Last Rites Held For Mrs. Wilson

A brief funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at Reins-Sturdivant chapel for Mrs. C. E. Wilson, who was killed in an automobile accident Tuesday.

Rev. A. C. Waggoner, pastor of the First Methodist church here, conducted the service here. Later a funeral service was held at the Methodist church in Mountain City, Tenn., Mrs. Wilson's native town, and burial was in Mountain View cemetery there.

Local Drug stores were closed during the funeral hour. Mrs. Wilson's husband is a pharmacist and holds a position with Horton's Drug store.

Mrs. Wilson was killed when the car driven by Mr. Wilson and a small truck driven by Lytle Howell, of Moravian Falls, collided on highway 421 near the Wilkes-Yadkin line. Mr. Howell, who was alone in the truck, died early today from injuries received in the accident.

Special Service At Goshen Church
