Turner, the president, was in charge of the business session and Mrs. Myrtle Freeland gave the devotions and program, using as her topic, "Set Your House in Order." Prayers were offered by Mrs. Freeland and Mrs. J. W. Neel, and "He Leadeth Me" was sung as the opening hymn. In serving refreshments at the close of the meeting the hostess was aided by Mrs. Zack Ferguson.

Malinda Duncan Feted at Party

Mrs. Isaac Duncan entertained at a Valentine party at her home on C Street Thursday afternoon honoring her daughter, Malinda, who will be seven years old the last of the month, but does not have a birthday date. Malinda born on February 29th has only celebrated one birthday. Twenty-five boys and girls were present for the occasion and were given attractive Valentine favors, and the ice cream served at the close of the afternoon was in heart-shape molds. In a number of games and contests prizes were awarded to Toby Smith, Sammy Osborne, Sarah Jane Payne, and Sarah Lou Chipman. In the entertainment of the children Mrs. Duncan had the assistance of Mrs. Dermont Smith, Mrs. Paul Osborne, Misses Betty and Donna Smith.

Malinda received a shower of lovely gifts.

Wilkesboro Y. W. A. Names Officers

The Y. W. A. of the Wilkesboro Baptist church met at the home of Miss Betty Haworth on Monday, February 17, with the leader, Mrs. W. N. Brookshire and the counselor, Mrs. Dwight Williamson, and eight girls being present. In a previous meeting the fundamentals of the Y. W. A. were given by Mrs. Brookshire. The following officers were elected:

President, Betty Haworth; vice president, Carolyn Byrd; secretary, Marie Minton; treasurer, Ruth Steelman. Also it was decided to meet twice a month.

An interesting program was given at the second meeting, the topic being, "Missions For the Jews." The devotionals were led by Mrs. Brookshire and group songs were enjoyed. At the close of the program, delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all.

The next meeting will be held March 3, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Dwight Williamson.

Louise Walker Is United With Charles F. Kelly

Greensboro, Feb. 16.—Miss Mildred Louise Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Walker, 1513 Trogon Street, was married to Charles Fieldon Kelly, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fieldon Kelly, 915 West Lee Street, formerly of North Wilkesboro, yesterday at 3 p. m. at St. Benedict's Catholic Church by Father J. Richard Quinn, assistant pastor.

The bride wore a white crepe dress, black accessories, and an orchid. The couple were attended by Mrs. Elliott G. Gibbons and Charles F. Walker, Jr.

After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will be with the bride's parents. Mrs. Kelly has been employed by Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company since her graduation from Senior High School last year. Mr. Kelly, whose family came here a year ago, was graduated from North Wilkesboro High School and served four years in the marine corps. He is now employed by Gibbs Machine Company.

Pleasant Home W. M. S. Meets

The February meeting of the W. M. S. of Pleasant Home church was held with Mrs. Clate Bumgarner.

The devotional period was led by Mrs. Ernest Walker. The business session was in charge of the president, Mrs. A. T. Nichols. For personal service it was agreed that the Society help a needy family in the community.

The program topic, "Jews and Arabians," was in charge of Mrs. Bumgarner, assisted by several of the members.

The March meeting will be held with Miss Cora McNeill.

After the program Mrs. Bumgarner, assisted by Mrs. Paul Delp, served delicious cake and coffee.

Garden Club Has Dinner Meeting

The Garden Department of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Edd F. Gardner last Tuesday evening, six-thirty o'clock, for a covered dish supper with Mrs. W. F. Gaddy and Mrs. Ivey Moore as associate hostesses. The dining room was artistically decorated with miniature heart trees in keeping with the Valentine season. Dinner was served buffet style amid the soft glow of red candles on the table and buffet. There were twenty-two members present.

After the dinner the group was invited into the living room for the business session with the president, Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, presiding. The club voted to plant several small dogwood trees at the Woman's clubhouse.

at the approaches to the city as well as in the city, and to give several trees and shrubs to the colored school in Woodlawn, providing the colored P. T. A. will sponsor putting them out. The club also voted to send five dollars to buy garden seeds for Finland.

The president read a letter from Mrs. J. W. Bunn telling about the garden tour of the south including the gardens and beautiful homes in Nantchez.

The topic of the month being birds, the meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Rufus Church, chairman of the bird committee. She presented the following members, Mrs. R. J. Himsflaw, who gave a talk on sun-rise concert on the porch, Mrs. Stator Melver first arrivals in spring, Mrs. Ivey Moore sweet singers of the meadows, and Mrs. Jack Swofford, who gave a talk on how to lure birds to your homes and gardens.

Cub Creek Ladies Adult Class Meets

The Ladies Adult Sunday school class of Cub Creek Baptist church met at Mrs. Grace Phillips' on Thursday night, Feb. 15, with 10 members and 17 visitors present.

The meeting was opened with a song, "What A Friend." The devotional reading was taken from Matthew 7th chapter and was followed by prayer.

After the business session, another sale was conducted to raise funds toward the building fund of the new church.

At the close of the sale refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. C. C. Faw, Jr. Entertains Her Club

Mrs. Ed Anderson Addresses Club Meet

A large number of the members from the North Wilkesboro Woman's club and the Wilkesboro Woman's club attended the monthly meeting of the local club held Monday evening at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon Street to hear Mrs. Ed Anderson, of West Jefferson, who is vice president of the North Carolina Federation of Woman's clubs. Mrs. Ivey Moore presented Mrs. C. H. Cowles, of the Wilkesboro club, who introduced the speaker, Mrs. Anderson, who made a most interesting talk on international relations.

Mrs. J. Q. Adams, the president, presided for a short business session during which time it was voted to sponsor the Cancer Drive beginning the first of April. Mrs. Moore presented Mrs. Anderson with a gift from the club.

Hostesses for the evening, Mesdames Thurmond Kenerly, O. K. Pope, E. N. Phillips, F. D. Meserve, O. E. Triplett, and Rufus Church, served refreshments during the social hour.

Proceeding the meeting Mrs. Jack Swofford and Mrs. Moore gave a dinner at the Swofford home for Mrs. Anderson having as other guests, officers of the local club, Mrs. Lawrence Miller, president of the Wilkesboro club, and Mrs. Cowles. Covers were laid for eight, and the two hostesses presented Mrs. Anderson with a corsage.

Mrs. George S. Parlier Entertains At Tea

Mrs. George S. Parlier entertained at an informal tea Friday afternoon at her home in Wilkesboro, as a courtesy to her friends, who entertained in her behalf during the recent engagement and marriage to George S. Parlier, of Wilkesboro.

The tea table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with a crystal bowl filled with red roses and fern flanked by crystal candlesticks holding white tapers.

The Valentine note was emphasized with one crystal platter of sandwiches being cut in heart shape, spread with a red mixture of pimento cheese spread.

A group of friends called between 3:30 and 4:30 o'clock.
