Rock Creek Class Enjoys Contest

The Young People's Sunday School Class of Rock Creek had a banquet at the American Legion Hut on Saturday night, May 17th. The banquet was the result of a contest, the losing side having to give the banquet. Elvira Wood, Betty Haynes and Royce Porter did the decorating, and Marie Wood and Mary L. Elliot planned the program. Mrs. Roscoe Wood, our Sunday school teacher, was the hostess, and Marjorie Brewer, our class president, was the toastmistress.

Mr. Roscoe Wood tried the chicken and everyone enjoyed it with the creamed potatoes, peas, sliced tomatoes, olives, pickles, pear salad, and apple pie a la mode, coffee and fruit punch. There were twenty-six attending with Mr. and Mrs. Udy Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sebastian of Rock Creek, Betty Dearman of Mt. Airy and Hazel Wood of Richmond, Virginia as guests. Every one had a lovely time.

Kay Thompson Has Lawn Party

Kay Thompson had as her guests Thursday afternoon at her home west of the city, her teacher, Miss Betty Smith, and several of her little school friends.

Croquet and other games were played on the lawn. They also enjoyed a visit out to see the farm animals.

Kay, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Dick Thompson, served ice cream, cake and pink lemonade to Miss Smith, Mallinda Duncan, Walker, Martha Jane Shumate, Charlotte Phillips, Rebecca Gilreath, Sarah Saylor, Larry Phillips, Jimmy Whicker, and Buddy Allen.

Girl Scouts Have Picnic Supper

Twenty-two Girl Scouts, members of the troop of which Mrs. Howard Bowers is the leader, enjoyed a picnic supper at Bluff Park Tuesday evening. Assisting Mrs. Bowers in the outing for the girls were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Justice, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dermont Smith, Mrs. J. B. Carter, and Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant.

Public Invited To Visit Chamberlain Rose Garden

Mrs. A. C. Chamberlain is extending an invitation to the public to visit her rose garden, which will be in the height of bloom for two weeks, beginning Sunday. In the garden Mrs. Chamberlain has sixty rose bushes which includes twelve of the finest varieties of roses. Each variety is labeled and anyone interested in seeing the garden may go through it at any time without calling at the home and asking for permission.

Mrs. Absher Addresses Woman's Club

Thirty-two members were present, including four new members, for the monthly meeting of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. F. Gaddy with Mesdames Z. O. Eller, Fred Hethcock, H. G. Duncan, and M. B. McNeil as associate hostesses. For the program Mrs. Watt M. Cooper, program chairman, presented Mrs. W. R. Absher, who made a talk on the welfare work of Wilkes county. Mrs. J. Q. Adams, the president, was in charge of the business session at which time she gave a yearly report of the club, and Mrs. Edg. F. Gardner gave the report for the garden club, of which she is chairman. New members welcomed into the club were Mesdames Mary Moore Hix, Lane Atkinson, James C. Allen, and Gwyn Gambill. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mrs. Edd F. Gardner Is Hostess To W.S.C.S

The May meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edd F. Gardner in Finley Park having fourteen of the members present. "The Child and His Family" was the theme of the program given by members of the Gardner circle with Mrs. James C. Mills in charge. Mrs. W. A. Hardister gave the meditation, Mrs. Edward Bell the program, and Mrs. Harvel Howell, led the closing prayer. The usual reports were heard during the business session with the president, Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, presiding.

The first known turkey chain in North Carolina has been started in Chatham county.

Baptist Women's Society In Meeting

With the president, Mrs. O. K. Whittington, in charge the monthly meeting of the Wilkesboro Baptist Missionary Society was held at the church Tuesday evening having a large number of the members in attendance. Mrs. Nancy, chairman of Circle No. 1, presented Miss Madge Lewis, Brushy Mountain Associational worker, who made a most interesting talk on the Japanese.

Local People Visitors At Roaring Gap

A large number of people from the Wilkesboros attended Girl Scout "Open House" held for the summer campers at Shirley Rogers camp at Roaring Gap Sunday afternoon. Those going from North Wilkesboro were Mr. and Mrs. Dermont Smith and two daughters, Donna and Toby, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carter and daughter, Celia, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Justice and daughter, Martha Gozeal, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant and son and daughter, Kent and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Starr and daughters, Mary Miller and Anne Weaver, Miss Muriel Coykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Johnson, Anne Smith. From Wilkesboro Mr. and Mrs. Jay Jones and daughter, Mary Yeakle Phipps, Betsy Mitchell, Mickey Somers, Mrs. C. T. Doughton and four children, Betsy, Becca, Jon Lee, and Tommy Doughton. There are still some openings at the camp, and anyone interested in entering Girl Scouts there should contact headquarters at Winston-Salem.
