IONDAY, DEC. 21st, 1942

THE JOURNAL PATRIOT. NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C

olina. s as great as that of all cat- State College, Raleigh. and crives, and five times as t as the value of all hogs and

L. Williams who was Extension this, and the rationing of animal husbandry specialist at an machinery on the farm in the college before he was recent-

• YOU ARE INVITED •

To See the Special

KEM-TONE

DEMONSTRATION

er n

came from the sale of surplus animals produced. Four good animals plow four acres, disc 15 acres, or harrow 3 acres a day in the spring season; do other kinds of farm work at a proportionate rate; and raise enough colts for replacement-if proper ly managed. "In this way, the work animals reaching an age of 6 to 7 years can be sold each year and youn gen animals used to replace them A good team of well broken horses or mules will demand a much higher price than matched pairs of yearlings or two-year

To Be Repeated In Confectieut

This year marks the 31st free per formance of the pageant. "Holy Night"-the first having been in 1912. A family affair, three members of the original cast, besides sons and grandsons of others, are taking part in the 1942 performance. The villagers don't take their acting, and the play itself, in a light, or casual manner. Even though it takes but one hour, the play is rehearsed over and over again, year after year. The first rehearsals begin just after Thanksgiving when costumes are taken from the attic, and players begin to drop amund When the play was first given, was held at the town hall which had a leaky roof. When it rained, water came down on the lamps, the cast and the audience. Another disadvantage was the lack of audience space. The play had to be given two or three times a night so that the many villagers from neighboring

Even with a larger and newer home the play still ''packs them in.'' As did their parents many years ago, the audience and members of the cast see the same simple scene of the Annunciation, the Child in the manger at Bethlehem, the Adoration of the Magi, and the presence of the Angels-all played in panto-

SAN FRANCISCO .- Anything can happen during the Christmas rush in the department stores here. A recent trip by a reporter to the store in search of a story was the cause of him being shunted off to the "Lost and Found Department."

There he found a story. Besides being true, it also was interesting in that it gave a slant on the state of shoppers' minds during the rush when presents have to be purchased for those almost forgotten.

Gloves, said the lady in charge, are objects that shoppers seem to leave most on counters and floors of the store. Each day at least a bagtul of gloves, singles most of the time, are turned in to the lost and found department. Considering the number of single gloves lost, the woman suggested that gloves should be sold in three's.

Animals are also turned in to the lost and found. Also such pets as canaries, turtles and goldfish. Parents buy pets for their children at Christmas time and then, because of the difficulty in carrying them, in holding them when making change, set them down somewhere and also forget to pick them up when off in search for another bargain.

False teeth are also forgotten by the harried shoppers. Most of the times the teeth are turned in from the store's tearoom, the telephone booths, or the restrooms.

Yulefide

This is Christmas! The laughter of million's of children of a hundred racial heritages mingles with the bells that summon the devout to worship in freedom at altars of their choice. Christmas tree lights blaze bravely through unshuttered win Motor cars move to friendly dows. places. There is food in abundance, and general good will over the land. This is Christmas-in America

CORDIAL GOOD WISHES for your YULETIDE SEASON — F R O M —

Your Dodge Dealer

North Wilkesboro, N. C.

CLOSED FRIDAY-SATURDAY

War Service Extension Bulletin and mules are the lar- No. 12, "The Feeding and Man- wrote Williams, "is a profitable one of the most impor agement of Horses and Mules." A business when they are used as a classes of livestock in North copy will be sent free upon remeans of increasing the farm in-Their value is two quest of the Agricultural Editor, The text for this eight-page pamphlet was prepared by Sam

OUESTIONS Question: Can neanut meal or soybean oil meal be used in a hog Dr. W. J. Peterson, in charge of animal nutrition research at N. C. State College, says that peanut meal or soybean oil may be used as the sole protein supplement for fattening pigs with initial weights of 100 pounds or more that have, prior to this sime, been fed raions that contain ample animal protein and succulent grazing. Peanut meal in proportions as high as 1 part of peanut meal to 1 to 3 parts of corn usually produce soft carsasses, whereas 1 part of peanut meal to 5 or more parts of com produces good quality car-

BUY MORE WAR BONDS

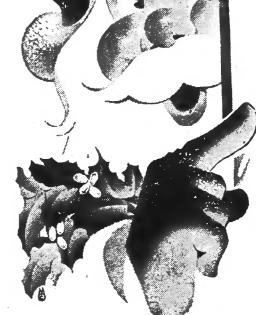

- AND —

ALE

Not even the clouds of war can dampen the spirit of Good-will that abounds in our great and 'peace-loving land at Christmas, and during this, the most significant of all Seasons, we extend to you our heartiest Greetings.

The stern demands of war have made it impossible for us to maintain our usual everyday contacts, but the friendly spirit of cooperation that has been accorded us and the cheerful, unselfish manner in which our customers have accepted the situation that at present makes us unable to serve them as in the past, has been a real inspiration.

Never for a moment do we forget the friends that made the growth of our business possible, and to them we gladly acknowledge a debt of gratitude. With them, we join in the earnest prayer that the return to peace-time pursuits will be hastened, and that the true meaning of Chrstmas

"PEACE ON EARTH - GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN" will be happily realized in the Coming Year!

Very sincerely yours,

