People Asked To Keep Up Knitting For Red Cross.

Mrs. N. S. Forester, Jr., and Mrs. Bruce Waugh are to be in charge of the Red Cross knitting program, and one of the rooms at Red Cross Headquarters is to be open on Thursday afternoon of each week. The women are urged to keep on knitting even if the weather is warm, for we have lots of men in service, who are on duty at places where the knitted woolen garments are badly needed. The chapter has plenty of wool on hand now. Please remember to call at Red Cross Headquarters on Thursday afternoons to obtain wool, also to return knitted wool articles.

First Methodist Bible Classes Met On Tuesday

The Woman's Bible class and the Ladies Wesley Bible class of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church held their monthly meeting Tuesday. The Woman's class met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Hix in the afternoon having fifteen present. Mrs. W. E. Shuford gave the devotionals and Mrs. R. M. Brame, Sr., was in charge of the business session due to the absence of the president, Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr.

The Ladies Class met in the evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Brame with Mrs. Murphy Hunt as co-hostess. Mrs. Brame led the devotionals and for the program Miss Lois Scroggs gave a sketch of James Larkin Pearson, Wilkes county's own poet, and read some of his poems. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Rev. A. L. Aycock To Speak At District Meeting Here

Rev. A. L. Aycock, of Mocksville, and a former pastor of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church, will conduct the noonday devotionals at the annual meeting of the Methodist Woman's Society of the Elkin district to be held here Tuesday, May 4th, at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon street. To open the meeting, which begins at ten o'clock, Mrs. Herbert H. Cobb, of the Wilkesboro Society, will lead a directed meditation. Words of welcome will be spoken by Mrs. A. C. Waggoner, of the hostess church, to which Mrs. Oscar Elliott, also of Wilkesboro, will respond.

Other speakers for the morning session are Mrs. C. B. Dawsey, Jr., of Boone, who will tell about her work in the Elkin district, and Mrs. C. N. Clark, of Mt. Airy, vice-president of the Western North Carolina Conference. The district officers will give their reports during the morning hours, and Rev. Mr. Aycock's message is to close the morning session.

Main items of interest for the afternoon will be the roll call, election of officers, and a round table discussion of the work. Mrs. Clark also is to take part in the discussions. Luncheon is to be served during the noon hour by the North Wilkesboro church, price of plate to be forty cents. Anyone from the local church, who desires to get their lunch at the clubhouse may do so by notifying Mrs. Z. O. Eller, chairman of the fellowship committee, not later than Saturday of this week.

Immediately following the afternoon session, which is to close about three o'clock, the three afternoon circles will meet separately for a short business session. All the women of the church are urged to attend as much of the meeting as they possible can, and circle members be present for their circle meetings.

Miss Rebecca Moseley Extended A Number Of Social Courtesies

A number of delightful courtesies have been extended to Miss Rebecca Moseley, who left Wednesday for Daytona Beach, Fla., where she reported on Thursday for active military duty at the Second WAAC Training Center. Miss Moseley, whose serial number is A-405264, has been a member of the North Wilkesboro school faculty for a number of years.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. James C. McDiarmid and daughter, Miss Janie McDiarmid, entertained at a bridge-tee at their home on E street. Two tables were made up for the game with the table prizes, which were defense stamps, going to Miss Lillian Stafford and Miss Mary Speer. Following the game other guests came in, and the group was invited into the dining room for a tea course. The honoree was remembered with a gift. The patriotic note was carried out in the appointments.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, a member of the city school faculty, honored Miss Moseley with a small dinner party at the Hotel Wilkes Monday evening. Dinner was served at six o'clock with covers laid for five. A nosegay of pansies was attached to the honoree's gift.

Miss Lillian Stafford was hostess at the Woman's clubhouse Monday evening honoring Miss Moseley, having guests for six tables. High and second high score prizes in bridge were won by Miss Myrtle Tuttle and Miss Sallie Outlaw while in rook Mrs. Gordon Finley was the winner. The patriotic motif was emphasized throughout in the tallies and other appointments. Miss Moseley was remembered with a gift.

The final courtesies was given by Mrs. Russell G. Hodges when she entertained at bridge at her home on Eighth street Tuesday evening. Four tables were made up for bridge with the high and low score awards going to Mrs. John E. Justice and Miss Lucy Finley. The hostess' honor gift was a cosmetic kit. The salad course served by the hostess and the tallies were suggestive of the patriotic motif.

The hostess' honor gift for Miss Moseley was a cosmetic kit.

Miss White Bride Of Mr. Chas. O. Wright

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. White of Greenville, Tenn., announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen Yeva, to Mr. Charles Olin Wright at the home of Rev. R. C. Griffith in Gaffney, S. C., April 10.

Mrs. Wright is a graduate of the Greenville high school and Greenville School of Commerce and has been in the employ of the Greenville Water Commission for the past ten months.

Mr. Wright, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. C. Wright, of Boone, is a graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College. He has just returned to the United States on leave from the U. S. Public Roads Administration after being engaged for fourteen months in the construction of highways for the defense of the Panama Canal Zone.

The couple plans to live in Boone until Mr. Wright enters the armed services of the United States.—Watauga Democrat, April 22d.

Oakwoods Y. W. A. Holds Monthly Meet

The Oakwoods Y. W. A. of the Oakwoods Baptist church met with Mrs. Vernon Stroud Friday evening. The devotionals were given by Miss Mary Louise Jones. Mrs. Archie Anderson had charge of the program and the following took part: Miss Ruth Ellis, Mrs. Mayford Johnston, Mrs. Vernon Stroud, Mrs. Cleo Anderson, Miss Ruth Steelman, and Miss Sue Anderson. The president, Mrs. Vernon Stroud, had the chair during the business meeting when the officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. Archie Anderson, president; Mrs. Mayford Johnston, vice-pres.; Miss Ruth Steelman, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Vernon Stroud, program chairman; Miss Mary L. Jones, personal service chairman; Miss Ruth Ellis, membership chairman; Miss Sue Anderson, mission study chairman and Miss Nora Laws, counselor.

Miss Bumgarner Is Wed to Mr. Capps

Miss Vera Bumgarner, of North Wilkesboro, announced the marriage of her sister, Regina Arice, to John Michael Capps, Jr., on Saturday, April 24, at eight o'clock in the evening. The marriage was solemnized in High Point at the home of Rev. Walter Kelly, with Rev. Mr. Kelly officiating, using the impressive rite ceremony.

Attendants for the bride, who wore a tan suit with baby blue and white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias, were her sister, Miss Vera Bumgarner, of this city, and Mrs. James Oliver, of Greensboro. Mr. Oliver was best man for the bridegroom.

Mrs. Capps, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Archie A. Bumgarner, of North Wilkesboro, is a graduate of the North Wilkesboro high school, and completed a cosmetologist course at Mae's Beauty school in North Wilkesboro. For the past eight years she has been employed as a cosmetologist in Greensboro.

Mr. Capps, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Capps, of Greensboro, attended school in Winston-Salem and Greensboro. He is with the Travelers Oil company, of Greensboro.

After a short wedding trip the couple are at home at 1006 Gladwin Court, Greensboro.

Woman's Club Entertains At A Victory Party

The Woman's club of North Wilkesboro sponsored a benefit Victory card party at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon street Monday evening having cards played at fourteen tables. During the evening the refreshment committee composed of Mesdames W. F. Gaddy, Frank Tomlinson, Boyd Stout, and Ivey Moore served light refreshments. Mrs. Joe E. Johnson scored high in rook and Miss Lillian Stafford in bridge, each receiving defense stamps, which were returned to the club. The club received some donations on the party and with the proceeds from the players the club will buy a $50 Victory bond. This party took the place of the regular meeting.

Fidelis Class Holds Monthly Meeting

Mrs. Bryan Gilreath, Mrs. Ray Barnes, and Miss Lillian Stafford combined hospitality to the members of the Fidelis class of the First Baptist church in their meeting held at the Gilreath home Tuesday evening. Mrs. J. Q. Adams presided for the business session and Miss Lunda Hendren led the devotionals. Refreshments and a social hour followed the meeting.
