MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL — EDITOR

Oxford-Barnes Wedding Jan. 18

The marriage of Miss Selma Oxford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Oxford, and Glenn Barnes, son of Mrs. Celia Barnes and the late Wm. Barnes, of Taylorsville, was solemnized 3:30 p. m. January 18, 1947, at the First Baptist church, Lenoir, N. C., by the Pastor, Dr. O. R. Mangum, using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a powder blue dress of wool jersey with black accessories.

Mrs. Barnes is employed as secretary of the Wilkes County Health Department, Wilkesboro, Mr. Barnes is a student at the Shafford Institute of Barbering at Durham.

New Hope Class Is Entertained

The January meeting of the young women's class of New Hope Baptist church was held Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Gwyn McNeil. Mrs. Hunter Church was the devotional leader, and Mrs. R. C. Goodwin was in charge of the business part of the meeting. Games and contests were played with prizes going to Mrs. R. C. Goodwin, Mrs. Richard Vannoy and Mrs. Murry Whittington, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Chipman Entertains Club

The Handwork club celebrated its ninth birthday anniversary on Thursday evening at the home of J. G. Chipman on Kensington Drive, who was the hostess for the organizational meeting nine years ago. All members of the club were present with the exception of Mrs. Claude Buchanan, the president, who was absent due to sickness, and in her absence Mrs. Chipman was in charge of the business session. A number of prizes were awarded in some Valentine games, and contests, and at the close of the evening the guests were invited into the dining room where the birthday cake was served with tea and sandwiches. The white birthday cake, topped with nine tiny red candles, centered the table, the decorations emphasized the Valentine note, and on each plate was an attractive Valentine favor.

Catapano-Wiles Vows In New York

Huntington, N. Y.—St. Patrick's R. C. Church was the scene of a lovely winter wedding which took place at 4:30 p. m., Jan. 19, when Miss (Ducky) Rosabelle Wiles, daughter of Mrs. I. S. Wiles of Whitman Road, South Huntington, became the bride of Fredrick Catapano, son of Mrs. Michelina Catapano, of Cherry Street, Huntington.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, John Roselle, was attired in the traditional satin. Her gown was fashioned in a sweetheart neckline with a yoke of seed pearls. She wore a fingertip length veil and carried a white prayer book with a spray of white orchids, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Joseph Carino, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a white crepe gown trimmed with gold sequins and carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations. The best man was James Antorino.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Mary Falcone, Angelina Carino, Mickey Catapano, and Grace Roselle were gowned in white chiffon and carried heart-shaped bouquets of red and white carnations. Ushers were Alfred Borsello, Louis Boccia, Frank Prisco and James Alpert.

The wedding reception was held at Lindbergh Lodge after which the couple left for Ashland, Ky., and Princeton, W. Va. Upon their return from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Catapano will reside at Wall Street, Huntington.

The bride is a former resident of North Wilkesboro, N. C. During the war years she was employed at Republic Aviation and at present is employed in the wallpaper department of Aboff's White Paint Store, Huntington.

The groom saw action with the 12th Armored Division and spent 15 months overseas.

Out of town guests came from Inwood, Riverhead, Hicksville, Brooklyn, Flushing, Oyster Bay, East Norwich, New York and Hoboken, N. J.

Among these was the bride's aunt, Mrs. M. C. Reid of Orlando, Fla., and Princeton, W. Va.

Miss Hinton United With Mr. Hoskins

Chapel Hill, Feb. 8.—The chapel of University Methodist Church was scene of the wedding today at 4:30 p. m. of Miss Lula Foushee Hinton of the High Point Schools faculty, daughter of Edgar Russell Hinton and the late Mrs. Hinton, and Daniel Vernon Hoskins, Jr., son of Daniel Vernon Hoskins, High Point and the late Mrs. Hoskins. Rev. Henry Ruark, pastor, heard the vows.

Mrs. Lawrence Cooper of Clayton and Miss Dorothy Hoskins, High Point, sister of the bridegroom, furnished music. Jack Adams, High Point, ushered. Robert B. Hoskins of High Point was best man. The altar was arranged in nuptial green and white.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore ivory duchesse satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline, marquise yoke embroidered with seed pearls at the narrow neckband, calla sleeves, elongated bodice, skirt gathered in upward points, and very full circular train. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white prayerbook topped with white camellias, showered.

For travel to Western North Carolina for a week, the bride changed to a Tibetan tan wool suit made with straight skirt and full box jacket, black hat with profile feather trim of tan, and other accessories of black. On return the couple will be at home in High Point.

A 1942 graduate of Woman's College, Greensboro, Mrs. Hoskins taught three years at North Wilkesboro and now is a member of the faculty of Ray Street School, High Point. Mr. Hoskins, a graduate of High Point School, served with the army during the recent war, and is now employed by J. W. Sechrist and Son, funeral directors in High Point.

Young Woman's Auxiliary Meets

The Young Woman's Auxiliary of Welcome Home Baptist church met Tuesday night, February 6th, at the home of Miss Marie Turner.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Hazel Lee Ashley. The secretary, Miss Annie Lee Vannoy, called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. The meeting was turned over to the program chairman. A very interesting program was given by several of the members taking part. The subject was "Focusing the Heart." After the program the business was brought up before the group.

During the social hour delightful refreshments were served to twenty-two members present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dick Thompson March 6, at 7:00 p. m.

Caudill-Clay Vows Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Vern Caudill, of West Jefferson announce the marriage of their only daughter, Helen Frances, to Mr. Kenneth Bruce Clay, of Boone and North Wilkesboro on Sunday, February ninth at the First Baptist Church, North Wilkesboro. Dr. Gilbert Combs performed the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives.

For her wedding, the bride, an attractive blonde type, wore a tailored suit of light beige gabardine with contrasting accessories of brown. She also wore a shoulder corsage of orchids. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip to Charleston, South Carolina and various points in Florida. Upon their return they will be at home in North Wilkesboro where Mr. Clay is connected with the Northwestern Bank.

Mrs. Clay, who has lived at North Wilkesboro and Boone before coming to West Jefferson a little more than a year ago was graduated from Appalachian high school and afterwards attended Mars Hill College and Appalachian State Teachers College.

Mr. Clay, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clay, of Boone, was graduated from Appalachian high school before entering military service in which he served for two years. Upon his return he became connected with the Northwestern Bank at Boone and was later transferred to North Wilkesboro.

Turkey, a favorite food for family festivities, is being advanced as "the meat dish" for celebrating the George Washington birthday holiday.
