James Stout Vows On July 29

Miss Mae James, of North Wilkesboro route three, was united in marriage with Mr. Roy B. Stout, of the United States Merchant Marines, on Thursday, July 29th, nineteen hundred and forty-five, in a simple ceremony at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edd Andrews.

The bride's pastor, Rev. P. C. Parks, officiated. Only a small group of relatives and close friends were present.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of aquamarine with navy blue accessories.

The ceremony was opened with Chopin's, "Prelude in C Minor". This was followed by the traditional Bridal Chorus taken from the Wagnerian opera, "Lohengrin".

The bride and groom entered unattended. Soft strains of "Romance", by Rubinstein, were rendered while the vows were being spoken. Mendelssohn's "Recessional" closed the ceremony.

Misses Ruth Steelmen and Ethel Pearson, friend and cousin of the groom, respectively, were pianists.

Mr. and Mrs. Stout left immediately for a short wedding trip to Virginia where the groom will report back to his ship for duty soon.

New Hope Missionary Society Meets

The Ladies' Missionary Society of New Hope Baptist church near Purlear met with Mrs. Nora Eller for the July meeting. Mrs. Richard Vannoy gave the Bible Reading. Several of the ladies assisted with the devotional program. The new members were Mesdames Russell Church, Richard Vannoy, Claude Phillips, John Eller. After the business session a social hour was enjoyed and the hostess served delicious watermelon, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Edna McNiel.

Mrs. Finley, Miss Finley Give Dinner Party Tuesday

Mrs. Gordon Finley and Miss Lucy Finley were hostesses at a delightful dinner party at Hotel Wilkes Tuesday evening honoring Miss Kathrin Sanford, Red Cross secretary, who is leaving soon for further study; Miss Corinne Faw, Red Cross Case Worker, who will also take a special study course; and Miss Rebecca Moseley, who will succeed Miss Sanford as Red Cross secretary. Attractive place cards and gifts gave the table a festive air, and a delicious three-course dinner was served. Guests present in addition to the hostesses were Miss Sanford, Miss Faw, Miss Moseley, Miss Katherine McDiarmid, of Austin, Texas, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. C. McDiarmid; Mrs. W. A. Fonville, of Portsmouth, R. I., who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Faw; Miss Janie McDiarmid, Miss Ruby Blackburn, and Miss Mary Elmore Finley.

Citizenship

IN TWO GREAT STATES

THE Duke Power Company is proud of its nativity . . . the time, place, and manner of its beginning.

Organized at the beginning of the most stirring century in history, in a section richly endowed by nature, it has thrived on challenge.

In this swift-paced century, citizenship, of individual or corporation, has grown in complexity. But your utilities company believes that it measures up to these complex demands. It has

- PROVIDED JOBS THROUGHOUT THE PIEDMONT CAROLINAS, AND, BY HELPING TO BRING NEW INDUSTRIES, CREATED OTHER JOBS.
- CARRIED ELECTRICITY TO 90,000 RURAL USERS.
- MET INCREASED WARTIME DEMANDS, WHILE MAINTAINING UNINTERRUPTED PEACETIME SERVICES.
- BORNE ITS FULL SHARE OF THE COST OF GOVERNMENT, HAVING PAID LAST YEAR THIRTEEN MILLION, ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-SEVEN THOUSAND, NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-THREE DOLLARS IN TAXES TO FURTHER THE WAR EFFORT AND HELP MAINTAIN THE MANY SERVICES OF GOVERNMENT IN YOUR TOWN, STATE, AND NATION.
- KEPT AN EYE ON THE FUTURE . . . STANDING READY NOW TO PROVIDE NEW FACILITIES AS THE FUTURE DEMANDS THEM.
