Mesdames Moore, Absber Give Tea

Mrs. Henry Moore and Mrs. W. F. Absber were hostesses at a lovely, but informal tea at the Moore home on B Street Friday afternoon, December sixth, receiving three groups of friends from three-thirty to five o'clock, honoring Miss Nancy Forester, bride-elect of the month. Miss Forester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Popper, of this city, is to wed Dwight Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McT. Miller, also of this city, during the Christmas season. Sharing honors with Miss Forester were Mrs. Albert Vannoy, the former Louise Vyne Tait; Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Jr., the former Miss Zeba Sparks, of Traphill; and Mrs. Lewis Hill Jenkins, the former Miss Lucille Russell, of Concord. All four of the honored guests were presented with gifts by the two hostesses.

Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr., poured tea in the dining room at a beautifully appointed table in the bridal green and white. White carnations and narcissus centered the table, which was spread with a white cloth, and lighted by four white candles. Elsewhere about the room were bouquets of the white flowers and candle arrangements, while in the living room red candles and red carnations emphasized the Christmas note. In furthering the brid-
