Owners of Vacant Buildings Or Floor Space Requested Contact Chamber

Forrest E. Jones, secretarymanager of the Wilkes Chamber of Commerce, announced today that his office had been in close touch with several industries interested in locating in Wilkes county, but the lack of space suitable for manufacturing had stopped all the negotiations.

"If the Chamber could have in our files all of the available space in this area suitable for small industries, we would be in a much better position to interest industry to losate here. Jones said, "We are requesting all owners of such property to register their vacant space at the Chamher of Commerce office. In this manner we will be able to serve the owners of such property as well as the prospective renters or purchasers.'

"We request the owners of expected."

Social Security Benefits Mount

in the area serviced by the Salisbury office of the Social Security Board there are now 1,-652 persons receiving monthly benefit checks totaling $22,-979.48, under Old-Age and Survivors Insurance provisions of the Social Security Act.

Beneficiaries in the counties of this service area include: 583 retired workers and their wives who have reached age 65; 74 widows 65 years old or over: 210 widows with children in their care; 778 children; 8 aged parents who were dependent upon a deceased son or daughter at the time of the wage-earner's death.

Louis H. Clement, manager of the Salisbury office of the Social Security Board explained that when a fully insured wage-earner, who is 65 years old or more. files claim for his monthly oldage insurance benefits, his wife may also claim monthly benefits. if she is 65 years old or when she reaches that age. In addition, each of his children under age 16 (18 if in school) will receive monthly benefits—except that the benefits for the entire family may not be more than twice the amount of the retired wagecarner's own monthly payment.

When an insured worker dies, leaving a widow with his children in her care, monthly payments of survivors insurance are made to his widow and to his children under age 16 (18 if in school). This will be paid regardless of the age of the widow. An insured worker's widow who has reached age 65 is eligible for benefits whether or not she has a child in her care.

Where the insured wage-carner dies and leaves no survivor entitled to monthly benefits. a imp-sum death payment is made to the widow or children or parents of the deceased, or to the person who paid the burial ex-

Created by North Carolina Lions clubs, the North Carolina State Association for the Blind is conducting its first annual statewide White Cane Sale and Membership Enrollment campaign August 26-29 inclusive, with Sam Alford, Past District Governor, Lions International General Chairman, and with the sum of $18,000, as its goal.

Lions and Lionesses throughout the State are co-operating in the drive, which was approved unanimously by the State Convention of Lions Clubs held recently in Raleigh for the purpose of raising funds for the associatlon's widespread program of aid to the blind and conservation of sight, the latter project featuring free examinations and eyeglasses for underprivileged children.

Mr. W. O. Absher, local chairman of the White Cane Sale and membership enrollment, announced today that the Lions Club of North Wilkesboro has unanimously endorsed the campaign and its members, assisted by Lionesses and other friends of the blind, will conduct an active drive here during the August period for the sale of White Cane buttons to the public. The buttons will be exchanged for nominal contributions and there is no limit to the amount interested button purchasers may contribute-any sum from 10 cents up.

In addition to the sale of the White Cane buttons, the Lions will enroll as members in the State association for an annual fee of $1, and will seek memberships from individuals interested in the welfare of the blind and conservation of sight. One-third of all funds derived from the sale of the White Cane Mrs. Lane, Age 82, buttons here will be retained by the Lions Club of North Wilkesboro for use in the program of its own blind aid and sight conservation committee, which is the major project committee of all Lions clubs, as aid to the blind and sight conservation long have constituted the major project of the International Association of Lions Clubs. The remaining two-thirds of the White Cane button sale funds and the membership fees will go to the association toward meeting its $18,

000. goal for the 1946 campaign. The association expends its funds chiefly in providing funds for eye operations and hospital Geiling Limits care in sight conservation cases; for examinations and eyeglasses for school children; supplies for blind persons taking vocational and home training; establishing deserving blind persons in business enterprises, and otherwise es that otherwse would suffer from tragic neglect.
