St. Cecelia Music Club Meets

The junior division of the St. Cecelia Music club met with Ruth and Tommy Long last Friday afternoon at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Long. All of the club members were present for the meeting, with Mrs. Watts as a guest.

Lillie Dean Bryan presided for a brief business session, after which an interesting program was given under the direction of the club counselor, Mrs. R. E. Prevette. Piano solos by Tommy Long, Gerald Shinn, Faye Davis, Rebecca Russel, and June Pardue opened the program, followed by a duet by Frances Johnson and Mrs. Prevette. Four little girls sang "Papa Haydn" accompanied by Jon Lee Doughton. Ruth Long read a biography of Frederic Chopin, and Celia Elliott played "Prelude in A Major," by Chopin. Janet Davis gave a sketch of Brahms, and Louise Kiser sang the "Brahms Lullaby," which she dedicated to the Long baby. Piano solos were played by Betsy Doughton, Betty Lou Cranor, Lillie Dean Bryan, and Nancy Brown. The program closed with the club song by all of the members.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Long, assisted by Ruth and Tommy. Delightful Halloween games were enjoyed.

Monday afternoon the high school club met in the music room, with Mrs. Prevette as hostess. Miss Louise Kennedy presided for the meeting.

For the program Miss Jewel Greer read a sketch of Peter Tschalkowsky, and Miss Betsy Barber played "Waltz of the Flowers," by Tschalkowsky. Mrs. Prevette and Miss Ethel Pearson played Beethoven's "Minuet in G." Miss Goezle Andrews gave a study of Franz Schubert, and Schubert numbers were played by Miss Eloise Pardue and Britt Steelman. Solos were also played by Misses Mary Sue Hendren and Martha Hege.

Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Prevette, assisted by Britt Steelman.

Mrs. Chal McNeil Honors Two Brides

An outstanding social event of the week was the lovely party given by Mrs. Chal McNeil at her home on D street Friday evening honoring two popular bride-elects of the fall season, Miss Wilma Rose Call and Miss Neta Blackwelder. Miss Call is to wed Eugene Theon Bailey, of Williston, Florida, and Miss Blackwelder, a member of the city school faculty, is to be married to Lee Haywood, of Mt. Gilead, her wedding to take place in Wadesboro.

A two course dinner was served at seven o'clock after which bridge was played at seven tables and rook at two, the winners of the high score award being Mrs. Watson Brame and Mrs. J. M. Crawford. Assisting the hostesses in the serving and entertainment were Misses Katherine and Polly Troutman, Lucille Young, Myrtle Tuttle, Nonie Gordon, Elizabeth Smith, and Mrs. Oliver Absher.

Pink and white chrysanthemums predominated in the decorations and table appointments. The dining table, centered with a crystal bowl of pink and white flowers, was flanked with white candles in crystal holders, and both of the honorees places were marked with corsages of pink and white chrysanthemums. Following the dinner, Buddy Absher, nephew of Mrs. McNeil, entered the room and presented the brides with beautiful gifts.
