Miss Brewer Honored Saturday Evening
To honor a popular bride-elect, lovely party at the Barnes home

Miss Manie Brewer, Mrs. Ray Barnes, Miss Lillian Stafford, and Miss Edna Bullis entertained at a festive setting of colored berries and autumn blossoms. A corsage of pink carnations marked Miss Brewer's place.

Mrs. Maurice Walsh, high scorer in bridge, and Mrs. Rufus Church, high scorer in rook, each received attractive awards. The hostesses presented to the honoree pieces of crystal and china in her wedding pattern.

Musical Stars Met On Thursday

The Junior Musical Stars met at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Gibbs Thursday afternoon, November 14th, with 15 members and one visitor, Ann Phifer. John Gibbs had charge of the program, "Music in Early American Days".

The following piano solos were played: "Russian Romance", by Corinna Finley; "The Army Air Corps", by Nell Gwyn Brame; and "Indian Drums" by Eric Duncan. John Gibbs played a violin solo "The Holy City".

Games were played during the social hour, and refreshments were served by Russell Carter and Tommy Reins.

Tea and Topics Club Meets With Mrs. A. S. Cassel

Mrs. A. S. Cassel was hostess to the members of the Tea and Topics club and some extra guests at her home in Wilkesboro Friday evening. Rook was played at two tables with the high and low score award going to Mrs. W. E. Jones and Mrs. J. W. White. Following play Mrs. Cassel was assisted by her daughter, Miss Alice Cassel, in serving delicious refreshments.

Mesdames Swofford and Walsh Honor Bride-Elect

A delightful courtesy was extended Miss Manie Brewer on Monday evening when Mrs. Jack Swofford and Mrs. Maurice Walsh were hostesses at a party at the Swofford home in Finley Park. Five tables were arranged for bridge and one for rook, and at the beginning of play the hostesses served a dessert course.

In bridge Mrs. J. Q. Adams scored high. Mrs. Presley Myers second high, and in rook the winners were Miss Lunda Hendren and Mrs. T. H. Waller, each being
