Miss Rousseau Feted At Dinner Bridge

An interesting and enjoyable dinner bridge was held at the home of Mrs. M. C. Faw, Jr., on Saturday, Jan. 6. The guests included Mrs. J. H. Whicker, Mrs. B. Beome, Mrs. G. G. Danner, Mrs. I. E. Pearson and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Faw, Sr.

The place cards and tablets were in bridal design and the honoree's position was marked with a nosegay of baby yellow and white chrysanthemums tied with green ribbon.

Wesleyan Guild Has Monthly Meeting

The January meeting of the Wilkesboro Methodist Wesleyan Service Guild was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Russell Pearson with Mrs. Robert Dunn as associate hostess, having 27 members and two visitors present.

by Mrs. Dunn, and in the program by Mrs. Johnson Sanders, Mrs. B. Beome, and Mrs. G. G. Danner. The post-war world was the theme for the evening's program, and music consisted of a vocal duet by Mrs. Gambill and Mrs. Herbert Marshall, and the group sang together, "A Charge To Keep I Have". Mrs. Dunn was in charge of the business part of the meeting during which time the pledge for the year was made, and different committees appointed. The hostesses served a salad course during the social hour.

Attorney Whicker, Jr. Addresses Legion Auxiliary Monday

Attorney J. H. Whicker, Jr. was speaker for the monthly meeting of the Legion Auxiliary held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. R. G. Finley, and made a most interesting address on the G. I. Bill of Rights. The program for the meeting was arranged by Mrs. W. B. Higgins, executive secretary. A vocal solo by Mrs. Johnson Sanders, secretary, was the first number of the program. The president, Mrs. E. W. Danner, presided, and was in charge of the business session. During the social hour the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Church-Woronovich Engagement Is Announced

Mrs. W. F. McNeil of Millers Creek announces the engagement of her daughter, Doris Elmer Church, to Mr. Jack Woronovich, of Baltimore, Md.

Miss Church is a graduate of Millers Creek high school and Mae's School of Beauty Culture, at North Wilkesboro. For the past three years she has made her home in Baltimore.

Mr. Woronovich is a graduate of the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute and the Maryland Institute. He holds a position as Marine Draftsman with the Bethlehem Steel company, Baltimore. The wedding is planned for early summer.

Miss Betsy Doughton Celebrates Birthday

Miss Betsy Doughton was honored with a birthday supper at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Doughton, on D street, Friday evening. Betsy's natal day was on Saturday, but the celebration took place on Friday.

Fourteen boys and girls were present for the supper, after which they were directed in bingo and a number of other games, in which prizes were awarded. The honoree received lots of nice gifts as souvenirs of the happy occasion. Centerpiece for the dining table was the white birthday cake topped with ten miniature pink candles.

Mrs. F. C. Hubbard Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the 8th Columbia Bridge club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. F. C. Hubbard, Jr., at the Hubbard home in Wilkesboro Monday evening. Visitors of the club were Miss Peggy Somers and Mrs. C. C. Faw, Jr., of Fort Myers, Fla., who is here visiting with her mother, Mrs. I. E. Pearson. Bridge was played at two tables and at the close of play the hostess served a salad course. Winners of the high and low score prizes were Mrs. J. M. Derr, Jr., and Mrs. W. C. Prevette.
