

SOCIETY:

Miss Edith Greer, Dwight Horton Wed
 Lenoir, January 7.—In an informal ceremony characterized with beauty and impressiveness, held at five-thirty o'clock on Saturday afternoon, January fourth, at the First Methodist Church, Miss Edith Greer of Lenoir became the bride of Charles Dwight Horton of Asheville and North Wilkesboro. Rev. Frank C. Smathers, pastor of the church, officiated using the double ring service.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE
 Having qualified as administrators the estate of S. V. Tomlinson, late of Wilkes county, N. C., this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate to present them to the undersigned, whose addresses are North Wilkesboro, N. C., duly verified, on or before the 9th day of December, 1947, or their right to recover. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement. This 9th day of Dec., 1946.
 W. S. W. E., AND J. R. TOMLINSON,
 Administrators of estate of S. V. Tomlinson, dec'd. 1-13-47M
 W. H. McElwee, Atty.

The vows were spoken amid an effective setting. Against a background of greenery were placed huge arrangements of white gladioli, interspersed with candelabra bearing lighted tapers.

Miss Ann Ingram, organist, and Miss Margaret Maynard, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony. Miss Ingram played "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "Clair de Lune" by Debussy, and "O Perfect Love" on the organ chimes. "I Love Thee" by Greig was sung by Miss Maynard. During the ceremony "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell was softly played, and the traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Ushers were Archie McNeil and Frank McNeil.

The bride and groom entered the church together unattended. The bride wore a gown of gold nylon taffeta, made basque style with short sleeves and the full skirt fell from the waistline in a bustle effect. She wore matching mitts, and her shoulder-length veil of pale green was caught to a tiara of gold colored flowers. She carried an arm bouquet of brandy wine and briar-cliff roses with matching satin ribbon.

Mrs. Greer, the bride's mother, wore a light blue dress with brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Horton, mother of the groom, wore a black dress, black accessories, and a shoulder bouquet of gardenias.

Following the wedding an informal reception was given at the home of the bride's parents on West Harper Avenue for close friends and relatives and out-of-town guests.

The living room was attractively decorated with pink and white gladioli. The dining table, covered with a handsome lace cloth, held a pretty centerpiece of narcissi and pink roses.

Ice cream, individual cakes decorated with pink icing, and nuts were served by Miss Ruby McGuire, Miss Evelyn Clawson and Miss Margaret Shuford.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. For traveling the bride wore a light blue wool suit with brown accessories, and the corsage taken from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return they will be at home in Asheville.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Greer of Lenoir, is a graduate of Lenoir High School and Queen's College in Charlotte. She has been employed in the office of Broyhill Furniture Factories. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Horton of North Wilkesboro, served in the United States Army for approximately four years, spending several months in the European Theatre of Operations. He is now with the State Patrol, stationed in Asheville.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Horton and daughter, Alma, Mr. and Mrs. Don Melville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Parker, Mrs. J. C. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wallace, Mrs. J. W. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lillard, Harry Kerley, Miss Edna Bullis, Miss Lura Reynolds, Miss Marjorie Gabriel, George Wells, and Harley Ellis of North Wilkesboro; Mrs. Charles Rogers and sons, Mrs. Mary Hafer and children, Suzanne and Margaret, of Hickory; Mrs. R. B. Crisp of Marion; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Greer of Boone; Mrs. Dora Smith of Winston-Salem; and Sgt. and Mrs. Duncan of Morganton.

Cake Cutting
 Following the rehearsal on Friday evening Miss Margaret Shuford entertained at a cake cutting at her home on Ridge Street.

The hostess presented a corsage of red roses to the bride-elect.

Arrangements of white flowers were used in the dining and living rooms, and lighted tapers placed at vantage points added a soft glow to the setting.

Favors were drawn from the three-tiered wedding cake, which was topped by a miniature bride and groom. After the first piece was cut by the bridal couple, Miss Ruby McGuire and Miss Evelyn Clawson presided. Cake, punch and nuts were served to the thirty-five guests who were present. Mrs. Raymond McCorkle and Mrs. Ned Kiser presided at the punch bowl.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Alma Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McNeil, Bill and Jim Crews and Frank McNeil.

Mrs. J. W. Hatchett Dies in Statesville
 Statesville, Jan. 6.—Mrs. J. W. Hatchett, 70, died last night at her home on the Fort Dobbs road after a long illness. Mrs. Hatchett was the former Miss Fannie Summers of Iredell county. Surviving are three sons, five daughters, a brother and two sisters. Her husband died in 1939. Funeral services will be held at her home Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Oakwoods cemetery.

Mrs. Hatchett was the mother of Paul A. Hatchett, of North Wilkesboro.
