out of the car now except at home.
