Presbyterian Church
 Rev. SIDNEY CRANE, Pastor
 Have you ever noticed how widely and freely are used the words of Jesus about "the abundant life"? Social reformers, for instance, advocate a better wage for a certain group of people, or a better market, or something else to insure the enjoyment of "the abundant life". Or the business man who simply wants to sell his merchandise, from tooth-brushes to life insurance, may use the same phrases in the interest of the customer—"the abundant life". Was Jesus talking of commodities one can buy when He first spoke these words? Let us consider them in the morning service together: "I came that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly". (John 10:10).
 At 7:15 the Adults will continue their study of the history of the Christian church in the days of persecution. The Young People and the Junior Young People will meet at the same time.
 The theme of the evening worship service will be, "I Am the Good Shepherd".
 On Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 25th, a Thanksgiving service will be held in the church at 10 o'clock A. M. An offering for the Presbyterian Orphan Home, Barlum Springs, will be received at this service.

Mrs. C. C. Hubbard Passes In Farmer
 Asheboro, Nov. 17. — Mrs. Frances Walker Porter Hubbard, 75, wife of Dr. C. C. Hubbard, of Farmer, died at her home last night at 9 o'clock after an illness following a major operation last July. The body was removed from a Denton funeral home to the home at Farmer this afternoon.
 Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Science Hill Friends church, of which she had been a member many years. Burial will be in the old Asheboro cemetery.

Mrs. Hubbard, daughter of the late David W. and Fannie Porter, of Guilford county and Asheboro, was born in Asheboro and lived here until her marriage to Dr. Hubbard in 1893. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last June. Prior to her marriage, she taught school in Randolph county for about five years. During the 80's for about six years, she worked in the register of deeds office of Randolph. After her marriage, she devoted her life to her husband's profession, studying medicine herself and working with him in his practice until she died.
 She lived in Worthville for a number of years and in Farmer for the past 20 years or more. Dr. Hubbard has been practicing medicine in Randolph 85 years.

 Mrs. Hubbard was related to O. Henry (William Sydney Porter). Her father was a brother of the late Dr. Algernon Porter, of Greensboro; father of O. Henry. David Porter settled here in 1820 and reared a family of 10 children.
 Surviving are her husband; two daughters, Miss Hope Hubbard, of the home, and Mrs. O. S. Keenan, of Greensboro; one sister, Mrs. W. J. Moore, of Asheboro; one brother, S. S. Porter, of Reidsville; and one grandchild.

Those attending the funeral from this section were W. E. Hubbard and daughters, Mrs. Lawrence Critcher and Miss Ruth Hubbard, Moravian Falls; Mrs. Lula C. Hubbard and daughter, Mrs. Lee Hemphill, Mrs. A. S. Cassel, and James C. Hubbard, Wilkesboro; and Mrs. Raymond Harris, of Elkin.

Thirty police of Glasgow, Scotland, reported that they found 84 cases of water running to waste, and 93 of gas escaping in the last year.

Tomatoes were not eaten before the middle of the 19th century because they were considered poisonous.
