First Methodist Girls Organized In An Interest Group

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church sponsored a meeting of the 'teen age girls of the church in the home of Mrs. J. C. Reins Tuesday evening. The purpose of the meeting was to organize the girls into an active interest group of the society.

Mrs. Gardner, in an interesting talk, gave something of the history and present set-up of the Woman's work in the church. Dr. Gilbert R. Combs, the pastor, followed with interesting story of what established missions have meant to our boys in the Pacific Area, and presented also the need for young people to find their rightful place in the church's program.

Gordon Reins, Frances Rousseau, and Mary Lee Gardner were appointed on the nominating committee, and the following officers were elected: Nellie Gabriel, chairman; Mary Louise Newton, vice chairman; Agnes Kennerly, secretary; and Virginia Day, treasurer. The society will be requested to name Mrs. Gardner as counselor.

A membership committee composed of Carolyn Moore, Dot Powell, and Margaret Ann Hutchens was appointed. It was decided that the meeting would be held monthly on the second Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Albert Garwood Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the Wilabri bridge club and a few extra visitors were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Albert Garwood at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. Three tables were made up for bridge and at the close of play the hostess served an ice course. Top score prize within the club went to Mrs. Bob Damschroder and the visitors high to Mrs. O. F. Barnhardt, of Savannah, Ga., who is here visiting with her mother, Mrs. P. E. Brown. Miss Irene Culler was the winner in bingo.

Miss Oleta Church Is Bride of William T. Norwood

The marriage of Miss Oleta Church, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Church, of North Wilkesboro, and William Thomas Norwood of Norwood, was solemnized at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, July 9, at the home of the bride's parents at North Wilkesboro. The Rev. A. E. Watts, of Taylorsville officiated. Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. J. E. Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white organdy fashioned with a fitted bodice, short sleeves with which long white fingerless gloves were used. The billowing skirt ended in a short train and her tulle veil of white was caught in a coronet. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

A reception for the wedding party and relatives was held after the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a wedding cake. Mrs. J. E. Church and Mrs. W. H. Church, sisters-in-law of the bride, assisted in serving.

For travel the bride changed to a suit of tan gabardine with which she used brown accessories, at her shoulder she pinned the orchid from her bouquet. The bride was graduated from Greensboro College in Greensboro. Since graduation she has taught in the Aquadale School, Stanley County and has held a position as a mathematician at the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics located at Langley Field, Va.

The bridegroom attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He served 4 years in the navy, 2 of which were in the European Theater. Since his discharge he has held a position with the Railway Postal Service where he was employed before entering the Navy.

Upon their return from the wedding trip they will be at home in Norwood.

Sans Souci Club Members Entertained

A delightful club party of the week was given by Mrs. Walter Eller at her home Thursday evening, entertaining for the members of the Sans Souci club. Bridge was played at two tables and at the conclusion of the game the hostess served a dessert course. Winners of the high and second high score awards were Mrs. J. G. Zimmerman and Mrs. J. Q. Adams. Miss Elizabeth McNeil, niece of the hostess and who was celebrating her birthday anniversary, was remembered with a gift.

Miss Iris Council Is Recent Visitor Here

Miss Iris Council, who is a dietitian in a Philadelphia Hospital, was a visitor in the city Wednesday, and had as her guest for lunch in the Wilkes Hotel Mrs. J. C. Reins and Miss Lillian Stafford, of this city, and her sister, Mrs. Ralph Asbury, of Winston-Salem, who accompanied her to North Wilkesboro. Miss Council, a former resident of this city, was visiting with her people in High Point.

Pastime Club Met Friday Evening

Mrs. Alene Godfrey Upchurch entertained for the members of the Pastime bridge club and a large number of additional guests at her home in Wilkesboro Friday evening. Five tables were arranged for play in a colorful setting of mixed garden flowers and was preceded by a dessert course. High and low score awards for the club members went to Mrs. Page Choate and Mrs. Elmer Lowe while among the visitors the winners were Mrs. Harry Pearson and Mrs. E. L. Green.
