FOT WEATHER DOES NOT STOP THE CENAL CENO

A few days ago a well known local resident, who for obrious reasons didn't want his name used, received mixed up in his mail a copy of the "Industrial Worker", the communist party organ published in Chicago which was addressed to Fred Beal, Caledonia Prison Farm, Halifax, N. C." Beat was convicted for labor disorder at Gastonia and lates pardoned by Governor Broughton. Quite unusual for Beel's free paper to reach the North Wilkesboro business man

Nathan and Libie Ford, operators of a cafe for colored, report the purchase of a number of small pullet eggs, most of which had two or more yolks in them. Unusual for eggs so small.

The value of keeping apples on cold storage was recent- el West. ly proved here when Perry Lowe, one of the county's enterprising orchardists, sold Staymens that have been in storage at the experiment station since last fall. It goes to show that when it comes to preserving apples for a long Douglas, are making their home period of time, Research Specialist VanDeman knows his

Ward Eshelman is another one of our good citizens that children Tommy and Mary Ellen is planning to aid the 'home front' war effort by producing more food for the home. He has a Victory Garden and is now having a new chicken house constructed to provide, as the Methodists say, the "gospel fowl" for his table.

"The first qualification of a good fisherman is to be a good liar" so says C. G. Plexico, our local shoe repair man who likes to cast for 'em himself. While having high regard for a number of local fishermen, he thinks Jim Reins is just about "tops" when it comes to having all the qualifications of a good fisherman. Which reminds us that some of the followers of Isaac Walton have been having ents, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Church. some fair luck this season.

C. M. Brown, Jr., a valued employe down at Pat Eller's place, was among those leaving last week to join Uncle Sam's fight for freedom. C. M., known and admired by numerous friends made since he came to Wilkes to teach in the Mt. Pleasant high school, says he's certainly coming back to Wilkes after it's all over. Mrs. Brown, the former Miss Ruth Huffman, will remain for awhile at least, to help Otto Minton run his big chicken farm at Champion.

North Wilkesboro and Wilkes county people are going to miss Harvel's Studio, closing this week because its owner, Paul Harvel, has just been accepted as an aviation cadet. Paul is a first-rate fellow and turned out first-class
