

as a merchant since that time. Mr. Templeton was active in who have not yet sent in their nurch and community affairs.

contributions.

individuals and business firms

ter to membership on the sev-$50,000 Building Purchased mer of Sixth and Main streets enth district selective service appeal board to succeed J. T.

T. Younger. Rev. Norh Hayes will discuss "How May We Create A More Spiritual Worship"

In the afternoon session John W. Kincheloe. Jr., will lead a study course on "The Minor Prophets." Rev. Howard J. Ford will discuss the first chapter of John's gospel.

Surviving Mr. Templeton are Templeton, and the following herry, $38,98; Lincoln Heights, children: Miss Audvey Templeton, $35,85; Millers Creek, $27.16; Hays; Mrs. Alfred Levesque, West Roaring River. $18.23; Ronda. Brentwood. Long Island. N. Y .: Mrs. Harold Medsen, Kings Park. Faye and Diana Templeton, Hays: Maple Springs, $5.70; Clingman, Camp Hood, Texas. One son, Earl, $4.50: Traphill, $4.44; Rock died at the age of two years. Al- Springs, $4.35; Boomer, $4.30; so surviving are one brother and Dennyville. $4.00; Pleasant Ridge two sisters: J. C. Templeton, Uniondebin $2.00; Ochwood Portsmouth, Va.; Mrs. A. H. Steins, Asheville; Miss Nancy Templeton, Union Grove.

held at the home at Hays Tues- $1.25; Mount Sinai, $1.00; Shady A brief funeral service will be dey. 12 o'clock noon, and the Grove, $1.00; Lewis, $1.00; Mine dy will be taken to Union Grove 2:30. Rev. C. C. Holland and There are still other schools to Rev. A. B. Hayes will conduct the report. services

-V-

Meet of Lumbermen, Sawmill Operators A meeting of lumbermen and tion of the large number of peosawmill operators is to be held at ple who are idle in this communithe courthouse in Wilkesboro, ty. He stated that there was a Wednesday night, May 5 at 8:60 considerable number of people o'clock, war time. Problems of who were daily asking for jobs the lumberman and sawmill op- and when the were given them. erator will be discussed and the the would be laborers check-out der way in this area will be ex- cept the jobs when offered them. plained. All lumbermen, sawmill Other members of the club joined operators and other interested in the discussion. Mrs. Lott was persons are invited to attend.

county agent will attend and conduct the meeting.

Miss Norma Smock has returned to' Greensboro College, where she is a student, after spending the week-end in Wilkesboro with parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. O.

were listed as follows:

North Wilkesboro, $41.50, plus lilly sale, $73.75; Wilkesboro, his wife, Mrs. Flora Lee Mitchell $22, plus lilly sale. $8.63; Mulherry, $38,98; Lincoln Heights, $15.10: Mountain View. $10.88; Pleasant Hill $10.00: Cricket $7.63; Moravian Falls, $6.17 $5.20; Piney Ridge, $5; Austin. Dennyville. $4.00; Pleasant Ridge Friendship, $2.00; Oakwoods. $2.00: Mountain Crest, $2.00: Ronda( colored), $2.00; Parks Grove (colored), $2.00: Loggins.

for Friday night, May 7. Ridge, 75c: Windy Gap, 50c. Total. $295.54.

President Hix called attention to the splendid directors meeting held at the hotel Thursday night with Paul Osborne as host.

Paul Osborne raised the quesr marketing project now un- immediately or do not actually ac-asked a number of questions Milton M. Bryan, forester from about the number of people applythe Regional Office of the U.S. ing to her office for jobs and she rotest Service at Atlanta. Ga.; R. stated that since January 1st, 5,-W. Graeber. extension forester 600 people had made application from Raleigh; the county agent for work through her office and and the forester working with the that 600 had been placed. It was the definite conclusion of all that this matter should be given further study and the president referred it to the Public Relations Committee for a report next Friday

Program Chairman W. E. Jones three. presented Kiwanian L. M. Nelson who made a very instructive and the last rites.

no nave not yet sent in their is the source of Sixth in this city. Contributions from 32 schools is contributions from 32 schools is contributions.

The two-story building at 216ions In City 222 West Fourth street in Charlotte, has been bought by Mrs. S. T. Taylor, of North Wilkesboro, caught from the cigarette. for approximately $50,000, and Parents Of Lions In will be used as headquarters for the Crest Stores company which' operates in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. The building, which is on a lot

66 by 200 feet. was sold to Mrs. North Wilkesboro Lions Taylor by the Massachusetts Mu-

Club has planned an elabo- tual Life Insurance company. The rate Ladies Night program E. C. Griffith company acted as lagent in the deal.

BEING REMODELED-A portion of the building is be-

The Ladies Night banquet will be held in the American Legion ing remodeled to serve as headand Auxiliary clubhouse, begin-quarters for the Crest company ning at seven o'clock. Rev. A. C. Waggoner, B. B. Broome and ty stores in four cities. When the Herbert Cobb compose the pro- headquarters here are moved

Service To Be

Guests

charge of arrangements. A. Coke Cecil, of High Point.

quist and humorist, will be on the program.

The principal address will be delivered by Dr. C. C. Rozzelle. pastor of Wesley Memorial Methodist church in High Point. Mothers and fathers of the 18 members of the club now in the service will be honor guests at Charlotte. the Ladies Night banquet. The entire program will be centered around the war effort. Mrs. Ellen W. Shew

Funeral service was held Sunday at Shady Grove church for Mrs. Ellen W. Shew. wife of W. W. Shew, of Somers township. Mrs. Shew died Thursday.

Surviving Mrs. Shew are her husband and three daughters: Mrs. Sherman Pendergrass, of Cycle; Mrs. Gordon Inscore, of Statesville; and Mrs. Ella Ander- company.

son, of North Wilkesboro route<sup>4</sup> Rev. L. T. Younger conducted

BUY MORE WAR BONDS

'According to reports of the accident toid to Police Chief, J. E. with a lighted cigarette and had on her mother's house coat, which her clothes burned rapidly. She died within a short time. Funeral service was held today at the residence with Dr. John W. Kincheloe, Jr., in charge, and burial was in the Baptist ceme-

Edward Rhodes.

The child began running and tery.

The child is survived by her mother and one brother, Franklin

Money can fight, buy bonds. Adult Work in the District.

Prevette, deceased.

Walker, the child was playing Methodist District Meeting On Friday > conference will meet Friday, 9:30 Red Cross Knitting Elkin District of the Methodist

the principal message. Delegates

Open On Thursdays a. m., at Elkin Methodist church. Bishop Clare Purcell will bring from the North Wilkesboro Meth will be open each Thursday 10 odist church will be Mrs. W. C. a. m. to two p. m. Mrs. N. S. Morlow, Mrs. R. I. Moore. Genio Forester, Jr., and Mrs. Bruce

The Red Cross, knitting room Cardwell, F. H. Crow and the pas- Waugh will be in charge of the ton, Rev. A. C. Waggoner, who room, which is located next to the will deliver a report on Young Red Cross office over Tomlinson's Department Store.

U-Boat Meets British Destroyer—Goes Down to Stay

Bialian submarine Asteria had the misfortune of m enting a British destroyer in the hele at upper left the sub is brought is the surface for the had time by a de 1 ing picked up. Lower left: The Asteria is on her way to a perma m were saved. sw rs of her crew, most of who stroyer at an undisc company.

tor, and Confection Vendering

tion of the building.

which operates limited price varie-

grem committee. Emmett John- there the offices will serve both son and L. L. Carpenter are in as headquarters and as chief distribution point.

Operation of the business from an entertainer with an enviable Charlotte is expected to begin as reputation as a magician, ventrilo- soon as occupancy of the quarters is completed about June 1.

The move to Charlotte will signify, it is expected, the start of an expansion program. The company has been operating for seven years, and 10 persons will be employed in the Charlotte offices. The company has no store in

TAYLOR IS OWNER

S. T. Taylor is owner of the chain, and he and his wife and their two children plan to move their home to Charlotte. S. D. Claimed By Death Cradwick is superintendent of the

At present the West Fourth street building in Charlotte is occupied by a number of tenants including Theatre Owners of North and South Carolina, Inc., Independent Theatre supply company; Walter Rogers, painting contrac-

Crest stores will use only a por-