BY OWNER

One-Hundred-Acre Tract located within one-fourth mile of Pores Knob Postoffice and State Highway Number 16. This tract is well watered, and has road frontage on a rock graveled public road. The soil and altitude is ideal for orchard. There are some beautiful building sites on this tract, and it is located on R. F. D. One, easily accessible to bus service. Above tract is known as the Cowles Knob land. Price Twenty Dollars per acre.

Fifty-Two Acres in Brocktown Valley, an excellent neighborhood, two miles from Moravian Falls, about four acres of good bottom land, balance upland and suitable for orchard. There is considerable timber on this tract, but no buildings. Will sell very reasonable without timber.

Eighty Acres north of Pores Knob Mountain. Will sell this with saw timber reserved, or to suit purchaser. This tract is near crushed rock graveled road and on R. F. D. There are no buildings on this tract. I will sell land alone at a bargain.

I am also offering for sale some choice building sites on small acreage on Highway 16 between Moravian Falls and Pores Knob. I reserve the right to place reasonable building restrictions on these lots, as we have an excellent neighborhood and want to keep it that way.

Inquiries from responsible parties will be given immediate attention. See me at my office in the Carter Building, or at my home at Pores Knob if you are interested in any of the above described lands, or write me care Box 92, North Wilkesboro, N. C.
