Miss Lura Self Becomes Bride of Ensign Tally

Raleigh, Feb. 6.—In a formal ceremony Saturday evening, January 30th, at First Presbyterian church, Miss Lura Cowles Self, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ogles Self of Raleigh, became the bride of Ensign Oscar Tally, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oscar Tally, of Fayetteville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. O. Sommers, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. E. Norfleet Gardner, pastor of First Baptist church of Henderson.

Following a 10-day wedding trip to New York city and New England states, Ensign and Mrs. Tally will return to Raleigh. They plan to reside in Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Tally attended Needham Broughton high school and Peace Junior college, where she was an honor graduate of 1940, and recipient of an award as the outstanding student of the year. She was president of the North Carolina Collegiate Press association for two years. She was graduated from Duke university in 1942 with an A. B. degree. She is now a member of the faculty of Needham Broughton high school.

Mr. Tally is a graduate of Duke, where he received both his A. B. and LL. B. degrees. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Gamma Mu and Tau Kappa Alpha honorary fraternities. Before entering the navy he was engaged in the practice of law with his father in Fayetteville. He has served as vice president and president of the Young Democratic club of Cumberland county.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. T. B. Finley, of North Wilkesboro.

Mrs. C. L. Gibson Entertains at Bridge

Mrs. C. L. Gibson was hostess at a delightful bridge party at her home on D Street Thursday afternoon. A dessert course preceded the game of bridge which was played at three tables. The high and second high score prizes went to Miss Sallie Outlaw and Mrs. Carl VanDeman.

Potat-Shoemaker Vows Announced

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Dorsey Potat and Quince Shoemaker, both of the Lovelace community, which was solemnized Saturday, February 6, at the home of Rev. A. K. Baily, North Wilkesboro route three, who officiated. The couple will continue to make their home in the same community.

Baptist W. M. U. Met at Home Mrs. Kliby

"Christian Witness Across the Barriers of Race" was the theme for the program given at the general meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church which was held at the home of Mrs. A. F. Kliby Tuesday evening. The program was given by members of Circle No. 1 with Mrs. C. C. Kliby as the leader, and those assisting her were Mrs. John Rhodes, Mrs. Bryan Gilreath, and Mrs. Monroe Eller. Mrs. Rhodes led the devotionals; special music was rendered by Mrs. C. S. Sink and Mrs. R. T. McNeil, and the closing prayer was offered by Mrs. J. F. Fletcher. Mrs. C. E. Jenkins was in charge of the business part of the meeting. Twenty-three were present.

St. Cecelia Junior Club In Meeting

The members of the St. Cecelia Junior club met in Mrs. Prevette's studio Tuesday afternoon. The program opened with "The Star Spangled Banner", sung by the club. Betsy Barber read an interesting paper on "The True Mission of the Study of Music". Caroline Ogilvie gave a sketch of Franz Liszt and played an adaptation of the "Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 2, by Liszt. Others playing piano solos were Rebecca Hayes, Jewel Greer, Ruth Steelman, Dianne Vestal, and Doris Howard. A song, "When the Flag Goes By" closed the program.

The Juvenile section of the club met in the studio Thursday afternoon and elected the following officers: Nancy Brown, president; Lillie Dean Bryan, vice-president; Ruth Long, secretary. Three new members were welcomed into the club.

For the program Ruth Long gave the history of the childhood of Mozart. Nancy Brown told the story of "The Fairy Princess" and played "The Horns of Erlend". Piano duets or solos were played by Becca Doughton, Barbara Ann Livingston, Anne Sturdivant, Joanne Prevette, Rachel Anderson, June Pardue, Jean Lowe, Betty Lou Cranor, Willard Dancy, and Roy Reins, Jr. The program closed with the club song.

Light refreshments were served at both meetings.

Miss Holt Hudson Is Wed to Mr. Clark

A marriage of cordial interest here was the one of Miss Holt Hudson and Fred Rex Clark, of Millers Creek, which was solemnized Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the Baptist Pastorium with Dr. John W. Kincheloe, Jr., pastor of the bride, officiating, using the impressive Baptist ring ritual. The vows were spoken in the presence of the immediate family members.

The bride for her nuptials was becomingly attired in a light blue wool suit with which she used navy accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of tallman roses.

Mrs. Clark is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hudson, of North Wilkesboro, and Mr. Clark is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Clark, of Millers Creek.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a cake cutting party at their home honoring the bridal couple, and guests were those attending the marriage. The cake was cut for the traditional tokens of fortune. The dining table, covered with a white cloth, had for its centerpiece the bride's cake topped with a miniature bride and groom about which white candles gleamed in two crystal holders.

Legion Auxiliary In Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Legion Auxiliary was held at the Red Cross Sewing Room Monday evening with the president, Miss Toby Turner, acting as hostess. At the beginning of the evening a short business session was held with Miss Turner in charge, after which the group spent a couple of hours in sewing. # That Extra Something!

...You can spot it every time

EVERY woman knows it's the extra touches that make a house a home. Ice-cold Coca-Cola is something she likes to add... to brighten the most important part of a home, the people in it.

Coca-Cola is served with pride. Everybody will be pleased. Its quality carries on, never losing the freshness of appeal which first delighted you.

Call for Coca-Cola by its full name or by its friendly abbreviation, Coke. It's the real thing.

Wartime limits the supply of Coca-Cola. Those times when you cannot get it, remember: Coke being first choice, sells out first. Ask for each time.

In these days of wartime shortages, there may not be as much Coca-Cola as before. But still enough for many pauses that refresh. It's wise to buy ahead for the home refrigerator.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina, in regular session assembled:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, association, organization, or institution engaged in the business, trade or profession of peddler, book agent, magazine agent, or salesman, traveling on foot or other conveyance of any kind and going from house to house or from person to person and soliciting patronage in his, her, their or its respective line of business, to peddle their wares, publications or other merchandise of whatsoever kind or description upon the streets of the Town of North Wilkesboro, or in any public place within the corporate limits of the Town of North Wilkesboro, without first securing a permit from the governing body of the Town of North Wilkesboro to engage in such business.

Section 2. That any person, firm, corporation, association, organization, or institution selling or offering for sale advertising space, novelties, or devices, shall before engaging in such business in the Town of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina, secure from the governing body of the Town of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina, a permit to conduct or carry on such business in said Town. Provided that this section shall not apply to the sale of advertising space in any daily, weekly, semi-weekly or monthly newspapers or nationally known magazines published by business institutions and issued with regularity at least twelve times a year, of recognized character and circulation or on street cars, buses, airplanes, cabs, billboards, posters, wall signs, motion picture screens, radio, or in the city or town and State directories and telephone directories for the sale of calendars and novelties to be given away by the purchaser to advertise her, his, their or its own business.

Section 3. Any person, firm, corporation, association, organization, or institution desiring to engage in the business of peddling their wares, publications or other merchandise or desiring to engage in the business of selling advertising space, novelties or devices, shall file with the governing body of the Town of North Wilkesboro an application for a permit, which application shall state the name of the person who makes application, the nature of his, her, their or its business and any other reasonable information which may be requested by the governing body of the Town of North Wilkesboro, and the governing body of the Town of North Wilkesboro shall not issue a permit, as provided herein, to any person, firm, corporation, association, organization or institution, unless the said governing body shall be satisfied as to the legality of the wares, devices, publications, or other merchandise offered for sale.

Section 4. Any person, firm, corporation, association, organization, or institution who or which shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined $5.00 or imprisoned thirty days, or both in the discretion of the court. Provided that each day or part of a day that such business of peddling wares, publications, or other merchandise or the selling of advertising space, novelties or devices is carried on or conducted without a permit shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

Section 5. Should any part or section of this ordinance be declared invalid by any court, it shall not affect any other part or section of this ordinance.

Section 6. That all ordinances in conflict herewith are repealed.

Section 7. That this ordinance shall become effective from and after its adoption.

Adopted this 2nd day of February, 1943.
