War Fund Total Reaches $9,000 In Wilkes County

Those Not Contacted Asked To Send War Fund Donations Campaign Leaders

Campaign to raise $18,000 for the United War Fund and community chest program in Wilkes county picked up materially this

The total of contributions to date have reached $9.000 which is exactly half of the goal. Continued effort on the part of workers and numerous and liberal contributions are needed to reach the goal.

Reports not yet received are expected to swell the total and it is evident that the task of canvassing the people of the Wilkesboros and the rural communities has not been completed.

Doubtless, many will not be reached by the canvassers. Those who are not called on for donations are asked to mail them to C. J. Swofford, chairman, or W. J. Caroon, treasurer of the United War Fund, North Wilkesboro, N.

Somers Township Citizen Commits Suicide Nov. 1st

R. L. Jennings Takes Own Life By Firing Shotgun Into His Abdomen

R. L. Jennings, age 42, ended his own life near his home in Somers township early Wedneslay by firing a shotgun charge into his abdomen.

Coroner I. M. Myers, who with Sheriff C. G. Poindexter investigated the death, termed it suicide. Jennings, unmarried, alone in his own home but took his meals at the home of a brother, Turner Jennings, nearby., Wedesday morning he ate breakfast heartily, and returned to his own residence.

Coroner Myers said that indicaions were that Jennings had fed his hog, walked about 30 steps from the path, placed the butt of the shotgun on the ground and used a piece of plank to push the rigger. He died instantly.

In a pinned up pocket of Jenpings' overalls Coroner Myers found a penciled note which said: 'Nobody is to blame for this but me—R. L. Jennings".

Relatives could attribute no cause for the suicide. They said that Jennings was apparently in a normal state of health. He was a farmer.

Jennings was a son of the late Z. O. and Delia Ladd Jennings. Surviving are three brothers, W.

Interest In Presidential Race High; County Politics Also Interesting

Interest in the November 7 election campaign in Wilkes has greatly accelerated during the Political workers in both parties are feverishly engaged in 'personal work" among the voters, although the number of political gatherings has been limited during the campaign.

In Wilkes this year attention is centered on the race for county commissioners in two of the county's three districts, and for the office of representative In the legislature, member of the state senate, and register of deeds. Ofoffices of sheriff and clerk of court are not to be voted on in this election, the incumbents being in the middle of four-year terms.

Representative T. E. Story is seeking a third term in the general assembly as representative from Wilkes on the Republican ticket. His Democratic opponent is Claude C. Faw, of North Wilkesboro.

In Letter to Mother S.Sgt. Russell Tells of Killing Six and Capturing 18 Nazis In Taking German Pillbox

Staff Sergeant Roy C. Russell casually mentioned the fact that he had captured a nazi pillbox in the Siegfried line and had killed six Germans and captured 18 in the accomplishment.

Mention of his deeds, which were so outstanding that news-papers throughout the country carried a war correspondent's news account of his feat, was interspersed in the letter with good wishes for the health of his people at home and mention of the bad weather where he was.
