Girl Scout Notes

Girl Scout troop number 8 went to Elkin by bus Friday for an out of town trip. They went to the Y. M. C. A. for recreation and were received very cordially. No admission fee was charged for the girls. Mrs. R. S. Gibbs, Mrs. Claud Doughton and Mrs. Hubert Winkler accompanied the troop.

Betsy Barber, Norma Gabriel and Kay Forester were the Scouts who were on the Kiwanis program last Friday.

The Girl Scout leaders of the Wilkesboros met in the Duke Power building Monday evening. Plans were made for Christmas parties among the scout troops. Mrs. Edward Finley spoke to the leaders using as her theme "The True Spirit of Christmas." She eliminated many of our customs, fine as some may be from the true spirit. Then she summed up the Christmas spirit as the Christ-like spirit we give to others through Christmas and every day of the year.

Below is a copy of the proposed budget for the Girl Scout organization for 1947.

1. Little House Wilkesboro, Little House North Wilkesboro, (stoves, fuel, repair), $300.00.
  2. Mrs. R. S. Gibbs, Council Assistant (yearly basis including day camp salary), $600.00.
  3. Day Camp running expense, $100.00.
  4. Day Camp assistants, $200.
  5. Postage and stationary, $25.
  6. National Fees, $50.00.
  7. $10.00 troop expenses (supplies) 12 troops, $140.00.
  8. Material for leaders, $25.00.
  9. Training program (for leaders) $100.00.
  10. Training program (council members) $100.00.
  11. Transportation (Mrs. Gibbs), $100.00.
  12. Transportation (council members), $100.00.
  13. Miscellaneous, $160.00.
- Total $2,000.00.

Extra Large Turnip

R. C. Goodwin today brought to The Journal-Patriot office a turnip with a weight of four and one-half pounds. The giant turnip, which grew in Mr. Goodwin's garden, measured 42 inches from the tip of the root to the top of the leaves and was over 6 inches in diameter.

Those who wait for opportunity to knock probably knock themselves out of a lot of opportunity.
