Sugar, Coffee Rationing May Be Suspended

President Roosevelt Friday held out the prospect that sugar soon may be removed from the ration list, followed later by coffee.

It all depends upon how sucessfully the Allied anti-submarine campaign goes.

The possibility was set forth in Mr. Roosevelt's message vetoing the congressional ban on subsidies. He said:

"We must not only keep the price of . . . necessities down, but we must increase when we can. the supply which helps relieve the pressure for higher prices and Washington.-A wartime child helps reduce the temptations of

"With the improvement in the war against the submarine we may even be able soon to remove su the ration list."

Superior Court Judges Selected

Seven special Superior Court judges for North Carolina have been re_appointed by Governor Broughton for terms expiring on June 30, 1945.

They are Sam J. Erwin, Jr., of Morganton; Clarence E. Black-Jimmy-Oh, you mean that's stock, of Asheville; W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Woodland; Luther Hamilton, of Morehead City; Richard Dillard Dixon, of Edenton, and Jeff P. Johnson, Jr., of Clinton.

In announcing the re-appointments, Governor Broughton said that since April 1, 1942, three of the five emergency judges of the state had died. They were T. B. Finley, of North Wilkesboro; N. A. Sinclair, of Fayetteville, and E. H. Crammer, of Southport. Henry A. Grady, of New Bern, is the only temporary judge available for holding court. Under the law, Superior and Supreme Court judges who retire become emergency judges.

A special judge vacancy caused by the death of A. Hall Johnson, of Asheville, has not been filled.

A Loiders In Last Get No New Tires

Washington, The Office Prior significations, restains, ruled incligible for the replace ments all holders of "A" gasoline ration cards in the Bastern shortage area and restricted replacements elsewhere to automobiles in occupational service.

Rubber Director William M leffers advised the action to cope with a temporary shortage of used and recapped tires which is expected to last at least 90 days.

OPA, announcing passenger car and truck tire rationing quotas for July, set the allotment of used or recapped casings at 414,931 as compared with 690,000 for June.

Senator Harry F. Byrd (D-Va), neantime told the Senate Judiciary Committee that government workers who use federally-owned automobiles on unofficial trips are violating the law and making it more difficult for the general public to accept severe driving The committee is limitations. studying his bill to curb such unofficial use.

Starting on July 1, eligibility for tires for drivers with mileage rations of 240 miles or less a month will be determined as fol-
