Presbyterian Church
Rev. S. D. GRANE, Minister
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell We shall try in all our services Sunday to "hear the Christmas angels" tell their good news of life, joy and peace to all who believe in Jesus, the Son of God. In the morning worship, at 11 o'clock the theme will be "God So Loved" Through prayer and praise we shall try to express what we can.

Thomas Lillard Passes At Elkin

Elkin, Dec. 13.—Thomas Mason Lillard, 73, one of Elkin's most prominent citizens died today at noon at his home. His death ended a serious illness of a year.

During the 62 years of his residence in Elkin, he has been associated with Chatham Manufacturing company, and for many years has been vice president of the firm. He was a member of the board of stewards and for many years treasurer of Elkin Methodist church. He taught the Sunday school class which bears his name.

He was twice married, first to Miss Kate Gwyn, of Elkin. His second wife, who survives, was the former Miss Marion Kelly.

Other immediate survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Van W.
Dillon, Jr., Mrs. John Sagar, Mrs.
Robert H. Harris, of Elkin; four grandchildren; five brothers, James V. Lillard, of Elkin, J. W.
John and D. W. Lillard, of Decatur, Tenn., and V. C. Lillard, of Creston.

Elkin, Dec. 15.—Business and industry ceased from 11 to 11:30 o'clock, the hour of the funeral of Thomas Mason Lillard, 73, vice-president of Chatham Manufacturing Co., whose death Monday cast a pall of gloom over the town. All stores of the town and the plant of Chatham Manufacturing Co., of which he was a vital part for more than half a century, joined in silent tribute.

The service in Elkin Methodist church of which he was long a leader, was attended by a vast throng of friends. Burial was in Hollywood cemetery.

Relatives attending the funeral and burial services held for Mr.
Lillard yesterday from the Wilkesboro were Mrs. T. B. Finley, Mrs.
C. D. Coffey, Jr., Mrs. L. M. Nelson, and Miss Elizabeth Barber.

Social Calendar
