DISTRICT MEETING OF W. S. C. S. TO BE HELD HERE TUESDAY, MAY 4

The annual meeting of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service of the Elkin District will be held in North Wilkesboro, Tuesday, May 4th, beginning at ten o'clock in the morning, and will close the three o'clock in the afternoon. Visiting speakers for the morning session will be Mrs. C. N. Clark, vice-president of the Western North Carolina Conference, and Mrs. C. B. Dawsey, Jr., of Boone, a rural worker in the district.

The president of the district, Mrs. Harry Pearson, and the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edd F. Gaitner, are both members of the Union W. S. C. S. In April Meeting

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Union church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. P. and Mrs. J. E. Crysel with 11 members and three visitors present.

The meeting opened with the song, "America, the Beautiful." Mrs. Crysel, the vice-president, had charge. Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Mrs. Raymond Nichols, Mrs. R. E. Adams, Mrs. J. W. Elliott and Mrs. Howard Owens assisted with the program. Mrs. D. E. Turner led in the prayer.

After a short business session Mrs. C. W. Mahaffey dismissed with prayer. The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. A. Crysel, Tuesday, May 11th, two o'clock. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Girl Scout Council Met Monday

A meeting of the Girl Scout Council of the Wilkesboros was held at the home of Mrs. H. B. Smith. Mrs. T. A. Finley, Girl Scout commissioner, presided for the business session during which time a number of business matters came up for discussion. Others present for the meeting were Mesdames George Forester, Jack Brame, J. S. Deans, and Mrs. Claude Doughton.

During the week-end the Girl Scout will sell Girl Scout cookies.

North Wilkesboro Society. The meeting will be held at the Woman's Clubhouse on Trogon Street, and lunch will be served there during the noon hour.

Mrs. Z. O. Eller, chairman of the fellowship committee, and her committee will be in charge of the luncheon, the price of which is to be forty cents a plate. Anyone from the local church desiring to get their lunch there will please notify Mrs. Eller by Saturday, May 1st. The three afternoon circles will hold separate business sessions immediately at the close of the meeting.

price per box this year is to be thirty cents. It is hoped that the public will be generous in their buying of these cookies, since this is their only money making project.

Pleasant Home W. M. U. Has Meet

"The Individual Witness" was the topic discussed Sunday evening by the Woman's Missionary Society of Pleasant Home church at the home of Mrs. Luther Nichols, with Mrs. Nichols in charge. Those taking part in the program were: Mesdames G. G. Foster, A. T. Nichols, Norman Marion, and Ray Bumgarner.

Due to the absence of the president, Mrs. Charlie Lovette, Mrs. Gilbert Foster was in charge of the business meeting.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the program.

Mrs. Presley Myers Is Bridge Hostess

The members of the Young Matrons Contract club and two additional guests, Mrs. M. B. McNeil and Mrs. R. H. Shell, were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Presley Myers at her home in Wilkesboro Monday evening. Three tables were arranged for play in an attractive Easter setting. High and second high score prizes were won by Mrs. Rufus Church and Mrs. McNeil. The hostess served refreshments during the game.

Social Calendar

The Wilkesboro Woman's Victory club will meet Friday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. B. S. Call in Wilkesboro. It is hoped that a large number of the women will be present for this meeting.

The North Wilkesboro Woman's club Victory party will be held at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon Street Easter Monday evening. Please call for Mrs. Ivey Moore or Mrs. Harry Pearson for reservations.

Woman's Missionary circle of Hinshaw Street Baptist church will meet Monday, April 26, 7:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Marshall Bauguss. All members are invited and asked to bring their husbands. An auction sale will be conducted to raise money to purchase hymn books for the church.

Methodist Woman's Society Has Meeting

"The Discovery and Training of Native Leadership in Latin America" was the theme for program presented by the Franklin circle at the monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church of North Wilkesboro held in the church hut Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. E. Hight Helms was in charge and led the devotionals, and talks were made by Miss Nonie Gordon and Mrs. Guy Lillard.

Due to the absence of the president and vice-president, Miss Mamie Sockwell was in charge of the business part of the meeting, the usual reports being heard. Eighteen were present.

Mrs. Walter Eller Entertains Her Club

A delightfully club party of the week was the one given by Mrs. Walter Eller entertaining the members of the Sans Souci club and some extra guests at the home of Mrs. M. B. McNeil on Ninth street Tuesday evening. A dessert course preceded the game of bridge which was played at three tables. The high and low score prizes amongst the club members were won by Miss Joy Harris and Mrs. R. V. Day, while for the visitors Mrs. E. S. Cooper was the winner for the top score prize. The Easter motif was emphasized throughout in refreshments, tallies, and other party appointments.

Ila Holman Bible Class Has Meeting

The April meeting of the Ila Holman Bible class of the Wilkesboro Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. L. L. Godfrey Thursday evening with Mrs. Coley Parker as co-hostess. "I Need Thee Every Hour," and "Only Trust Him" were the opening hymns, which were followed by sentence prayers. Mrs. R. L. Welborn led the devotionals using as her theme God is Our Refuge. Mrs. Laura Parker made a talk on Peace in Refuge, and Mrs. Coley Parker on Trust in God. A poem read by Mrs. Carl Bullis closed the program. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Wilkesboro Baptist Society Met Tuesday Evening

The general meeting of the Wilkesboro Baptist Missionary Society was held at the church Tuesday evening with twenty-four members being present. Circle No. 3, of which Mrs. Alvin Sturdivant is chairman, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Sturdivant led the devotionals, and the theme for program, "Individual Witness" was presented by Mrs. Hadley Hayes, who made a most interesting talk on the Individual Witness in the home, church, community, and the world. Mrs. Howard Ford, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. G. T. Mitchell, sang a solo. Mrs. Mitchell was in charge of the business session.

This is Easter Time...

Now millions of Americans their faith in truth, justice...

But This Easter is Different...

In other years, we would be talking about the Easter Parade: new bonnets, smart dresses, suits, gay shoes and colorful handbags... spring outfits for everyone.

Of course we have all these things. But this Easter, the greater emphasis is on wardrobes for the Home Front job... for now

Every Easter Outfit is a Uniform!

THE HOME FRONT UNIFORM IS EVERYTHING YOU WANT: It may be a dress, or slacks and sport shirt; a skirt and blouse; an overall or a suit... whatever is comfortable, long-wearing, becoming and fitting for the job you have to do.

THE HOME FRONT JOB IS EVERYWHERE: In church and school, factory and shipyard, on the farm and the assembly line, in the store and the home.

THE HOME FRONT WORKER IS EVERYBODY: Your son Joe and your daughter Mary; your husband Sam, your neighbors Ann and Henry, and you, yourself!

AND TODAY, AS ALWAYS FOR 41 YEARS, PENNEY STORES ARE OUTFITTING AMERICAN FAMILIES!

Our long experience with low-cost, neighborly storekeeping stand America in good stead today: your J. C. Penney store is part of a nation-wide business that brings to each community, at the very lowest possible cost, things produced in all sections of the United States. It does for millions on the Home Front, what the Services of Supply do for millions on the battle front.
