Anndora Ingle Feted At Birthday Party

Anndora Ingle, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Ingle, celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary Tuesday afternoon with a lovely party at the home of her parents on Trogon street. Nine little girls came to celebrate the occasion with Anndora and showered her with lots of nice gifts. After an informal hour together the children were served ice cream and cake. The white birthday cake was topped with four tiny green candles, and favors for the little girls were Christmas stockings filled with mints. Assisting Mrs. Ingle in the entertainment of the children were Misses Geraldine Gaddy, Patsy Waller, and Doris Wiles. Guests at the party were Nancy King Newton, Jessica Marlow, Carolyn Wiles, Ann Lewis Vickery, Judith Burke, Margaret VanDeman, Mary Frances Cashion, Lacie Huffman, and Anne Weaver Starr.

Wilson-Watts Vows Are Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Moravian Falls, announce the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Virginia, to Albert Watts, son of Rev. and Mrs. S. I. Watts, of Boomer, on December 10, 1943. The vows were spoken in the home of Rev. J. A. Crews, of Rural Hall, with Rev. Mr. Crews officiating, using the impressive ring ceremony.

For her nuptials the bride wore a light blue crepe dress with which she used black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. J. P. Bingham, Jr., Circle Hostess

The Business Woman's circle of the First Baptist church held its monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. P. Bingham, Jr. The topic for program, "Songs of the Witnesses" was given under the direction of Mrs. Alice Stafford, program chairman. Miss Katherin Sanford gave the devotionals, Mrs. Mabel Lottes the Christmas message, Miss Marie Haigwood a musical meditation, accompanied at the piano by Miss Elsie Nichols, a duet "The Star of the East" was sung by Misses Vivian Kerbaugh and Wanda Kerley.

Miss Manie Brewer, circle chairman, was in charge of the business session, and interesting reports were given by Mrs. E. T. Hackney, Mrs. S. B. Moore, and Miss Lunda Hendren of the work done. Twenty were present and were served refreshments during the social hour.

Idlewise Club Met Saturday Evening

The members of the Idlewise club and a few extra guests were entertained by Mrs. R. T. McNeil at her home on Sixth street Saturday evening. Four tables were made up for bridge and at the close of play the hostess served a salad course. Mrs. Boyd Stout won the prize for the highest score with the traveler's award going to Mrs. Chal McNeil. The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.
