Our community was saddened wome days ago by the death of hirs. Ed Allen, who resided about three miles north of Ferguson. She died on the 17th day of Feb., and if she had lived to Feb. 19 she would have reached her eightythird milestone in the race of life having been born in 1861 when this nation was starting in the turmoil of Civil War. She, therefore, lived in very turbulent times and saw many hardships, especially during reconstruction days. Before mar-riage to Mr. Allen she was Miss Martha Jane Melton. The follow-ing children survive her: Mrs. Eddie Wentz, of N. J.; Mrs. M. M. Morets, of Pasco, Wash.; Mrs. Arthur Greene, of Deep Gap; Hill and Grady Allen. of Ferguson; Jim Allen of L. I., N. Y. Two sons, John and Clyde Allen pre-ceded her in Beath. Mrs. Allen had been a consistent member of the Elk Baptist church for several years, where the funeral was conducted Sunday, Feb. 20, by the pastor, Rev. Ed Hodges, and interment took place in the nearby cemetery, in the presence of a large congregation. Besides her children she is survived by 45 great grandchildren and two great reat grandchildren.

This correspondent, in company with Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Miller and Miss Blanche K. Ferguson, went to Winston-Salem Friday where we were guests at a luncheon given in honor of Hon. Albert S. Goss, a past Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank and now Master of the National Grange, who delivered an address on the occasion. Mr. Goss is in the State primarily to select a place for the rational convention of the Grange which convenes in this State in November

The first degree will be exemplified by the Ferguson Subordinate Grange at the school building next Tuesday, March 7, unless very bad weather prevents. A number of new members will be initiated at this time.

Some very constructive work has been in progress on the school grounds for the last week or two under the supervision of Mr. Prof-fit and Mr. Hollar. The top soil has been moved from the play grounds and transported to another part of the grounds, where grass will be seeded soon, and lime applied.

Mrs. Clyde McNeill and daughter, Dell, of Lenoir, visited relation. Saturday.

R. L. Isbel, of Lenoir, delivered very able sermon at Adventist church Sunday morning. He always visits quite a number of his members each trip to our com-munity, as well as other people of the neighborhood.

Quite a few attended the farm niceting held here last Thursday night by Mr. Snipes, county agent These meetings are not as well at-tended as they should be, although much fine information for farmers is derived.

L. O. Roberts, whose farm is located in the Gus Myers community, is planning to establish meadow strip this spring that will carry water from the terraces of a large adjoining field. He says he will use a mixture of gresses and lespedeza on the meadow strip that will afford good hay.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Bettie Triplett Dula Murphy passed from this life January 1 at the age of 96 years. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Asa Triplett. She became a Christian and joined the Baptist church in early life and lived a consistent Christian life until her Aunt Bettie was a very industrious character. She used to spin and weave cloth for their wearing apparel, and many have been the bed spreads she has made on the old fashioned loom. Some of these will be kept for many years to come. She was a great lover of flowers, and her flower garden was the most beautiful in the community. She was a sweetspirited character, and even when she grew old she atill possessed that charm of gentleness and good nature that characterized her younger days. Aunt Bettie was everybody's friend when illness was in the community. She never failed when called on by her neighbors to give her service in a very generous way.

She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Calvin Walsh, Mrs. W. H. Hamby, Mrs. Tom Gibbs, Mrs. Rom Barlow, and Mrs. T. R. Barlow, besides a great many grandchildren and other relatives and friends, all of whom will ,remember her with the fondest memories. Since the death of her last husband, Mr. William Murphy, she has been making her home with her youngest daughter, Mrs. T. R. Barlow, and husband. As we remember her beautiful life we would say with Fannie Crosby: Let me grow lovely growing old,

So many fine things do. Laces and ivory and gold and silks need not be new. And there is healing in old trees and old streets a glamour hold. Why not I as well as those grow lovely growing old.

God's blessings on the bereaved. Boomer, N. C. S. I. WATTS

JUST LIKE YOU - these North Carolina girls wanted to do more - to feel they were part of this war! Now, they are doing more—they are manning stations as members of one of America's most important services - the WAVES of the United States Navy!

Why these North Carolina girls tell you

The HAVES are Tine.

Anne Tisdale of Rocky Mount had always dreamed of travel to far, interesting places. "Now I'm actually here in New York," she says, "and I'm looking forward to seeing many other interesting places during my Naval service." You will, too-when you're a WAVE of the United States Navy!

Here's Eula Lipe of Winston-Salem with Lt. (jg) Helen Hull Jacobs, former American singles tennis champion, at the U. S. Naval Training School (WR), New York. "You'd be surprised how many sports champions are in the WAVES," she says. "Swimming, tennis, why, there isn't any sport you could name that we WAVES don't enjoy!" You'll enjoy sports—with inseresting people—when you're a WAVE!

Dull, commonplace work couldn't satisfy Faye White of Gastonia. She wanted an important, exciting job. "I'm training for it now," she writes. "I want to operate a Link Trainer - teaching men 'blind flying.' It's exciting work and I wouldn't trade it for any other job in the world!'

Put yourself in this picture-as another North Carolina girl doing a grand job -helping win the war-as a WAVE!
You'll find it the best job you've had -more exciting, more important, more appreciated, with more chance for real advancement! Yes, you'll take pride in being a WAVE-backing up North Carolina fighting men as North Carolina women have always done-in every war our country has fought!

THESS Like every girl, Marjorie Guillory (left) of Whiteville loves pretty clothes. She's wearing them WAVES! "Every one of my uniforms was designed by Mainbocher-and you know what that means in fashion!" she says. "No wonder every style authority-and every man-has said that our WAVES' uniforms are the smartest of any service in the world!" You'll be just a proud of your WAVE uniform!

BUNDREDS of North Carolina girls are nov their country as WAVES...but America thousands more—and needs them now!

So it's squarely up to you...to do more tower winning the war...to take your place beside Nor Carolina's fighting men in the Navy . . . as a uniformed member of the WAVES.

Now-this very minute-send for your copy of the interesting and informative booklet, "The Story of You in Navy Blue." It answers every question you want to ask-from rate of pay to the interesting work you'll do. Write WAVES, Raleigh.
