North Wilkesboro Woman's Club Met Monday Afternoon

Twenty-eight members were present for the December meeting of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club held at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon street Monday afternoon and heard a most interesting Christmas program directed by Mrs. Sidney Crane. The group joined in singing a number of Christmas carols, in which the origin and history of a number of the carols was given by Mrs. R. T. McNeil. Mrs. Boyd Stout gave the history of the poinsettia, and Mrs. Crane read a lovely Christmas story. An added feature of the program was a display of Christmas decorations arranged by a number of the members. Mrs. Joe Johnson, the president, presided for routine business during which time reports were heard from a number of committees. Hostesses for the afternoon, Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mrs. J. Q. Adams, and Mrs. E. E. Eller, served tempting refreshments during the social hour.

meeting at the home of Mrs. J. C. Bumgarner on Sunday night, December 17th. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the Christmas holidays and a good crowd was present—16 members. The business session was in charge of the president, Mrs. A. T. Nichols. Then followed the program on "Season of Peace" led by Mrs. J. C. Bumgarner with a number of members taking part in the discussion. It was decided to do some favors for the aged and sick of the community during the holiday season. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. R. G. Finley Is Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. R. G. Finley was hostess at a lovely luncheon at her home on Tenth Street Saturday honoring her daughter, Miss Betty Gwyn Finley, and Miss Halle Gillette, of Toledo, Ohio. Miss Gillette, roommate of Miss Finley at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., is here for a week's visit with the Finleys before going to her home in Toledo for the remainder of the holidays. Another out-of-town guest at the luncheon was Miss Barbara Benson, of Elkin, also a student at Stephens College.

Luncheon was served at one o'clock with covers laid for 12 at three small tables, which were appointed in the Christmas motif, guests consisting mostly of classmates of Miss Finley in the 1944 graduating class of the North Wilkesboro high school. After luncheon, bridge was played at two tables in which high and low score prizes were won by Miss Benson and Miss Vivian McNeil, and in the table of gin-rummie Miss Betty Hutchens was the winner.

Honor gifts were presented by Mrs. Finley to Miss Gillette, Miss Benson, and Miss Nelle Rousseau, bride elect of the season. Miss Rousseau and Captain James Ruffin Bailey, U. S. air forces, of Memphis, Tenn., are to wed in January.

Miss Frank Somers Entertains For Club Members

Miss Frank Somers entertained at a Christmas party at her home in Wilkesboro Monday evening having as guests members of her bridge club. Dinner was served at seven o'clock, followed by bridge at two tables. The winners of the high and low score awards were Mrs. Claude Doughton and Mrs. W. B. Somers. An interesting feature of the evening was the exchange of gifts made by the group. Decorations and appointments were in keeping with the Christmas season.

AMERICAN TRADITION

at Christmastime!

Did you ever go to Grandmother's for an old fashioned Christmas? A little old farm house, nestled back in the hills, surrounded by giant oaks with a white mantle of fresh snow . . . the old fashioned kitchen with its savory fumes of roast turkey, dressing and plum pudding . . . the old pine Christmas tree with its tinsel tresses . . . the heaps of gayly wrapped Christmas gifts . . . the logs blazing merrily in the open fireplace . . . the stockings of the youngsters presenting an unforgettable silhouette . . . the spirit of warmth and contentment . . . the glorious reunion of loved ones and friends brought together once again by Christmas . . . underneath it all, the real significant spirit of the occasion. It is a cheerful picture, is it not? Perhaps it will not be your good fortune to enjoy such a Christmas this year, but it is a kind of Christmas we think of when we say "We hope you enjoy an old fashioned American Christmas."
