Educational Seminar Held In Wilkesboro Methodist Church

A number of instructive as well as inspirational talks were given at the Educational Seminar for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Elkin district, which was held in the Wilkesboro Methodist church on Friday, the 17th. Mrs. H. H. Cobb, of Wilkesboro, and district vice-president, presided for the meeting.

Presenting different phases of the work were Mrs. J. W. Payne, of Cherryville, Conference Secretary of Christian Education; Mrs. W. L. Pitts, of Lenoir, Stateville district secretary of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities; Mrs. J. L. Hall, of Elkin, district secretary of Spiritual Life; and Mrs. C. B. Dawsey, Jr., of Boone, conference rural worker, who spoke on the young women's and girls' work.

Mrs. Ivey Moore, of North Wilkesboro, led the opening, devotional period. Mrs. A. C. Waggoner, of North Wilkesboro, explained the purpose of the meeting, after which the women assembled in four discussion groups led by Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Pitts, Mrs. Hall, and Mrs. Dawsey. Mrs. Waggoner also presented the China Emergency Fund and "The Week of Prayer". This emergency fund is to take care of the increased living expenses of the missionaries, who have made every sacrifice that they may have even the bare necessities of life.
