

Two Men Are Fined $14,500 On Liquor Counts In Yadkin

Yadkinville, Feb. 4.—William Marvin Hanford of Burlington and John Hudspeth of Elkin, reputed "big-time" liquor operators, were fined a total of $14,500 in Yadkin County Superior Court yesterday on charges growing out of a daring automobile chase in which they were arrested by a State Highway Patrol officer December 16.

under $2,000 bond pending trial, was charged with violating the prohibition law, transporting liquor, aiding and abetting in the liquor violation, reckless driving and interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. His companion, Hudspeth, was charged with violating the prohibition law, and aiding and abetting. He was released under $500 bond after the arrest.

Patrolman E. L. Smith testified he arrested the two men while they were riding a 1946 model "pilot car" assigned to spot trouble for a pick-up truck which carried 252 "fifths" of high-price, sealed liquor. Mr. Smith said the car was driven in front of the truck for some distance, then turned around to meet the truck, and the whole performance repeated, evidently for the purpose of spotting trouble. He said he chased the car for some distance and that Hanford, the driver, blocked the road each time he tried to pass. Finally, the truck driver stopped his truck and ran, and Patrolman Smith at last overtook the pilot car, arresting Hanford and Hudspeth.

Judge Hoyle Sink, presiding in the Yadkin Court session, fined Hudspeth $7,000 and Hanford $7,500 after a jury returned a verdict of guilty in both cases. Both men paid their fines in cash.

Officers Elected For Ferguson Home Club

The Ferguson Home Demonstration club met at Ferguson school building January 16. The president, Mrs. T. W. Ferguson, presided. The club collect was repeated, the minutes were read, and the treasurer's report was given, after which officers for the new year were elected:

Mrs. T. W. Ferguson, President; Mrs. J. C. Shepherd, vice president; Mrs. Glen Williams, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Vera J. West, news reporter; Mrs. Grace Shepherd, Family Life Leader.

We plan to do much in the coming year. A Red Cross short course will be given at the school building in March. Mrs. Grace Shepherd was given a subscription to "The Parents' Magazine" to use in her work as family life leader. Our club will demonstrate blood building foods for our Achievement Day, which will be held at the Town Hall Feb. 6 at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. S. F. Miller and Mrs. Grace Shepherd were appointed captains in a contest for getting new members. A prize will be given the captain who secures the most members. Making a Wilkes County Cook Book, as a money making project for the County Council, was discussed. Our club thought it was an excellent idea. At our next meeting names will be drawn for Heart Sisters for the year.

The club gave a skit on the agricultural outlook for the New Year. Those taking part were Mrs. Annie H. Greene, Mrs. Grace Shepherd, Mrs. Annie Church, Mrs. Vera J. West, Mrs. T. W. Ferguson, Mrs. Glen Williams, Mrs. S. F. Miller, and Mrs. Mack Cowles.

At the close of the meeting an interesting contest was held, with Miss Beulah Ferguson as winner. The next meeting will be held on the third Thursday in February at Ferguson school building. The demonstration will be on the use of the pressure sauce pan.—Reported.

And he will further take notice that if he fails to answer or otherwise plead to said complaint on or before the day hereinbefore set forth, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief asked for therein.

This 6th day of February, 1947. (Signed) C. C. HAYES, Tri. 3-6-47 Clerk Superior Court

Red Cross Combats High Accident Toll Throughout Nation

To help combat the mounting toll of traffic fatalities, the Red Cross carries on an extensive highway first aid program.

Approximately 10,000 mobile first aid units are operated by first-aid-trained policemen, truck drivers, fire department rescue squads, transit and electric power company drivers, and first aid instructors in accordance with agreements between operators and the Red Cross. These units, traveling streets and highways, are prepared to render immediate first aid in accident emergencies.

The Red Cross also trains operators of filling stations, roadside inns, and country stores and fire departments and county police to man 2,000 highway first aid stations scattered throughout the nation.

Last year approximately 350,000 persons received certificates for completion of Red Cross first aid courses conducted in industry, at schools, at camps, and in civic and community groups. Approximately 33,000 qualified instructors conduct the free courses.
